This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

A. In Great Britain,

John Osborn,

Q. VI. What Ministers have DIED since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, forty-five, viz.,—

(1.) JAMES HUGHES; who was born at Carmarthen in 1819, and died at Manchester, July 31st, 1890. He devoted himself to the service of Christ in his eighteenth year, and in 1845 was received as a preacher on trial. Notwithstanding constitutional diffidence, his early preaching was fervid and evangelistic, and was blessed with much fruit. His ministry throughout was highly conscientious and spiritual, contributing to edification; though he always longed for direct results in conversions.

He was an ardent student, and gained some acquaintance with several modern languages; but he applied himself especially to the study of philosophy, and of theology in its relations to psychology and ethics. His contributions to the Wesleyan-Methodist Magazine, and to other publications, indicated superior ability. But his intellectual ardour never diminished his characteristic devoutness, his pastoral diligence, or his spiritual activities. His sermons were methodical, sometimes ingeniously arranged; they presented evangelical truth with loving sincerity; and were carefully expressed in language always chaste, and often felicitous, embodying subtle thought by simple terms; and were not seldom attended with power. Though sometimes timid before men, he was strong in faith and mighty in prayer; and this made many of his services thrilling and memorable.

His wide knowledge and ample sympathy attracted to his Bible-classes many young persons, some of whom have entered the Ministry. He was ready to assist the mental and spiritual advancement of his junior colleagues, many of whom confess their obligations to his counsels and encouragement.

His experience, chastened by domestic affliction and by spiritual conflicts, to which his highly sensitive moral feeling rendered him liable, enabled him to be a welcome friend to the sorrowful and perplexed. His naturally warm temperament was invested with a gentleness and humility which often disguised his strength, but revealed to all that he had 'put on the Lord Jesus Christ.' The absence of ambition and his distrust of his ability for business prevented him from becoming conspicuous in public affairs; but he was a faithful minister, a lover of souls, a pattern of spiritual-mindedness, and a true friend.

In 1887 Mr. Hughes retired from active work; and after three years of Supernumerary life, in which he laboured as strength allowed, sleep, without premonition, deepened into eternal rest.

(2.) THOMAS J. DESPRÈS; who was born at Alderney in 1844. His parents were godly. In 1867 he was accepted as a probationer for the Ministry, being at once appointed to a Circuit. His individuality and force of character were marked. Possessed of a vigorous constitution, he entered heartily into all he undertook. His preaching was preeminently practical, and in pastoral visitation he was most assiduous and painstaking. His administration as a Superintendent was marked by firmness, blended with courtesy; as a colleague, he was ever frank, manly and true. His ministry was blessed with gracious results in many Circuits.

During the illness that caused his death his sufferings were intense; nevertheless, up to almost the last, he cherished the hope of resuming the work so inexpressibly dear to him. His trust in his Saviour remained bright and strong through all his afflictions. Unconsciousness supervened; and he passed peacefully away on August 5th, 1890, in the forty-seventh year of his age, and the twenty-third of his ministry.

(3.) CHARLES WILLIAMS; who was born at Chichester in 1806. Very early in life he was the subject of religious impressions. These impressions were deepened under a sermon by the Rev. John Smith. Whilst endeavouring to lead a companion to Christ he was himself led into the realization of peace with God.

Very soon his zeal and intelligence became recognized, and he was urged to exercise his gifts in preaching the Gospel. In 1828 he was accepted as a probationer for the Ministry, and appointed to labour in the Jersey Circuit. For forty years he laboured abundantly in the Full Work of the Ministry, when, in consequence of failing health, he became a Supernumerary, and settled in the Cardiff (Loudoun Square) Circuit.

He was a man of deep piety; he walked closely with God, and in his intercourse with men he set a worthy example in life and conversation, of charity, pureness and fidelity. His genial brotherly spirit and unostentatious manner secured for him the affection of his colleagues. His preaching was sound in doctrine, and intensely practical, and was made a blessing to many. His pastoral work, which he discharged with great fidelity and success, greatly endeared him to the people among whom he laboured. During his last few years, when no longer able to preach, he continued his work of meeting Classes and visiting among the sick and poor; going among those who were connected with no Church, with ministrations of sympathy and help. His last act of service was to induce a friend to join the Church of Christ.

Towards the close of his life he suffered very greatly from physical weakness, but to the end preserved his consciousness of the favour of God. He died in perfect peace, August 8th, 1890, in the eighty-third year of his age, and the sixty-second of his ministry.

(4.) THOMAS WEST; who was born in Glasgow, January 10th, 1824. He was the seventh son of parents of no ordinary mind and piety, and from his earliest years was trained to be a useful member of the Methodist Church. Early in life a godly home training resulted in his conversion. It soon became evident he was intended for the Ministry, specially in the mission-field. He had offers of lucrative positions, but his convictions as to his call were too strong and deep to permit him to enter commercial life. When scarcely twenty-one years of age he was ordained, and sent out with his young wife as one of our missionary pioneers to the Friendly Isles. So zealous and diligent was he, that on his way out he mastered the elements of the Tongese language, and in a short time he could preach and write therein with an astonishing fluency. He soon developed into, not only a clever linguist, but an able carpenter, builder and doctor. In addition to his arduous evangelistic labours, he compiled a Tongese grammar, and other educational works, and translated the Bible into the native language. He soon had the joy of seeing schools established, printing-presses set up, and a valuable code of laws enacted; and one of his last acts as a missionary, was to prepare for King George of Tonga a proposal for the formal recognition by Foreign Powers of the independence of the Friendly Islands. Failing health compelled him to leave his beloved work in 1855. The first six years after his return to England were spent in translating and revising the Scriptures for the Bible Society, and in revisiting the Islands.

For the next fifteen years he travelled in some of our most important Circuits, rendering efficient service in deputation work, and in writing Ten Years in South-Central Polynesia. In all he undertook he proved himself a diligent and faithful servant of the Master: a man of firm principle, and an able minister of Christ. His last illness was protracted, but borne with much patience. Even to the last his heart was in Tonga. In moments of unconsciousness, he would speak and act as though engaged in his old work in the 'far-off islands of the sea.' Just before passing away, he spoke with strong confidence of his calm trust in his Saviour; and thus fell asleep, August 29th, 1890, in the sixty-seventh year of his age, and the forty-fifth of his ministry.

(5.) JOSEPH MIDGLEY; who was born at Calow, near Chesterfield, in 1814. In early life he was converted to God under the ministry of the Rev. John Smith, and soon began to preach the glorious Gospel which for more than half-a-century it was his chief joy to proclaim. In 1838 he was appointed to the Thetford Circuit. He owed less to educational advantages than to natural gifts and Divine bestowments. Having a strong constitution, a cheerful temperament, a sound judgment, and a yearning passion for saving souls, he soon proved himself a useful minister of the Lord Jesus. In some of our widest Circuits he was 'in labours more abundant;' seeking with sustained zeal and fidelity to discharge all the duties of his office.

His preaching was vigorous and practical, always characterized by sound doctrine and strong common-sense, and frequently by vehement earnestness; and the spirituality and fervency of his prayers were sometimes extraordinary. In pastoral visitation he was regular and sympathetic; he was very happy in his manner of dealing with children and young people; and during the whole of his ministry his labours were owned of God.

While stationed at Crowland his health began to fail in February 1890. For awhile he struggled against disease and infirmity, and removed to Sale in May, in the hope of partial recovery, and service as a Supernumerary. But it soon became evident that his work was done. His affliction somewhat clouded his spiritual consolation; but his faith never faltered, and his testimony ever was: 'Simply to the Cross I cling.' He died at Sale on Sunday morning, September 7th, 1890, in the seventy-seventh year of his age, and the fifty-third of his ministry, peacefully passing into the presence of God.

(6.) Thomas Hargreaves; who was born at Crawshawbooth in 1842. In boyhood he was powerfully influenced by the saintly character of his parents, and when twelve years old was drawn into vital and abiding union with Christ. He was accepted as a probationer for the Ministry in 1865, and was for three years a diligent student at Didsbury. For nine years he laboured in the North of England, where, as in all his Circuits, he was a 'man greatly beloved.' He was a sympathetic colleague, an affectionate pastor, and a beautiful example of Christian virtues. While bold and firm in the maintenance of right principles, he was singularly amiable and conciliatory in spirit. In visits to the sick and the bereaved he was eminently 'a son of consolation,' imitating his gracious Master in tender responsiveness to every call 'to bind up the broken-hearted.' His sermons were prepared with scrupulous care, and evidenced a thorough mastery of Biblical themes. There was a perpetual freshness in his ministry; and avoiding the vanities of showy rhetoric, he presented his thoughts in chaste diction, which often rose into glowing eloquence.

In 1889 he was appointed to the Burton-on-Trent Circuit. He speedily won the confidence and affection of the people, who saw in his Superintendency the promise of peaceful and prosperous years. But the joyful anticipation was sadly clouded. He was laid aside by what was thought would only be a brief illness; but he died on September 12th, 1890, in the forty-ninth year of his age, and the twenty-fourth of his ministry.

(7.) WILLIAM SMITH WATSON; a native of Nottingham, who served God from his youth. During his training for the Ministry, by his Christian conduct he secured the esteem and love alike of those who directed and of those who shared his studies. His gifts and attainments, and, yet more, his steadfast and earnest devotion, gave promise of much usefulness. Though he had scarcely entered upon ministerial work at Aldershot, yet in this short time his humility and devotedness greatly impressed both colleagues and people, who deplored his loss when, September 16th, 1890, in the thirty-first year of his age, he was called to join those who in God's temple serve Him evermore.

(8.) WILLIAM HENRY SARGENT; who was born in Oldham in 1806. He was one of ten sons of a Methodist minister. He was educated at Woodhouse-Grove, entering the school when he was eight years of age. Whilst at the school he was converted, during a revival which began one night when the news of the sudden death of the Rev. William Bramwell was announced. Some years were spent in business, where his ability and conduct won the confidence and honour of those who knew him. He entered the Ministry in 1832, and for thirty-five years continued a most cheerful and painstaking worker, carefully attending to all the details of Circuit work. In 1867 he was appointed Governor and Chaplain of New Kingswood School. In this office he took great delight. The duties, however, were too heavy for his strength; and at the end of six years he was compelled to become a Supernumerary. From 1873 to 1890 he resided in Southport, where he died September 19th.

He was a most conscientious man, with clear and strong convictions, prompt in action, counting no sacrifice too great when duty called. His mind was keen and inquiring, and his memory retentive of detail. But his enjoyment of books and studies was never allowed to interfere with the discharge of duty. He was a peculiarly successful pastor; he knew everybody in his Society, and had remarkable personal influence; partly in consequence of his practical and shrewd advice, but chiefly through his strong sympathy. During his closing years, though by nature of a zealous and eager temper, he bore inaction and weariness very patiently, and throughout his long illness manifested the heartiest trust in God, and joy in His salvation.

(9.) THOMAS NIGHTINGALE; who was born at Rotherham in 1814 of a Methodist family of the fourth generation, which gave three sons to the Ministry. In childhood he was surrounded with religious influences, which were continued during his school-days. But he was not fully awakened and brought to decision for Christ till 1832, when he found peace with God under the ministry of the Rev. John M'Lean. Within six months of his conversion he began to preach. He soon felt it to be his duty to offer himself for the Ministry, for which he was accepted by the Conference in 1834. He spent two years at Hoxton, and entered Circuit work in 1836. His ministry extended over forty-nine years. During the last twelve years of service he held the office of Chairman in the Districts within which he was stationed. From the first he manifested a passion for evangelistic work, and was the means of awakening and bringing to Christ many hundreds.

The fruit of his ministry is found in every Circuit where he laboured, and some of his spiritual sons are in the Ministry. He was a successful, faithful and diligent pastor; a sagacious ruler in the Church, beloved and trusted alike by his colleagues and the people. His character was marked by simplicity, strength, purity, humility and charity; the foundation of all being his ardent love for God, and his close fellowship with Him. He was also well read both in literature and general knowledge. Nothing was more marked in him than his keen common-sense, and his strong vein of humour, which, though sometimes searching, was always kindly, and which increased his attractiveness to those who knew him. He was a lover of peace, was generous in giving, and was a great favourite with the children, in whom he took an affectionate and thoughtful interest. He was a fine specimen of a devoted and consistent Christian, a successful and faithful Christian minister of the true Methodist type. He taught the Wesleyan doctrine of Entire Sanctification wisely, as well as earnestly, being a careful theologian; and his whole conversation and life bore witness to his true consecration of heart and soul. He retired from active work in 1886.

After a few months he became unable to take any public service. His strength gradually declined, and he had to endure much pain, which was borne with cheerful patience and unfailing resignation. After a week of acute suffering the end came with startling suddenness; and on September 19th, 1890, he 'fell asleep.'

(10.) JOSEPH BINNS; who was born at Huddersfield on the 17th of March, 1808. His parents were Congregationalists. They apprenticed him to the cloth trade; and through the influence of his master's family he was led to attend the Wesleyan chapel. This resulted in his conversion and his union with the Wesleyan-Methodist Society. His piety was from the first earnest, consistent and cheerful. At the age of twenty he began to preach. His first sermon was delivered in Oldham, and sixty-one years afterwards he preached his last sermon there, on the 29th of September, 1889.

He entered the Ministry in the year 1834, and travelled in twenty-one Circuits, winning everywhere the respect and affection of the people. His Christian cheerfulness was a very beautiful feature of his character, which struck and attracted many. Naturally of a genial disposition, he was raised by religion to a high degree of brightness and buoyancy. But this cheerfulness was that of a man who 'walked with God.'

His preaching was plain and practical. His object was evidently to save sinners and to edify saints; and to this end he dwelt mainly on the great awakening and inspiring themes of the Gospel. He once said: 'I have always aimed at being a faithful Methodist preacher—one of the old stamp.' He was also a diligent and painstaking pastor, always going in and out among the people. 'By kindness' he won the affection of the poor; and 'by love unfeigned,' he specially endeared himself to children. His ministry, both in the pulpit and the home, was a means of blessing to many.

He became a Supernumerary in 1881, and settled at Southport, where he spent nine useful and happy years. He was very regular in his attendance at the house of God, and on Sunday, the 21st of September, 1890, he was suddenly called from the earthly to the heavenly sanctuary. Whilst in the attitude of prayer, he fell down in the pew unconscious, and was borne into the vestry, where in a few minutes he passed without a pang into the rest that 'remaineth to the people of God.'

(11.) WILLIAM HARRIS RULE, D.D.; who was born at Penryn, Cornwall, on the 15th November, 1802, and died at Addiscombe, Croydon, on the 25th September, 1890.

In childhood and early youth he had sorrows and struggles,—a hard discipline that influenced him through life. Driven from home by his father, a naval doctor, he wandered to strange cities; but, in the providence of God, as the result of the influence of the preeminently Christian home of the father of the Rev. Dr. Osborn, he was religiously awakened, and truly converted.

His ministry was long, laborious and very useful. His life on the foreign field, and in England, abounded in remarkable incident. His work was very varied. He preached to slaves in the West Indies, and he warmly espoused their Cause, sometimes being bold beyond the bounds of prudence. For ten years he was stationed in Gibraltar, at which time he preached regularly to Spaniards in their own language, and visited the Moors in Africa, to whom also he proclaimed the Word of Life. He wrote and translated many books in Spanish, his version of the Four Gospels being specially noticeable. He read eleven languages, and conversed in several. For six years he was one of the Connexional Editors, rendering good service by editing and writing several valuable works. He was a master of the Romish controversy, and his History of the Inquisition and other kindred books remain monuments of his industry, learning and zeal. He was appointed to several English Circuits, and was eloquent as an advocate for the Mission Cause; but his crowning work was that done for the British Army. He was the leader of the few who secured to Wesleyan and other Nonconformist soldiers their right to attend the services of their own Church, and to have the ministration of their own ministers in parade services, hospitals, prisons and in war. For this Dr. Rule fought bravely and long; encountering strong opposition, and displaying the rare and peculiar grace that distinguished him in the correspondence it involved. In the evening of life his heart was gladdened by the knowledge that Nonconformists had gained the religious liberty for which he struggled.

Dr. Rule was a good man, an earnest believer in his God and Saviour and in the Holy Word, the truths of Christianity, and the distinctive doctrines of Methodism. He was a man of prayer, fervent in spirit, hopeful, anxious for the salvation of his people. He was esteemed as a preacher. His perseverance and industry were extraordinary. His character was of exceptional force. To those who watched his public work he seemed the embodiment of militant aggressiveness; but those who knew him best discerned the depth of his piety, and the gentleness of his greatness.

He lived nearly eighty-eight years. He lived some years beyond his active life, out of the sight of crowds, and died at peace with God, with his own conscience, and with his fellowmen; leaving the memory of a unique man, a 'faithful servant,' and 'a good soldier of Jesus Christ.'

(12.) CHARLES HALLER; who was born in Hull in 1848. Whilst still a youth, and during a gracious revival in Great Thornton Street Circuit, the prayers and labours of a godly parentage brought forth fruit in his decision for Christ. His spare time was devoted to Cottage Prayer-meetings, Sunday-school work, and not unfrequently Prayer-meetings in the fields for the conversion of the people. His zeal and devotion soon pointed him out as one qualified for the Ministry. After three years at the Institution he received his first appointment to Bury St. Edmunds, in 1872; and up till the time of his death he studied to show himself approved unto God, 'a workman that needeth not to be ashamed.' His sermons were well-arranged and full of good practical sense. He excelled in the devotional exercises of the sanctuary. As a pastor, he was 'diligent in season,' and 'out of season.' He was a sympathetic colleague. Upon his appointment to the Otley Circuit in 1889 he showed a real interest in everything that pertained to the true welfare of the Societies. The end was sudden. On the Sunday previous to his death he conducted two services with his usual vigour, and on the following day took his appointment. There was then no indication that his work was ended; but early in the morning of Wednesday, October 8th, 1890, he entered into rest.

(13.) JAMES CHALMERS, M.A.; who was born at Peterhead, January 25th, 1825. His parents were Presbyterians; but under the ministry of the late Dr. George Scott he joined the Methodist Society in 1845. At that time he was pursuing his studies in King's College, Aberdeen, where he won for himself an eminent place in classics and mathematics, taking his degree in 1848. He attributed the beginning of his spiritual life to the perusal of Pike's Early Piety. During a season of deep penitence he read, upon his knees, St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans; and, having obtained 'peace with God,' that Epistle became a favourite study, and afterwards impressed its character upon his ministry. He was accepted as a probationer in 1851. During the forty years over which his labours extended there was a distinct growth in his pulpit and pastoral influence. They were never so powerful as at the time of his death. There was a perpetual freshness in his ministry. The studies that made him a preacher made him a saint. He read the Scriptures with a mind opened to new revelations of Christ; and so abundant were these revelations that his sermons, his addresses, his writings, and his private conversation were luminous reflections of Christ.

He was mighty in prayer; and the prayer-meeting was his grand instrument in advancing the Work of God in his Circuits. He discharged his pastoral duties with assiduous care; and, perhaps, won as many souls by personal appeal as by his preaching; for it may truly be said that he continued to proclaim Christ after he had left the pulpit. He studied diligently the doctrine of holiness; and strove with unwearied ardour to raise his life to the level of his doctrine, and to take his hearers with him. Familiar himself with the distress and labour of spiritual conflict, he showed extraordinary skill in bringing rest to the troubled soul, and healing to the wounded spirit. He was a faithful and generous colleague. He was elected into the Legal Conference in 1886. He knew his own line of work; but he felt an equal interest in the methods of others, and rejoiced in their success. His last words were delivered at a Meeting in the Central Hall in Manchester on the 10th of October, 1890. He had been referring to his long connection with the Methodism of that city, and concluded by expressing a burning desire to see the kingdom of his Lord come quickly, by whatsoever agency promoted. With this noble sentiment upon his lips, he fell down in the midst of his brethren,—and 'he was not, for God took him,'—in the sixty-sixth year of his age, and the fortieth of his ministry.

(14.) SAMUEL COOKE; who was born in Dursley. He was the son of pious and highly respected Methodist parents. Very early in life he became the subject of the Holy Spirit's strivings, and yielded himself to Christ. His earnest services for the Master soon attracted attention, and when a youth, he was employed as a local-preacher, and was known as 'The Boy Preacher.' He entered the Ministry in the year 1836.

He proved himself a most useful and acceptable minister, one of those to whose untiring fidelity Methodism owes so much. He was distinguished by an intense loyalty to Methodism, its institutions and discipline, for the honour and maintenance of which he strove with zeal and fidelity during a long and laborious ministry. He was a diligent and devout student of God's Word, and painstaking in his preparation for the pulpit. His utterances were thoroughly practical and evangelical, and were much appreciated by mature Christians. As a colleague and as a Superintendent of Circuits, he was faithful, brotherly and efficient. He was courteous but firm, and scrupulously conscientious in the discharge of his duties. In 1879 he retired from the responsibilities of Circuit appointments, but cheerfully gave services which were much valued in the Guisborough and Redcar Circuit, in which he spent the last days of his life At Coatham, on November 12th, 1890, he passed peacefully away, in the seventy-eighth year of his age, and the fifty-fifth of his ministry.

(15.) ALEXANDER M'AULAY; who was born at Glasgow in 1818. Though of Presbyterian parentage, Methodism must at an early period have touched the family life, Mr. M'Aulay's father having been baptized by John Wesley. Brought up under the care of a devout and revered mother, the teaching of his childhood strongly tinctured his whole after-life. His early Scotch Presbyterianism affected his later ecclesiastical views, and the Puritanism of his boyhood contributed an element of strength to the robust Arminianism of his manhood. Scotland, in its political history, and especially in its religious struggles, never failed to rouse his enthusiasm.

In March 1835 he came under Methodist influence, was deeply convinced of sin, and in the open air at midnight, in the centre of his native city, he entered into the triumphant joy of conscious salvation. He immediately commenced Evangelistic labours in the Glasgow Infirmary, visiting the sick and dying. On his twentieth birthday he left Glasgow for London, and connected himself with a Sunday-morning Class at Spitalfields. His first public address was undertaken impromptu in the open air, in defence of the faith against the Socialists of those days. His gifts thus becoming recognised, his name was placed on the Local-preachers' Plan, and shortly afterwards he was accepted for the Ministry, and sent in 1840 to Ayr. His first seven years were spent in Scotland, where his ministry grew in power, till at Dunbar—where he never preached less than three times and often four on the Sunday, once being in the open air—it was signally owned of God. Thence to Leeds, where his name is still held in high honour, Huddersfield and Manchester. He returned to the scene of his earliest work in Spitalfields. In this neighbourhood he commenced that memorable ministry which, for the thirteen years following, he prosecuted as the Methodist apostle of the East End. Chapels, schools, congregations, societies, Circuits, rose to God's word of power through his lips; and around these he gathered, as was meet, the innumerable benevolences of the Christian social life. His was a forward movement which has never been surpassed, and almost alone he inspired it. His capacity for enlisting and organizing the labour of others was remarkable, and by it he multiplied himself a hundredfold; and to this, under God, he attributed his success. After residences in Liverpool and Birmingham he returned to London; and in 1876 received from his brethren the highest honour in their gift, being appointed President of the Conference, and also General Secretary of the Home-Mission Department.

The peculiar circumstances of that Conference demanded the highest qualities in its President, and these he exhibited in a most marked degree; and the problem that strongly agitated our Church was most satisfactorily and harmoniously settled—settled in a manner that prompted that Thanksgiving Fund, which placed on the altar of God the largest thank-offerings ever presented by Methodism. The year of Mr. M'Aulay's Presidency was also distinguished for the promotion of the Work of God by Conventions held in various parts of the country, which his personal presence and pecuniary contributions greatly assisted.

His official life, whether as President, General Secretary of Home Missions, Home Missionary, or Circuit minister, was the natural outcome of his personal qualities; being characterized by caution and earnestness, by clear thinking and strong feeling, by evangelistic fervour and tender sympathy, by uncompromising fidelity to conscience, by self-control, and by the fearless administration of the most difficult duties; and his work was very fruitful—spiritually and materially.

As a preacher, he specially addressed the conscience. Although his voice was not musical, his appeals were frequently irresistible. He habitually expected the Divine unction; and to this he surrendered himself. Very painful domestic affliction awakened within him a pathetic regard for those who were in trouble, and gave him a peculiar aptitude in leading them to their great Healer. His converts were not only numerous, but steadfast. He demanded deep conviction of sin; and without it, he was disposed to doubt a sound conversion. The 'spirit of grace and of supplication' was poured upon him to a most extraordinary degree. Few who were led by him to the throne in his public exercises will forget the nearness of their access, and the power with which God was wont to respond to the cry of His servant. Here was his great strength. To the sick and the poor he very generously contributed, and tenderly ministered. To little children he was a delightful companion, and home missionaries and young ministers at his house ever found rest and spiritual reinvigoration for their work.

On his retirement from office, he set himself to realize one of the dreams of his early life. During the Anti-Slavery agitation, his spirit had been stirred with sympathy for Africans. He had offered himself for this special missionary sphere, but had been appointed to Home work. Now, when in the Providence of God all domestic ties had been severed, he resolved to visit the scenes that had filled the imagination of his young manhood. At his own expense he went to the West Indies, preaching everywhere, and everywhere the blessing of God was seen in aroused Churches and multitudes of converts.

After a visit to England, he undertook, still at his own expense, a larger evangelistic tour, and though more than seventy years of age, set out for Africa with all the ardour of youth. There he became instrumental in reviving the Churches; and was looking forward to extended service amongst the natives, when his course was unexpectedly arrested. His Master said: 'It is enough'; and, after twelve days of suffering, he was called to his rest, at Somerset East, on December 1st, 1890, aged seventy-two years.

(16.) JOHN BOWMAN; who was born in Liverpool in 1816. He was much indebted to his mother for faithful religious training. He was sensitively conscientious, unswerving in his regard to truthfulness and honour, and firmly independent. When thirteen years of age, at a Lovefeast at Workington, he was deeply convinced of sin. After three days he found peace with God. In 1839 he offered himself for our Foreign Missions. When at the Hoxton Institution he was twice told to prepare for departure; but the medical advisers pronounced him to be unfit.

With continually close study and watchfulness over himself, he gave attendance to the Ministry and Pastorate, the fruit of which was fully and permanently realized in the strengthening and increase of the Church. He had a spirit of diligent and extended research, his special interest centering in whatever helped to the true interpretation and spiritual apprehension of the Word. Those who most intimately knew him learnt to lean upon his words with affectionate esteem and appreciation. His interest in his studies, and in all that pertained to the Church of Christ, and his sympathy with Methodism and his brethren, he exhibited to the last.

Though to some he might appear rigid in his views, he first exercised severity over himself. He was reverent in regard for the Lord's day, and for the services of His house. His strength of conviction and resolve enabled him through life to serve God in 'much affliction,' though compelled, in the midst of his ministry, to spend several years in retirement from the Full Work. During his last weeks he suffered intensely. Not many days before he passed away a friend quoted to him the words: 'My flesh and my heart faileth,' when he, though in much pain, firmly continued; 'but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.' He died December 7th, 1890, in the seventy-fifth year of his age, and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(17.) JAMES MITCHELL; who was born at Tresillian, near

Truro, in 1819, of God-fearing parents, who gave him as good an education as their circumstances would permit. He was converted in his sixteenth year, and became enthusiastic in attendance at the Class-meeting, Prayer-meeting, and other Means of Grace. He early began to preach, always with acceptance; and in 1845 was called to the Ministry, his first appointment being Camelford. With the exception of three years, from 1870 to 1873, when he became a Supernumerary through ill-health, he laboured diligently and successfully for thirty-four years, chiefly in the West of England. In 1882, when his health again failed, he finally retired from the active work, and settled down in the Plymouth (King-street) Circuit. His health improving, he engaged in a good deal of preaching and pastoral work, taking charge also of a Class, which soon became a large one. Early in October last he was seized with paralysis; and after suffering about eight weeks, he passed away. No more loyal and devoted Methodist preacher ever lived. By some regarded as strait, he, nevertheless, set an example of fidelity to Christ and Scripture, and of conscientiousness in the discharge of duty, that will be an inspiration to many for years to come. He was kind to the poor, gentle to little children, faithful to his friends, and humble before God. He entered into rest December 9th, 1890.

(18) ROBERT KEYWORTH; who was born at Saxilby, near Lincoln, in 1816. Converted to God in youth, he was placed on the Local-preachers' Plan at the age of sixteen, in association with John Hunt, Frederick James Jobson and Thomas Cooper. He was brought up amid some of the best traditions and under some of the best influences of Methodism, and soon proved himself a more than ordinarily useful and acceptable preacher. At the age of twenty-two he was accepted as a probationer for the Ministry, and appointed to the Alford Circuit.

In a ministerial career extending over nearly fifty-three years he faithfully served his generation. He travelled in Circuits in his native county, and in Cornwall, and wisely administered Methodism in important centres of the manufacturing districts. In some of his Circuits, especially, he was signally useful, as in Blackburn, Redditch and Stourbridge. In 1886 he became a Supernumerary, and resided at Morecambe, where he spent a quiet eventide. He was a patient sufferer, and manifested to the last a deep interest in everything that concerned the Work of God. To him 'death was hallowed into sleep,' for he passed away without a struggle or a groan.

His preaching was faithful, and characterized by great directness of aim. He was 'a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth.' He was a diligent pastor; as a colleague he was trusted, and as a Superintendent he gave careful attention to every detail of his work. He entered into rest January 4th, 1891.

(19.) JAMES PEARCE, son of the Rev. John Pearce, was born at Sleaford in 1844. He was converted to God while a scholar at New Kingswood School, and began to preach when he was seventeen years of age. In 1863 he was appointed to a Circuit, and, for upwards of twenty years, he faithfully discharged the duties of his ministry. His superior natural abilities were carefully improved by diligent study and systematic reading. His judgment was sound, his utterances ready and convincing, and his opinions had much weight in our Quarterly and District Meetings. His extensive acquaintance with the constitution of Methodism enabled him to render considerable service both in legislative and administrative work.

Mr. Pearce had a faculty for organization, and gave great attention to details. He was quick to detect sophistry. His nervous temperament was highly strung and sensitive, while his spirit was tender to the touch of kindness or the sense of injury. He was a capable and painstaking Superintendent, a good preacher, an effective speaker both in debate and on the platform, and a sympathetic pastor, whose visits to the afflicted of his flock were always greatly appreciated. He was a brotherly colleague, and very tender of the character and reputation of his brethren.

Early in 1884, while Superintendent of the Arkwright-street Circuit, Nottingham, he was laid aside by a distressing affliction, from which he never fully recovered, but which was borne with Christian resignation to the end. His death was occasioned by a fall from his horse. He died at Sunnyside, near Lymington, on February 6th, 1891, aged forty-seven years.

(20.) WILLIAM TAYLOR; who was born at Brigham, Cumberland, in 1848. He was converted to God when about seventeen years old, commenced to preach at eighteen, and entered our Ministry in 1873. The three years spent at Didsbury College, where he won the esteem alike of tutors and students, were amongst his happiest memories.

He was very kind and generous, modest, retiring, and unselfish. He was a diligent pastor, a genial colleague, and a good man. His preaching was sympathetic, acceptable, sensible and useful; his sermons often full of freshness and force; and his prayers revealing a simple faith in God as his habitual religious experience. His great joy was to bring sinners to Christ. In 1889 he was stationed in the Abergavenny Circuit, where he looked forward to three years of happy and successful service for the Master and the Church he loved; but on the 7th of February, 1891, after an illness of only four days, borne with Christian fortitude and patience, he peacefully fell asleep in Jesus in the forty-second year of his age, and the eighteenth of his ministry. His testimony when dying was joyous and confident. At intervals his mind wandered to the work he loved best, and he was calling sinners to repentance, and bidding them believe on Jesus Christ. Among his last words were: 'I see Jesus;' 'To-night I shall be treading the streets of the New Jerusalem;' and to his children his last message was: 'Keep yourselves unspotted from the world, and meet your father in heaven.'

(21.) THOMPSON HESK; born at Hull in 1814. Entered the Ministry in 1840; became Supernumerary in 1869. Died at Alderney, on February 17th, 1891, in the seventy-seventh year of his age, and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(22.) JOHN RHODES (A); who was born at Bradford, Yorkshire, in 1824. He came of Christian parents, who trained him in the principles of the Gospel. Converted to Christ when sixteen years of age, he immediately won some of his companions for the Saviour, several of whom became useful Christians, and one a minister of the Lord Jesus. He employed his gifts and graces in Christian enterprise; as Sunday-school teacher, cottage prayer-leader, sick visitor, and local-preacher. Under his preaching many souls were saved; and this marked him out for the Ministry of the Gospel. He was accepted as a probationer in 1849, and spent three years at Richmond College. He was a thoughtful expository preacher; a kindly colleague; and a diligent pastor, exercising great influence in the homes of our people. In his best days he was an effective platform speaker. He had good business abilities, and rendered valuable service as Superintendent in several important Circuits. He was remarkable for strength and simplicity of faith, and for the great fervency of his prayers. He was highly conscientious in his work; and though constitutionally timid, he was courageous at the call of duty. He was lowly-minded, instinctively ready to esteem another better than himself. He died as he lived, a true and loyal servant of Christ. He declared that he would not change his position for that of the greatest man in England; and that he longed for heaven not merely as a rest, but as furnishing the opportunity of more splendid and perfect service. He entered into fuller life March 14th, 1891, in the sixty-seventh year of his age, and the fortieth of his ministry.

(23.) GEORGE OSBORN, D.D.; who was born at Rochester on March 29th, 1808. His father was the leading Office-bearer, and his mother a Class-leader in the Methodist Society in that city; and both were remarkable for personal godliness, and for the successful training of a large family 'in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.'

George Osborn's conversion took place in early life, and the godly influences of his home were happily followed by those of the school to which he was sent. In his teens he became a local-preacher, and before he attained his majority he was accepted by the Conference as a probationer for the Ministry. In 1828 he was sent into a Circuit as a supply. For the first twenty-three years of his ministerial life he laboured in the London, Manchester and Liverpool Districts. From the first he was diligent, studious and prayerful; and he successfully accumulated stores of biblical, theological, and other knowledge, which he treasured up in a memory wonderfully accurate and retentive. In 1851 he was appointed one of the General Secretaries of the Wesleyan Missionary Society, in which office he continued until 1868, when he became Tutor in Theology in the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution. In 1885 he relinquished this post, and became a Supernumerary. He died at his residence at Richmond on April 18th, 1891.

George Osborn's eminent abilities were developed early. While yet young he had the reputation of being an able preacher, 'mighty in the Scriptures.' It was soon discovered that his views and sympathies were far-reaching, and that he had capabilities for a wide sphere. When only two or three years in Full Connexion, in the Chancery Suit which arose out of the Connexional disturbances of 1834-5, he rendered important service. A few years afterwards, as Secretary to the Committee of Privileges, he distinguished himself by the part he took in the Gedney Case, in which the validity of Wesleyan baptism, which had been disputed, was affirmed by the highest Court of Appeal; and throughout his life, in all legal cases which affected the authority of our Connexional Courts, or the privileges of our people, he took a leading share, and showed conspicuous ability. He was an advocate of popular education, and did good work in the establishment of our own day-school system. From his earlier ministry to the close of life, his extensive knowledge and acute intelligence made him one of the most valuable members of our departmental committees.

Dr. Osborn's influence in the Conference was remarkably powerful. His wide and accurate knowledge of Methodist law gave great authority to his utterances on matters of administration. On purely theological and spiritual questions his addresses, for unction and power, could scarcely be surpassed. His influence in the assemblies of his brethren was further increased by his almost unequalled ability in debate. His thoughts, clear and closely connected, were conveyed in well-chosen words, which came to him with remarkable ease and readiness. It was not, however, his style which influenced his hearers so much as the fulness of his knowledge, the strength of his convictions, and the cogency of his reasonings.

Dr. Osborn, who was one of the founders of the Evangelical Alliance, was a Catholic-minded Christian; but his love of Methodism was as intense as his knowledge of its history, principles and polity was minute and complete. He had studied the writings of the Founder of the Methodist Societies so diligently, repeatedly and lovingly, that his spirit became thoroughly imbued with their theological teachings, and notably with the treasures of evangelical hymnody with which the Wesleys have enriched the universal Church. With what he regarded as necessary developments he had no quarrel. Against changes which he deemed to be unnecessary he strove, in some instances unsuccessfully, with all the might of his varied powers. In these cases many who differed from him in opinion were ready to admit that his resistance arose from his love of Methodism. In the case of Lay Representation in the Conference, to which he had been strongly opposed, it was pleasing to see that, when the change was accomplished, he practically acquiesced in it; and that at the fourth Conference, after the inauguration of the new order, this honoured minister was again elected to the Presidential Chair.

The fearlessness of Dr. Osborn in giving expression to his views, even when they were unpopular, was a striking trait in his character. Had the necessities of the times required it, he would not have been unwilling to be another Athanasius contra mundum. He was at the farthest possible remove from being an opportunist or a timeserver, and his whole conduct showed that the motive by which he was ever actuated was not a desire for popular favour, but a deep sense of duty. In domestic and private life he was much beloved by children and young people, easily winning their confidence and esteem. He unlocked his constitutional reticence, and conversed freely and charmingly. When in Circuit work he showed his interest in the young by the conduct of Bible-classes; and when Missionary Secretary by his kindness to young missionaries who were domiciled occasionally under his roof. He ruled well his own house, and trained up his children as he himself had been trained.

Twice Dr. Osborn was elected to the Chair of the Conference —in 1863 and in 1881. Except Wesley himself, he was, in the latter year, the oldest minister that ever sat in Wesley's chair. During his first Presidency he had to conduct to a successful issue the Missionary Jubilee, which he did with wonderful spiritual power; and during his second it was his duty to represent the parent Conference at the first Methodist Œcumenical Conference, assembled in London.

After his election in 1881 he was spared for nearly ten years to further 'serve his own generation by the will of God.' When the last day of his life came, he and his relatives had no thought whatever that it was to be his last. On the morning of that day he arose early, partook of breakfast, and engaged in reading. His doctor, calling, advised him to go to bed again, which he did, offering up a prayer, child-like in its simplicity and brevity, which he had been for some time in the habit of using: 'Lord, be with me in the hour of my departure!' In his sleep, one who sat by his bed noticed a pallor spread over his countenance, and a twitching in his hands. Then, without a sigh or word, with his last prayer answered, the spirit of George Osborn passed away 'to be with Christ.'

(24.) HENRY NEEDLE; who was a native of Carmarthen. He was led to religious decision in youth by the influence of his eldest brother, and soon after, believing himself called to preach, sought opportunities of service. In 1844, when he was twenty-two years of age, he was accepted as a probationer for the Ministry, and he continued in the active work for more than forty years.

Mr. Needle was a man of retiring disposition; this, and some other slight peculiarities, caused him at times to be misunderstood; but by those who knew him best he was both honoured and beloved. He was a man of wide sympathies, was well informed on all important topics of the day, and he rejoiced in the success of every Christian enterprise. He had considerable ability as a preacher, and his vigorous and racy speech was very effective. This, however, to him, was always simply the means of setting forth the great truths of religion. As a Superintendent he endeavoured to enforce our discipline with kindness, and he was especially noted for attention to the small and feeble places in his Circuits.

Becoming a Supernumerary in 1887, he resided for a time in the Barnard-Castle Circuit, and rendered good service so long as his health permitted. His last years—years of much affliction and pain, borne with Christian courage—were spent at Blackpool, where he peacefully departed this life, April 20th, 1891.

(25). JOSEPH MOLE, son of the late Rev. Richard R. Mole; who was born in Stonehouse, Devon, November 26th, 1835, and died in Tredegar, April 21st, 1891, in the fifty-sixth year of his age, and thirty-first of a ministry uninterrupted by sickness, with the exception of one recent Sabbath.

Left fatherless at four years of age, surrounded by a constant flow of love, his early life seemed one consecrated offering to the Lord, and when very young he became a loving, willing worker in the Master's vineyard, walking two miles every Sunday as Assistant Superintendent of a village Sunday school. His call to the Ministry was clear. During nearly forty years of Christian life he proved conscientiously faithful to every trust committed to his charge. No truer, more honest, hard-working, persevering, plodding man, ever entered the brotherhood. In the home he was a shining light; in the Church genial and devout, taking a keen interest in every good thing, and endearing himself to his people by a devoted Christian character, by holy tact, and careful, judicious administration.

His preaching was sound, sensible and practical. Fixed, and somewhat positive in his own views, he studied the many-sided view of things, always exemplifying 'the mind that was in Christ Jesus,' and respectful to another's convictions.

His ministerial life of over thirty years illustrated an intense humility, an ungrudging recognition of the gifts of others, a perfect resignation to the Divine will, and a calm, sweet trust in God. In every part of his work he exhibited, unconsciously, the virtues of a Christian: in deed, as in word, the true friend and brother indeed. He wished to die in harness, and so he did. The Sabbath before his decease he preached at Rhymney morning and evening, and administered the Sacrament at the close. Returning home, bitter east winds tried him. Retiring to his room, he passed a restless night. Medical skill could not touch his case. He did not realize that his departure was so near until half-an-hour before the end. His sufferings were so great it was impossible to converse. Then came the end; and with a radiant, loving smile, he kissed several times the faithful companion of his life, leaned over as if preparing for sleep, closed his eyes to earth, and opened them in heaven.

(26.) Alfred Mitchell Morrow, son of the Rev. John G. Morrow; who was born in South Africa in 1865, and came to this country when he was seven years of age. In early life he gave himself to God, and thenceforth 'walked in all the commandments of the Lord blameless.' In 1887 he was accepted for our foreign work. He spent three years at Richmond, where he made proficiency in his studies, and won the respect and affection of all who knew him. His great desire was to labour in the land of his birth; but the medical examiners having expressed doubts as to his physical fitness, his offer was declined by the South African Conference. This was a great disappointment to him, but he bore it with Christian resignation.

In 1890 he was placed on the President's List of Reserve, and was appointed to labour in the Hemel-Hempstead Circuit. Here he revealed special qualifications for preaching; and in this way, as well as by his loving disposition, and the thoroughness with which every duty was performed, endeared himself greatly to the people. His career, however, was cut short. After about six months of faithful and fruitful toil, his health failed; and on the 28th of April, 1891, he passed away in perfect peace, in the twenty-sixth year of his age, and the first of his ministry.

(27.) JOHN EMBERTON; who was born of godly parents, at Audley, Staffordshire, in the year 1835. In very early life his good father asked the Disposer of events to make him a minister of the Word. Trained in a thoroughly Methodist home, and converted to God in early life under the ministry of the Rev. Charles Rawlings, it soon became manifest that his parent's prayers were to be answered. After spending three years at Didsbury, he entered upon his work in the Buxton Circuit, and there, and in other spheres, laboured with great acceptance. His preaching was chaste, tender, apt in illustration, forceful in appeal, and bore the mark of careful preparation. Several of his Circuits were in our great industrial centres, and to our large congregations there his sermons were much appreciated. As a Superintendent he was exact, methodical and particularly attentive to the details of our varied work. Soon after his appointment to Audley his health began to fail, and to his friends he often said: 'My work is done.' His last affliction came very suddenly. He passed peacefully away in the place of his birth, April 30th, 1891, in the fifty-sixth year of his age, and thirty-third of his ministry.

(28.) WILLIAM ALLEN (B); who was born at Tugby, Leicestershire. He was converted to God at the age of sixteen, in the Class-meeting. In 1840 he was accepted as a probationer for the Ministry, and was ordained in the following year, and proceeded immediately to Western Africa. His labours there for eight years were singularly successful in the establishment of several Missions on the Western Coast. During a period of twenty-nine years in English Circuit work, he displayed unswerving interest in and loyalty to all the institutions of Methodism, labouring with the utmost diligence and fidelity. He was a wise Superintendent, prompt and exact in minutest details, and of sound judgment. As a pastor he was sympathetic and kind, and as a preacher practical and earnest. His private life was simple and straightforward, and he loved those things that were pure and Christ-like. During the thirteen years of his retirement he cheerfully rendered whatever help he could, never relaxing his interest in Circuit and Connexional affairs. He much enjoyed the quiet of his closing years, though experiencing great feebleness during the last twelve months. He died suddenly on May 8th, 1891, in the seventy-seventh year of his age, and the fiftieth of his ministry. The last entry in his diary was written on his last birthday, February 24th, 1891, and was as follows: 'I have not been well during the past year, but God has not forsaken me. I am fully resigned to His will, and long to be able to work for Him, which I can only do by manifesting patience. Thank God, I am happy!'

(29.) MARMADUKE CLARK OSBORN; who was born in Sheffield in the year 1827. From childhood he regularly attended Carver-Street chapel, and joined the Society there in 1846, in the course of a Mission by the Rev. James Caughey. He entered the Ministry in 1849. His special gifts were soon recognised; and for twenty-eight years, in Cambridge, Bradford, York, Liverpool, Bristol, and London, he made full proof of his ministry. As a Circuit minister, Mr. Osborn was a popular and effective preacher and speaker, an able administrator, a diligent and sympathizing pastor, and a true friend. In 1877 he was appointed one of the General Secretaries of the Wesleyan Missionary Society; and in the following year, at the request of the Committee, he visited the West Indian Missions. In 1878 he was also elected Secretary of the Conference. This office he held for three years; but having been laid aside in the summer of 1881 by a critical illness, chiefly the result of overwork, he was unable to continue in that position, and his place was filled up. As Missionary Secretary, as Treasurer of the Annuitant Society, and in other ways, he continued to serve the Conference diligently and well. He was methodical and prompt in business, and kindly in disposition, though undemonstrative in manner.

During the last three or four years of his life, the strain and the pain of public work, together with affliction in the home, severely tried him. After the Conference of 1890, he loyally continued at his post, but his physical strength evidently failed. He was obliged to seek rest, and went to Baslow. There he was prostrated by an attack of influenza, followed by pneumonia, and he suffered much. His last words were: 'Thank God!' And thus a life of faithful, efficient service, worthy of a Methodist preacher, ended with a simple hearty thanksgiving on May 10th, 1891. He was in the sixty-fourth year of his age, and the forty-second of his ministry.

(30.) HENRY PIGOTT; who was born at Doncaster, on February 20th, 1843. His godly parents trained him for Christ, and to the end of his days he ceased not to thank God for the manly Christianity of his father, and the strong and tender piety of his mother. When he left home for Sheffield, at the age of thirteen years, the benediction of Christian nurture remained to preserve him amidst the dangers of a large town. If he tasted the pleasures of sin, the taste could never become sweet to him. In Carver-street chapel he gave himself unto God; and it became a great happiness to him to meet in Class. At this time he was an ardent student of law, and was laying the foundation of extensive mental acquirements. After labouring in the Sunday-school, he, in 1862, began to preach; giving promise of great usefulness. He spent three profitable years at Didsbury.

When he had travelled but five years his health failed. After a time he became able to preach once a week; but strength adequate for Circuit-work was never regained. For eighteen years he lived the life of an invalid, being often so prostrate that he had to be both dressed and fed. Yet strong faith and manly courage never left him. When his right hand became disabled, he learned to write with the left. He continued his favourite studies, and read much, the Greek Testament being his constant delight. He took a deep and most intelligent interest in all the movements of the Church, and preached occasionally as he was able, his last sermon being an experimental discourse on the words: 'I have learned the secret.'

To this good man of great ability and refinement it was for a long time a sore trial to see how his course had failed; and he would often say: 'O, if I had but lived!' Yet patience had its 'perfect work,' and he became 'more than conqueror.' He walked many years in sight of death; watching, with scientific accuracy, the slow decay of his frail body; and yet his soul was triumphant to the end. When he became unable to leave his bed, he expressed his state of mind in the words:

> 'Death stands above me whispering low,
> I know not what into my ear;
> Of his strange language all I know
> Is, there is not one word of fear.'

Very gradually he descended to the grave, and his death was a transition perfectly peaceful. He fell asleep in Jesus at Clacton-on-Sea, where he had spent the last twelve years of his life, on May 14th, 1891, in the forty-ninth year of his age, and the twenty-third of his ministry.

(31.) JACOB TURVEY; who was born at West Bromwich on September 16th, 1815. His parents, who were devoted Wesleyan-Methodists, took him to the Class-meeting at an early age, and in the days of his youth he became a decided Christian. The young member was soon made a young Class-leader; and, after an interval of fifty years, testimony is still given to his zeal and success in this work. As a local-preacher he was very popular and widely useful. He began his ministerial career in 1841 at Appleby, and closed his active service at Newport-Pagnell in 1883. He spent many years of his ministry in laborious country Circuits. He was twice appointed to Epworth. From the first, his voice was too weak for large chapels, but his preaching was always marked by thorough mastery of his subject, by well-chosen language, and vivid imagination. In his younger days his sermons were unusually attractive and powerful, and in his old age his ministry was ripe and still fruitful. Preaching the Gospel was the passion of his life, to which everything else was secondary. As a man he was affable and brotherly, making and leaving many friends in many Circuits.

During the last Methodist agitation he passed through great anxiety and some peril; he never wholly recovered the injury then done to his nervous system. He was for eight years a Supernumerary and a great sufferer. His last sermon was preached at Brigg, a former Circuit. He peacefully entered into rest on Friday, May 15th, 1891, in the seventy-sixth year of his age, and the fiftieth of his ministry.

(32.) WILLIAM STEVINSON; who was born in the year 1810 at Hull. He was accepted as a probationer for the Ministry in the year 1835, and appointed to the Yeadon Circuit. His early religious life was nourished and directed by the teaching and example of such men as Richard Watson and Edmund Grindrod. The influence of these early teachers soon became evident, in the thoroughness of his preparations for the pulpit, in the orderliness and punctuality of his general work, and in his rigid devotion to duty. Of studious habit, in manner reserved and diffident, he shrank from all unnecessary publicity; whilst his fidelity to the last detail of duty gained for him the respect and confidence of his people. But he evidently regarded the preaching of the Word as his chief work. His knowledge of the Scriptures and aptitude in quoting and applying them, his reverent demeanour and self-forgetfulness, together with an evident simplicity of purpose, contributed to make him 'a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth.' The 'uncorruptness, gravity and sincerity' of his doctrine received consistent illustration in his daily life.

In the year 1875 he became a Supernumerary, and lived in comparative retirement. During the severe weather of the late spring symptoms of bronchitis and pneumonia rapidly developed, and on May 22nd, 1891, he exchanged mortality for life, in the eighty-second year of his age, and the fifty-sixth of his ministry.

(33.) THOMAS P. CLARK; who was born in London in the year 1806. His parents subsequently removed to St. Neots, where he was converted to God, and entered the fellowship of the Wesleyan-Methodists. Soon afterwards he began to preach, and was soon convinced of his call to the Ministry. At the Conference of 1831 he was appointed to the Biggleswade Circuit. He had a well-balanced mind, enriched by judicious and thoughtful reading. His sermons were carefully prepared and impressively delivered, and were eminently edifying. He was a diligent pastor, and often brought consolation to the home of sorrow; the poor of Christ's flock ever found in him a sympathetic and generous friend. Both by his colleagues and by the people of his charge he was held in great esteem and affection. A serious illness in the year 1863 compelled him to become a Supernumerary. The later years of his life were spent at St. Anne's-on-Sea, where, as opportunity offered, he rendered cheerful service in the work he loved so well. After several months of wearisome affliction, patiently borne, he entered into welcome rest on the 27th of May, 1891, the day after he had completed his eighty-fifth year.

(34.) WILLIAM EXTON; who was born at Newport, Isle of Wight, on February 28th, 1815. His father was for many years an acceptable local-preacher, and his maternal grandfather entertained and defended Mr. Wesley in his travels through Kent. Early in life Mr. Exton gave his heart to God, and soon became actively engaged in the service of his Master as a Sunday-school teacher and local-preacher. In 1840 he received his first appointment to a Circuit.

In his early Circuits the difficulties of so many burdened Trusts at that time made a deep impression on his mind, and his especial usefulness in dealing with such cases was soon recognised by the Conference. He was frequently appointed to Circuits which legal complications and heavy Circuit and Trust debts had placed in jeopardy, and his efforts for their relief were very successful. He laboured hard, and many were brought to God under his preaching. The strain of his work early told on a highly nervous temperament. In 1864 he was compelled to retire from active work, and in 1866 he settled at Brixton Hill, where he remained until his death. In comparative retirement he rendered good service by preaching and visiting as opportunities arose, and by advocating Protestant principles, upholding Evangelical truth and the sanctity and due observance of the Lord's day. His illness, which extended over eighteen months, was borne with much resignation and Christian fortitude. His sufferings were intense, but his faith was always strong, and he constantly expressed his joy and confidence in God. He peacefully passed away on Wednesday,

May 27th, 1891, in the seventy-seventh year of his age, and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(35.) ROBERT BUCK; who was born at Crakehall, near Bedale, Yorkshire, in 1836. In early life he was savingly converted to God, and became a member of the Wesleyan-Methodist Church. In 1860 he was accepted as a probationer for the Ministry, and sent immediately into the work as a Home Missionary. For over thirty years he laboured faithfully and conscientiously. In the pulpit, he was intensely practical and earnest, and never failed deeply to impress his hearers. As a pastor, he manifested a deep tenderness and sympathy in the presence of suffering and sorrow. In 'administration,' he was conscientious, judicious and painstaking. As a colleague, he was beloved, faithful and trusty. He was always conspicuous for high Christian character and holy walk. He was faithful in the discharge of duty even when faithfulness overtaxed his strength. He preached for the last time on Sunday, May 10th, 1891, and on the following Friday was taken with influenza, which rapidly exhausted his strength. For eighteen years he had suffered from a disease which made his life one of continual suffering; but, as he said in his dying hour, he had been enabled to bear it 'for Christ's sake.' On the last day of his earthly life he expressed a desire to read some comforting passages to his sorrowing wife and children before leaving them, but his weakness made this impossible. He peacefully passed away on May 28th, 1891, in the fifty-fifth year of his age, and the thirty-first of his ministry.

(36.) THOMAS STEEMSON RABY, the elder son of the Rev. John Raby; was born at Leek, in 1826, and from earliest childhood was the subject of religious impressions. Educated at Woodhouse-Grove School, under the governorship of the Rev. George Morley, and thence proceeding to Macclesfield, where he was bound apprentice to a firm of godly drapers, he was always surrounded by good people. At Macclesfield he found peace with God, and began to preach. In 1848 he was received as a probationer for our Ministry, and sent to Didsbury.

In 1851 he was appointed to his first Circuit, Carlisle, and for thirty-seven years he diligently and faithfully discharged the duties of a Methodist preacher. In 1887 came the great sorrow of his life in the death of his wife. From this blow he never fully recovered, and in 1888 he became a Supernumerary, and settled amongst his old friends at Walton-on-Thames. At first his health improved, and with pleasure to himself, and profit to his hearers, he preached frequently in his own and neighbouring Circuits. During the last winter his health failed perceptibly, and on Easter Monday he took to his bed, from which he was only able to rise for an hour or two at a time. He suffered at times greatly, but was patient and hopeful. He rejoiced greatly in the prospect of the blessed re-unions of heaven, going over the names of friends, one by one, who had gone before. On May 29th, 1891, he went to the 'Father's house,' concerning which he desired daily, during the last month, to have something read to him. Diligent as a student, thorough in pulpit-preparation, careful in administration as a Superintendent, fond of helping young men, caring especially for the sick and poor, 'a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost,' he went from Circuit to Circuit, the messenger of the Lord, and a blessing unto many.

'To fall asleep is not to die;
To dwell with Christ is better life.'

(37.) JABEZ PALMER; who was born in 1815. He was the son of warm-hearted Methodists, his father being for more than fifty years a local-preacher in the Wellington (Shropshire) Circuit. The Christian example and teaching of his parents bore fruit in his early decision for Christ, and when fourteen years of age he obtained conscious acceptance with God. In 1835 he was received as a student at Hoxton. In 1838 he entered on Circuit work, in which he continued for forty-four years. He was a faithful and effective preacher, and devoted much time and care to the preparation of his sermons.

In all his Circuits his ministry was owned of God; but it was most attractive and successful in Scotland, where he laboured for twelve years. He was diligent in the discharge of pastoral duty, and judicious in the administration of Circuit affairs. He sought in all the churches of his charge to promote peace and prosperity, and won for himself much esteem and affection by geniality and kindness. He became a Supernumerary in 1882, and was for several years the Chaplain of Abney-Park Cemetery. After a short illness he died at Clapton, in great peace, on June 5th, 1891.

(38.) GEORGE WATSON; who was born in Weardale, Durham, on September 10th, 1844, and died at Misterton, in the Gainsborough Circuit, on Friday, June 5th, 1891. His parents were devoted Methodists, who had the joyous privilege of seeing their seven children converted to God in early life. He was led to decision when twelve years of age, began to meet in Class, and so became a Methodist of the fourth generation. By diligent application to study, and devotion to Christian work, he became fitted for future service, began to preach while yet in his teens, and in 1867 was accepted as a probationer for the Ministry. Three happy years were spent at Didsbury, and his first appointment was to the Peel Circuit, Isle of Man.

His preaching was expository, and forceful; and in prayer he had power with God, and was honoured by the great Head of the Church in the edification and salvation of many. He was a diligent pastor, and by the geniality of his spirit and uniform kindness became endeared to many who now mourn his loss. He loved his work and the brotherhood, and was a loyal and devoted Methodist preacher. By sanctified personal affliction and family bereavement his piety was matured and strengthened, and when the sudden and inscrutable call of the Master was heard, he was found ready. After a brief but severe illness, he passed away to his reward in the forty-seventh year of his age, and the twenty-first of his ministry.

(39) SAMUEL DAVIES; who was born at Denbigh, in the year 1818. Blessed with a godly parental training and example, he was led to surrender his heart to Christ at an early age. He was appointed to a Circuit in 1843, and soon gave ample proof of the genuineness of his call. His superior endowments soon placed him in the front rank of Welsh preachers. His singularly chaste and copious diction, his vivid illustrations, his scrupulous fidelity to evangelical truth, and the spiritual fervour and impassioned energy which characterized his delivery, combined to make his ministrations very effective; and he was signally owned of God in the deepening of the spiritual life of believers, and in the leading of sinners to Christ. As a pastor he endeared himself to the members of his flock, while his administration of Circuit affairs gave indications of gifts which qualified him for wider spheres of usefulness.

After being Financial Secretary to the North Wales District for seven years in succession, he was, in 1865, elected Chairman of the same District, a post which he held for twenty-one consecutive years. In these capacities his indomitable will, his ability to master details, his retentive memory and well-balanced judgment, enabled him to render valuable and lasting service to the District at large. He brought to a successful issue the scheme for establishing the North Wales Chapel Fund, which had been projected by his predecessor in the Chair, the late Rev. Thomas Aubrey, and also launched other schemes which have materially contributed to the consolidation and extension of Methodism in the northern part of the Principality. In 1875 he succeeded the late Rev. William Davies, D.D., as Editor and Steward of the Welsh Book-Room, and he discharged the duties of that office with unsparing devotion and with marked success.

His services to Welsh Methodism were fittingly recognised by his election into the Legal Conference in 1875, as well as by a resolution passed in 1886, when his request to be allowed to become a Supernumerary was granted. The high esteem in which he was held throughout the District was clearly manifested upon his retirement from the active work, when he received a public testimonial in the form of a substantial sum of money and an illuminated address. After becoming Supernumerary he settled at Amlwch, but continued to preach with much acceptance, and also to enrich the Eurgrawn, and other periodicals, with valuable contributions from his pen.

His last days were a fit sequel to his previous career. He attended the North Wales District Meeting at Liverpool during the last week in May, took a prominent part in several discussions, and yielded to the request of his old friends in the Shaw-street Circuit to preach there the following Sunday. At the evening service, which proved to be his last, he preached from: 'Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright; for the end of that man is peace.' He afterwards administered the Lord's Supper. In returning home he was seized with an illness from which he did not rally; and on the following Sabbath evening, June 7th, 1891, he triumphantly entered into rest, in the seventy-fourth year of his age, and the forty-eighth of his ministry.

(40.) JONATHAN CADMAN; who was born at Deal ten years after Mr. Wesley's death. He was converted to God in his eighteenth year in connection with special services held in the Wesleyan chapel at Deal. Attracted by the singing, he entered the house of God carelessly; but there God met with him, and before the service closed he was born again. The good work begun that night lasted seventy-two years. When he was twenty years of age he began to preach the Gospel, and in 1825 he was accepted as a probationer for our Ministry, and sent to the West Indies, where he laboured for fourteen years. His labours were much owned of God in the salvation of souls. He took part in the emancipation of the slaves, witnessing their joy, and sharing in their thanksgiving. In the Antigua District his name is cherished to this day. He spent thirty-seven years in English Circuits, doing quiet but effective work for Christ; and during his appointment to Norwich he witnessed a great revival of the Work of God. After spending fifty-two years in the active service of the Church, the Master gave him fourteen years' patient waiting for His appearing. The eventide was light; God satisfied him with length of days, and showed him His salvation. He was a man of pure and guileless spirit; he walked with God; and when the end came, he was fully ready, 'like as a shock of corn cometh in in his season.' He quietly 'fell on sleep,' at Evesham, June 9th, 1891, in the ninetieth year of his age, and the sixty-sixth of his ministry.

(41). JOSEPH MOORHOUSE; who died June 13th, 1891. He was born at Halifax in 1808, and had his early training in the Established Church. On the death of his father, the family became worshippers at South Parade chapel, where, in connection with the preaching of 'Squire Brooke,' and the earnest attentions of several godly young men, he, after a severe and prolonged conflict, was led to rejoice in Christ as his Saviour. Entering with much ability and zeal into various forms of Christian activity, it soon became evident that he was called of God to the Full Work of the Ministry. In 1833 he was sent by the President to supply in the Stamford Circuit. For forty years he laboured with conspicuous fidelity and acceptance, gaining the esteem and confidence of all who knew him. He was a man of blameless life, untiring zeal, and unflinching devotion to duty. His sermons were most carefully prepared, and rich in exposition and spiritual substance. His advice was greatly sought after by his people in times of trial; deep sympathy and strong common-sense being signally blended in his character. His colleagues invariably trusted and honoured him. Upon becoming a Supernumerary, he settled in Stourbridge, where for thirteen years he continued to serve the Church as preacher and pastor in a way not often permitted to men of his years. In 1886 he removed to Halifax, where he continued to render valuable service both in and out of the pulpit for nearly four years. The last year of his life was one of much trial and suffering. He and his devoted wife were often laid aside; and though his sensitive spirit was greatly chastened, his patience and trust were thereby perfected. He was surrounded to the close by those who, from a true spiritual appreciation as well as from natural ties, loved him dearly. He died, within five weeks of the departure of his faithful wife, in the eighty-third year of his age, and the fifty-eighth of his ministry, leaving behind the fragrance of a deeply spiritual life and service.

(42.) JOSEPH SUTTON; who was born at Sheffield in 1821, of godly parents, and became, in his earliest days, the subject of deep religious impressions. He was converted under the ministry of the Rev. John Rattenbury, in whose Class he met as a boy. At an early age he began to preach, and entered the Ministry in 1847. His character and abilities were soon put to the test in the troublous times through which our Church was then passing; and, quickly winning the confidence of his fathers and brethren, he was placed in positions of responsibility. He was refined, gentle, utterly unselfish and truly benevolent. The poor and needy ever found in him a ready helper, and his memory is held in reverent and grateful love by all who knew him. One of his colleagues writes: 'In unselfishness I rank him with the best of all I have known, or of whom I have read.' He was devoted to every part of his work. He spent himself in his Master's service. His preaching was characterized by spirituality, thoroughness, earnestness and desire to save souls. He was attentive to every detail of Connexional and Circuit affairs; and it may be said of him that he left no arrears. In his dealings with others he displayed an unfailing, manly courtesy, winning their respect and love by his faithful and affectionate counsel and exhortation. In all things he proved himself 'a good man;' 'a faithful and wise steward.

His home-life was full of happiness. He was a model husband and father. His last illness was short, but severe. He was seized with influenza on his way to a country appointment, and never rallied. Though in great pain, he was always thinking of his friends and his loved work, and his soul rested fully on Christ. He said to his wife: 'I am praying and praising all the time.' He died suddenly, at Oundle, on June 16th, 1891, in the seventieth year of his age, and the forty-fourth of his ministry.

(43.) JOHN PEARCE; who was born at Crewkerne in 1810, was brought up as a Unitarian; but when apprenticed to Dr. Roberts, of Bridport, he found himself in a new atmosphere of Christian life, and was led to join the Methodist Society. He began to preach at the age of sixteen; and his thoughtful, conscientious spirit soon won him much esteem. The father of the late Right Hon. W. E. Forster, then resident in the neighbourhood of Bridport, was greatly drawn to the young Methodist, and showed him no small kindness when he set out for his first Circuit, Biggleswade, in 1832. Mr. Pearce did his utmost, by private study, to make up for the lack of an Institution training, and laboured for thirty-one years with unblemished character. The last twenty-one years of his life were spent at Finchley. His unruffled spirit and blameless life won him the esteem and love of many. He was for fifteen years chaplain at East Finchley Cemetery, where he was greatly beloved by workmen and colleagues. He never lost the simple trust in Christ which he had found in early life, and greatly rejoiced, up to within a few weeks of his death, to take part in the Lord's Supper. Few men were more gentle, more free from guile, more solicitous for the prosperity of the Work of God. The death of his son, the Rev. James Pearce, in the early part of the year, was a great sorrow to him, but he bore the blow with touching resignation. Patience had its 'perfect work,' and he fell asleep without pain on June 26th, 1891, ten days before his eighty-first birthday.

(44.) THOMAS JONES, D.D.; who was born at Mydreilun, Cardiganshire, in 1802. His godly mother was a member of the Wesleyan-Methodist Society, and did all in her power to train him up 'in the fear of the Lord.' At the age of seventeen he was converted to God, and about eighteen months afterwards began to preach. In 1826 he was accepted as a probationer for the Ministry. He was appointed to a Circuit in 1828, and laboured in the South Wales District with great acceptance and success for thirty-eight years. In 1866 he became a Supernumerary, and ever since resided at St. David's, rendering all the service he could to the Cause up to the close of his long life.

He was endowed with a strong constitution. He had superior abilities, which he cultivated by hard study. From his youth, his thirst for knowledge was insatiable, and he was an incessant reader all his life. His education in early days was limited; but when about twenty years of age he entered the Neuaddlwyd Seminary, under Dr. Phillips, and there made great progress. He was a great writer; and the Evangelical Treasury—a very able theological work written by him and the Rev. Samuel Davies, and the Elements of Divinity, together with pamphlets and a large number of articles contributed to periodicals, are lasting testimony to his fertile mind. As a preacher, he ranked amongst the most powerful and popular in the Principality, being an eminently fluent and effective speaker, and a perfect master of the Welsh language. He was the means of leading many souls to Christ; and greatly endeared himself to the people of his charge, returning to the same Circuits twice, and even three times. For twenty years he was appointed Chairman of the South Wales District, the duties of which he discharged with fidelity, and successfully steered the ship through troublesome waters during the agitation of 1849-50.

He rendered invaluable services in connection with the establishment of the South Wales Chapel Loan Fund and other movements; and education, the Bible Society, and other institutions, he warmly supported. His love for the Church of his choice was intense; its doctrines and discipline found in him an able defender; and he declined the offer of a tempting Living in the Established Church. For some time he felt the infirmity of old age, but was resigned to the will of God. During his last illness, he said in answer to a question from the Circuit minister: 'The peace of God fills my heart.' And about three hours before he died he said to another minister: 'There is light ahead!' He peacefully passed away July 1st, 1891, in the eighty-ninth year of his age, and the sixty-third of his ministry.

(45.) THOMAS THOMPSON, M.A., son of the late Rev. George Thompson; was born in the Isle of Man in 1810. He owed much to the religious influence of his parents, and in early life was brought into the enjoyment of conscious salvation. In 1833 he entered our Ministry, and for upwards of forty years ran a useful and distinguished course. His gifts were of a high order; his intellect was keen and active; his imagination that of a poet, and he had at command copious and exquisite language. His literary ability was consecrated to the Master's service in several works which were at once practical and attractive in an eminent degree.

As a preacher he was greatly esteemed. For many years he occupied some of our most influential pulpits, being the colleague of men remarkable in our annals for ability and usefulness. His sermons, marked by logical accuracy, and delivered with fervour and animation, were blessed to many. He was a faithful and diligent pastor, a judicious Superintendent, and he gained the confidence and affection of the people. His life was marked by deep spirituality, his character was without reproach, and to the end the Christ-like spirit prevailed in his action, his conversation and influence. In 1877 he retired from the active ministry, his sun quietly sinking in a clear sky. On July 3rd, 1891, at Ross, he passed peacefully away to the everlasting rest.

N.B.—The obituaries of THORNLEY SMITH, EDWIN BLAKE and WILLIAM MOISTER will appear next year.

2. In Ireland, six, viz.,—

(1.) JAMES CAREY; who was born at Faughart, near Dundalk, November 3rd, 1819. He was converted in the old chapel, Dundalk, in 1838, under the ministry of the Rev. Robert Huston. His own words in relation to this event were: 'While one of the old Leaders was engaged in prayer, and referred to Jesus dying on the Cross for sinners, I believed He died for me, my chains fell off, my guilt and gloom were gone, and with a glad heart and free I retired from the Chapel.'

He was appointed in 1848, as a probationer, to the Cavan Circuit. Since that period he served the Connexion on some of the most laborious Circuits, and spent three years on the General Mission. He was a most conscientious and painstaking Circuit minister, and took a special interest in all his country appointments, not permitting bad weather or other inconveniences to interfere with the discharge of his duty. He had a great taste for reading, and made marked progress in several branches of learning. His attachment to the Church of his choice was very deep, and his loyalty to the Connexion he so long served was undying.

He retired from the active work of the Ministry in 1889, and settled in Ennis, where he continued to discharge his various duties until failing health compelled him to cease from work. The recent death of his wife, the faithful and loving companion of years, completely prostrated him, and he never rallied. He, however, ripened rapidly for glory, and his end was 'perfect peace.' During his last illness he manifested a spirit of entire resignation and unselfishness. He entered into the joy of his Lord on Thursday, June 25th, 1891, in the seventy-second year of his age, and the forty-third of his ministry.

(2.) THOMAS C. MAGUIRE; who was born near Tempo, in the county of Fermanagh, in the year 1809. Like many other holy and useful men, he was blest with the instructions, prayers and example of a godly mother, who, while he was but a mere child, took him to the Class-meeting and other religious services of the Methodist Society. Under these circumstances he became the subject of very gracious impressions; but in subsequent years he lost the consciousness of the Divine favour, and when nearly seventeen years of age he became greatly disturbed about his soul, and soon found salvation. It was in the night season, and during a thunder-storm,—fit emblem of the darkness and agony from which he suffered,—he entered into spiritual light and life through faith in Christ. He promptly engaged in the Divine Master's service; and after faithfully filling various offices in the work of the Church, he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry by the Primitive Wesleyan Conference in the year 1841.

During a very laborious course of half-a-century he travelled in some of the most important Circuits in Ireland, including Limerick, Cork, Belfast and Dublin. His brethren conferred on him successively every office at their disposal, from that of Chairman of a District to that of President of the Conference, and he always proved himself worthy of their confidence. As a preacher he was earnest and practical, often illustrating the Gospel truths which he proclaimed by incidents from his own experience, and the scenes and events which came under his notice during his ministerial career. His whole history as an ambassador of the Cross was marked by unswerving loyalty to Christ, painstaking toil in seeking to win souls, frequently followed by the joy of successful service. In pastoral visitation he was 'instant in season, out of season;' and being a man of cheerful, genial, brotherly spirit, of deep sympathy with the sorrowing, and of remarkable power in prayer, his presence in the homes of our people was welcomed with grateful gladness. He contributed many valuable papers to the Primitive Wesleyan Magazine, and he manifested a deep and active interest in the Connexional Funds.

At the Conference of 1888 he retired on the Supernumerary list; but feeling anxious to render as much service as possible to the Church of his early choice and life-long love, he accepted an appointment at Kilrush; where, after a brief but faithful ministry, which was interrupted by failing health and declining energy, he finished his course. His last illness was brief, yet the Lord granted him ample opportunity and power to give frequent utterance to his 'sure and certain hope of immortality,' his sole trust being in the merits of Christ. Just before he departed, one at his bedside repeated that verse of one of his favourite hymns:

'Though waves and storms go o'er my head,
Though strength, and health and friends be gone,
Though joys be withered all and dead,
Though every comfort be withdrawn,
On this my steadfast soul relies,
Father, Thy mercy never dies.'

He followed the words attentively, and at the end said emphatically: 'That's grand!' Within an hour after he quietly entered his eternal rest, on the 29th of June, 1890, in the eighty-first year of his age, and the fiftieth of his ministry.

(3.) JAMES M'MASTER SAYERS; who was born at Redbraes, near the town of Carnlough, in the county of Antrim, on the 8th of January, 1842. The son of pious parents, he was trained 'in the fear of the Lord;' but it was not until the Great Revival of 1859, when he was seventeen years of age, that he fully surrendered his heart to Christ. A little later, through the ministry of the Rev. George Alley, then stationed on the Carrickfergus and Larne Circuit, he was stimulated to greater advance in the spiritual life, and to engage in Christian work. In the year 1867 he was recommended as a Candidate for the Ministry, and was received on trial by the Conference, and in 1871 he was ordained to the Full Work of the Ministry. He received appointments to several important Circuits, and on every one of them he left the mark of his diligence, earnestness and fidelity. His aim was to extend and to strengthen the Cause of God and of Methodism; from effecting which he was not deterred by any obstacle, nor discouraged by any amount of required effort. Nor was his zeal unrewarded. To make but one reference,—Methodism in West Cork is what it is to-day chiefly as the result of his far-seeing wisdom, perseverance and energy.

Mr. Sayers was an original thinker and an acute reasoner, and he had a clear and forceful method of presenting truth. He was a sound expositor of Scripture, and an earnest preacher of the Gospel of Christ, whose aim was to instruct, to convince, to save men. While he was not concerned about elegance of style, his words were well chosen and frequently uttered with a fervour which greatly moved his hearers. He won many souls.

Mr. Sayers was essentially manly. He knew not to flinch from duty, nor to evade difficulty or danger. To principle uncompromising, to truth loyal, he fearlessly assailed and exposed error. He was a true friend: faithful and sympathizing toward his brethren; tender and loving to dear ones at home; and to his people a pastor who made their griefs, their cares, their needs his own; and, therefore, won their confidence and esteem. He was a man of God, in Whose Word and faithfulness he had implicit trust, and to Whom he rendered the unfaltering service of a consecrated life.

When Mr. Sayers was yet in his prime, his naturally robust constitution gave way under the pressure of his self-denying labours. Early in the year 1889 his health began to fail; yet, through rest, he had so recovered as to lead him to seek and obtain an appointment to a Circuit at the ensuing Conference. When, however, he attended the Belfast District Meeting of May 1890, it was evident he was far from being well. He was unable to return to his Circuit, and in a few weeks came the end of his useful life. To a brother minister, who visited him some hours before his death, he spoke of the precious promises, he said Jesus was always with him; and when reference was made to the bright land to which he was going, he said: 'Blessed rest!' Into that rest, to which his works do follow him, his happy spirit entered on Friday, the 18th of July, 1890, in the forty-ninth year of his age, and the twenty-fourth of his ministry.

(4.) JAMES MURDOCK, who was a native of Hyde Park, co. Antrim. When he was twenty years of age he was convinced of sin at a prayer-meeting in the Hyde Park chapel, while one of the leaders was reading a portion of Scripture; and about a fortnight afterwards—having in the interval sought the Lord with strong crying and tears—he was enabled to trust in Christ. Almost immediately he began to work for God, preaching his first sermon in the chapel above mentioned on Christmas morning 1830, when at least one person found salvation. At the Conference of 1833 he was accepted as a Candidate for our work, and was appointed to the Monaghan Circuit, and in due course he was ordained to the Full Work of the Ministry. His subsequent appointments included several important Circuits, to some of which he returned for a second term of service; while on several occasions he filled the office of Chairman of a District, to the entire satisfaction of his brethren. He was a brother beloved, spirited, independent, honourable, with a strongly marked individuality. He was, perhaps, unusually strong in his 'likes' and 'dislikes;' but with a disposition so genial, cheerful, sympathetic and unselfish, as made for him, in all his Circuits, 'troops of friends.' Uncompromising in his dealing with error and wrongdoing, and pronounced in his disapproval of what he conceived to be egotism or hollowness in others, he may, at times, have seemed harsh or severe; but those who were really intimate with him knew well that, beneath it all, there lay a kind and generous heart.

He had an intimate acquaintance with the Bible, and possessed the happy art of turning some of its less-used portions to fresh and striking account. Not only was his knowledge of the history and theology of his own Church extensive and accurate, but to the very last, by his wide and careful reading, he kept himself well abreast of current religious thought. While notably loyal to Methodism, his really unsectarian spirit secured for him the respect and friendship of the ministers and members of other Churches.

As a preacher he was chiefly expository; his style was clear, sententious, incisive, preeminently evangelical, and occasionally flavoured with an unpremeditated outcome of that native humour which in social life made him so engaging and companionable. In the earlier years of his itinerancy especially, he was made useful to many, who doubtless will prove his 'crown of rejoicing' in the day of Christ; while his more recent ministry was much prized by those who were experienced 'in the way of righteousness.' As Superintendent of a Circuit, he was exact, systematic and faithful, being singularly attentive to every detail of his work; so that financially and spiritually his Circuits prospered.

He laboured uninterruptedly for forty-four years in the Full Work; and then, on retiring, took sole charge of the Comber Station, where he did good service for four years. He finally settled in Holywood, where as preacher and pastor he voluntarily and zealously laboured to the last, respected and beloved by all. His end, though not unexpected, was sudden; his spirit literally passing away in sleep to be 'for ever with the Lord.' He died on August 8th, 1890, in the eighty-third year of his age, and the fifty-eighth of his ministry.

(5.) WILLIAM CHARLES DOONAN; who was born at Corlesprattan, August 7th, 1831, and died at Belfast, January 26th, 1891. When about eighteen years of age he made the great decision for God, and at once began to exercise his talents in the Master's service. He was received as a Minister on Trial by the Conference of 1854, and on many Circuits—the work of which was more than ordinarily heavy and trying—quietly, yet regularly and earnestly, he did the real work of a true missionary. In some places he had the joy of a spiritual harvest. He was a diligent pastor, and a most practical preacher. In a way peculiar to himself he would drive home the truth, often with great effect. Indeed, all his work was marked by practical common-sense and saintly prudence. One great feature of his ministerial life was the confidence reposed in him by numberless friends, who trusted him with their most sacred secrets. To the last he was consulted about all sorts of matters. His advice was always cautiously and wisely given; and a more faithful friend none of our people ever found. Among the preachers he was a genial brother, and greatly beloved for his modesty and integrity. As Chairman of a District, and in all our Church Courts, he always manifested a thorough knowledge of the doctrines and polity of Methodism.

Several attacks of paralysis compelled him to retire from Circuit work at the Conference of 1889. That winter he had a most serious illness of another kind, during which he suffered much, but bore it patiently. In the spring he gradually recovered, and was able to take a good deal of open-air exercise, and so continued to gain strength throughout the year. On the last Sunday of his life he was in his accustomed seat at the morning service in Carlisle Memorial Church; but shortly after eight o'clock that night he was suddenly seized with an affection of the heart, and for over six hours suffered intense pain, which no skill could relieve. Ere Monday morning dawned 'the silver cord' was 'loosed,' and our 'brother beloved' passed away to the skies. He rests from his labours, and his works do follow him.

(6.) JOSEPH WILLIAM M'KAY, D.D., who entered into rest on Friday, February 6th, 1891, in the seventy-second year of his age, and the fifty-first of his ministry. He was born near Shinrone, King's county; but his parents afterwards settled at Carrickmacross, where he received his early education. At the age of fourteen he was sent to business at Parsonstown, where immediately the religious impressions, which had for some time been deepening, reached a crisis, and he surrendered his youthful heart to the Saviour. Four years after this he returned to his father's residence, and began to devote himself to Christian work. As a local-preacher he displayed so much ability and zeal that it soon became manifest that God had a wider work for him to do. At the Conference of 1840 he was received on trial for the Ministry, and appointed to the Portadown Circuit. The remainder of his probation was spent in Coleraine, Londonderry and Belfast. The only other places he lived in were Cork and Dublin. Almost thirty-one years of his life were devoted to work in Belfast, where his influence was acknowledged both inside and outside Methodism.

At a comparatively early period his worth was recognised by the Conference. For twenty-six years he was appointed either Assistant Secretary or Secretary of the Conference: offices which he filled with the most marked ability. He was frequently chosen Chairman of the Dublin and of the Belfast Districts. In 1869 he was elected a member of the Legal Hundred, and thrice became Vice-President of our Conference: a position he sustained with great wisdom and with much advantage to the Connexion. In 1871 he was sent as our Representative to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of America. At the Methodist Œcumenical Conference which was held in London in 1881, he read a very valuable paper. Several times he represented Ireland at the Anniversary of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society in London, and always with great effect. For eighteen years he acted as one of the Treasurers of the Supernumerary Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund; the present satisfactory condition of which is largely due to his efficient management. He was Secretary to the Belfast Methodist College Committee from its formation to the opening of the College; and in 1880 he was appointed President and Treasurer, and two years later also became the Theological Tutor. He largely helped to make that College one of the leading educational institutions in Ireland.

Such a record of work and honour can scarcely be found associated with any other name in the annals of Irish Methodism. It clearly shows that, for many years, Dr. M'Kay enjoyed the full confidence of his brethren; and the trust they reposed in him was never betrayed. His extensive and accurate knowledge of Methodist doctrines, polity and usages; his ripe experience; his almost unerring judgment; his splendid business aptitude; his fearless and conscientious spirit; his unswerving integrity; his keen sense of duty and responsibility; his supreme regard for the principles of righteousness and order, and his almost unrivalled powers of wise administration—all these things united to make him one of our most trusted ministers, and for nearly forty years one of the most prominent figures in our Connexion. Occasionally, his high sense of justice and his strong regard for law made his character look like severity, which was, indeed, more apparent than real. He could be righteously indignant; but was most tender-hearted and generous in disposition.

Dr. M'Kay had a splendid physique, a stately manner, and a noble voice, all of which added to his power in the pulpit and on the platform. As a preacher, he was, from the first, very popular. Many of his clear, calm expositions of Scripture will never be forgotten by those who heard them. Both as a preacher and a pastor he was eminently useful. He had a large correspondence with people in almost every grade of life, to whom he acted as a spiritual adviser. This is not to be wondered at, for earnest souls could not fail to feel his deep and fervent tone of piety. He was greatly beloved by the students in the Methodist College, and many of our younger ministers will always cherish sincere gratitude for the theological training they received at his hands. He had a wide and firm grasp of theology and a large acquaintance with general literature, and he kept himself familiar with all the leading religious and social questions of the day.

But the great strength of his massive character was his unswerving devotion to God. His peace flowed like a river; his righteousness abounded as the waves of the sea. During the closing years of life, his spirituality shone with a clear light. Wave upon wave of sorrow swept over him, yet he never murmured. At length the hand of affliction was laid upon himself; and during the winter of 1889 he was completely prostrated, and for several months he patiently endured much pain and great weakness. He, however, ultimately recovered, and again threw himself with considerable vigour into his much-loved work; until, a fortnight before his death, he caught a chill which revived with greater force his old diseases, and he rapidly sank. During the final illness he often repeated the lines:

'Jesu, the very thought of Thee,
With sweetness fills my breast.'

At length 'the weary wheels of life stood still;' and the nation lost a loyal citizen, the Church a wise leader and a devoted and eloquent minister, and his family an honoured head. Having 'fought a good fight,' and 'finished his course,' and 'kept the faith,' Dr. M'Kay has gone to be crowned a king and a priest for ever in the kingdom of heaven.

3. In our Foreign Missions, ten, viz.:—

(1.) SOLOMON PIERIS; who was born at Moratuwa-Mulla in 1828. Through the influence of the Rev. Peter G. De Zylva he was led to think of spiritual things, and to work for the Lord Jesus Christ. With other young men, two of whom are still in the Ministry, he was placed for his training under the care of the Rev. Daniel J. Gogerly, and at a Class-meeting conducted by that missionary he saw salvation in a clearer light, and obtained assurance of his acceptance with God. He joined the Mission as a Catechist in 1849, and was received into the Ministry in 1860. In the early years of the work at Amblamgoda he rendered good service, being stationed there for some years; and he laid the foundations of what has since become a prosperous Mission. After two years of painful affliction, he entered into rest on June 2nd, 1890, aged sixty-two years.

(2.) JOHN BADCOCK; who was born in Devonshire on May 6th, 1825. He was converted in early life, and immediately began to work for God. In 1850 he engaged in Home-Missionary work, and was very useful as an Evangelist. In 1857 he was accepted as a probationer for our Ministry, and was sent to the West Indies, where he laboured until the year 1875. He then went to the Gambia as Chairman of the District and General Superintendent. In 1877 he returned to the West Indies, where, with the exception of one year which he spent in an English Circuit, he laboured to the end. During the last three years of his life he was Chairman of the St. Kitts District.

He was a faithful and loving pastor, a kind Superintendent, and a considerate Chairman. He evinced deep sympathy with the poor and distressed, helping them ungrudgingly, as their circumstances required. During the thirty-three years of his ministry, he greatly endeared himself to the people among whom he laboured, and had the joy of seeing much fruit of his work. He also enjoyed the confidence and esteem of his brethren. He continued in active work up to within a few days of his death. He died, unexpectedly, in great peace, in St. Kitts, June 6th, 1890, having just completed the sixty-fifth year of his age, and the thirty-third of his ministry. His loss is keenly felt by our West Indian Churches.

(3.) THOMAS BIRCH FREEMAN; who was born at Twyford in 1809. Early in life he gave his heart to God, and joined the Methodist Society. He removed to Ipswich, where he became a local-preacher. When the three pioneer missionaries of the Gold Coast fell victims to the climate, and volunteers were asked for, Mr. Freeman joyously offered himself, and was accepted. In November 1837 he sailed with his wife for the scene of his life-long labours. He arrived on January 3rd, 1838. Affliction came early; his wife was taken away, and he was left alone. But his ardour and devotion abated not a whit. Throughout the length and breadth of the Coast he preached Jesus to the heathen, and many were the crown of his rejoicing. A large number of our stations, of our chapels, of our mission-houses, are the fruit of his toil. Not only on the Gold Coast, but at Coomassie (which he thrice visited), Whydah, Badagry, Lagos and Abeokuta, he opened Mission Stations, and was the means of turning hundreds from darkness to light.

In 1857 he retired under special circumstances, but still used his influence on behalf of the Missionary Society. In 1873 he re entered the work, and laboured faithfully and zealously at Anamabu and Accra. He retired in 1886, and settled in the latter town, where he still took the liveliest interest in the mission work, and preached as often as health permitted. Gradually, however, his strength declined. He was removed to the mission-house, where for a time he rallied. The summons came on August 12th, 1890; he quietly passed away without pain His funeral was attended by a vast crowd, who had learnt to love him for his work's sake. Mr. Freeman was a true missionary, loved and respected by all. His mellowed piety, patience, resignation and humility were characteristic. He served his Church faithfully, and as his reward gained the reverent love of all the people of the Gold Coast.

(4.) ROBERT BONE; who was born at Halifax, September 23rd, 1862. He was the child of pious parents, and in his thirteenth year gave himself to God. After some years' connection with our Church at Crook, he removed to Middlesbrough in 1880, and took a prominent part in conducting the East-End Mission in that town. Here he became a useful and acceptable local-preacher. In 1885 he was accepted for the Ministry, and sent to Headingley College to prepare for foreign work. His course at Headingley was marked by diligence and ability in study, and more than usual success in ordinary and evangelistic services; winning the affectionate regard of Tutors and Students and a wide circle of other friends.

Though accepted for foreign work, and afterwards designated for China, financial difficulties arose in the way of sending him out, and he was appointed to take charge of Wesley Hall,

Hull, where his labours were blessed to the salvation of many souls. His desire for work in China continuing to be very strong, he offered to go out without cost to the Missionary Society, supported solely by private subscriptions. This offer was accepted, and he left England November 5th, 1889, arriving at his station—Lung-ping, in the Kwang-chi Circuit—at the commencement of the following year. He made rapid progress with the language, and took his first Sabbath service in Chinese on Sunday, August 3rd. It was a most enjoyable service, and gave high promise of future usefulness. But God's ways are not as our ways; and this, his first Chinese service, was his last appearance with 'the great congregation' in the house of prayer. A few days later he was seized with dysentery, and died at Hankow, on August 21st, 1890, in the twenty-eighth year of his age, and the third of his ministry.

(5.) THOMAS E. WILLIAMS; who was born in Sierra Leone about the year 1829. His father was a famous Ifa priest of the Yoruba country, who, having been captured by a British frigate from a slaver, was taken to Sierra Leone and there enfranchised. His mother was also rescued in a similar way. Although his parents were heathens, they permitted their son to attend the little school of Allen Town, where they had settled. When fifteen years of age, he, with his parents, emigrated to Badagry. He there entered the service of our Mission in 1846, being employed by the Rev. John Martin as a school teacher. Soon afterwards his parents died; but his maternal aunt, although a Mohammedan, befriended and cared for him as though he had been her own son. She still lives, and Mr. Williams revered and cherished her till the day of his death. In 1852 he removed to Lagos, and was the first agent of our Society ever stationed there.

He entered the Ministry in 1874, and in 1879 was appointed to pioneer work up the Niger. In 1886 he was directed to visit the Yoruba country; and on returning and reporting at the following District Meeting, he was appointed to superintend the new Mission in that country. Chiefly through his skilful negotiations with the authorities, land was given in four of the large towns on which houses and churches were subsequently built, and the infant enterprise established. In 1889 he returned to Lagos for the District Meeting; but, doubtless through the strain of his pioneer work, his health began to give way. Recovering somewhat, he twice attempted to reach his station, but was driven back by the caprice of an ignorant pagan tribe, through whose territory he sought to pass.

On Sunday, November 2nd, 1890, he was meeting a Society-class; and whilst thus happily engaged, he was seized with mortal sickness, and died the following Friday in great peace; so closing an active and useful service in Methodism, extending to forty-four years.

(6.) ANTONIO GNONE; who was born at Allessandria in 1821. He was educated in a Roman Catholic seminary, with a view to the priesthood, but the patriotic movements of 1848 interrupted his studies, and drew him into their vortex. After serving in the campaign of 1859 he settled at Parma, where, in 1862, was opened the first public preaching-hall in connection with the Wesleyan-Methodist Mission in Italy. Attracted by the singing, Antonio Gnone attended one of the earliest meetings, and decided, there and then, that this people should be his people. He soon became useful in the work, first as a day-school teacher, then as an Evangelist in the adjacent villages. In 1872 he was accepted on trial for the Ministry. His subsequent labours, which were chiefly confined to rural districts, were acceptable and successful. He delighted in preaching, and had considerable popular talents. His later years were spent as a Supernumerary in Rome, where, after a brief illness, he died, on December 23rd, 1890. His last hours were marked by calm and humble trust in the merits of his Saviour. He was often heard to say: 'The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.' When incapable any longer of articulate utterance, he testified, with feeble motions of the hands, to the presence of the Good Shepherd with him in the dark valley.

(7.) SAMUEL MOTHATA; who was a native of Mafeking, Bechuanaland, and was educated at the Heald Town Institution.

As a local-preacher and day-school teacher at Mafeking, he rendered acceptable and useful service. He was accepted for the Native Ministry in 1889, and was appointed to the Native Training Institution at Kilnerton. A thorough Christian, a good preacher and a successful teacher, it was hoped that he would be long spared to labour in the Master's vineyard.

He died in great peace at Kilnerton, on February 22nd, 1891, in the twenty-fifth year of his age, and the second of his ministry.

(8.) ALBERT CHARLES MATTHEWS; who was born at Wokingham in 1866. When a lad of seven years he had a severe illness, during which, at one time, his life was despaired of. He then expressed a desire that God would raise him up, and permit him to be a missionary to the heathen. He recovered, and the desire strengthened as he grew in years.

In 1878 he realized a clear assurance of acceptance with God. The Church confirmed his conviction in regard to a missionary career; and after two years at Richmond he went to Oyo, the capital of the Yoruba country in West Africa, as the pioneer missionary of our Society. After a year's service, during which he displayed remarkable fitness for the work, he returned to Lagos for the District Meeting of last January. The short time spent with his brethren was one of mutual delight and help. On his way back, while halting at Abeokuta, he was suddenly seized, during the Sunday morning service, with an illness which rapidly developed into malarial fever, and on the following Wednesday, February 25th, 1891, he fell asleep, and entered without a struggle into the eternal peace. He was a fine young missionary—fearless, prudent, resourceful and devoted. He had acquired considerable proficiency in the language, was greatly respected by the King and the people, and the tidings of his death was received by them with expressions of profound lamentation.

(9.) JOSEPH MAY; who was an African of the Yoruba tribe. At the age of eight, in connection with a tribal war, he was sold into slavery, and being rescued by a British cruiser, he was landed in Sierra Leone in 1827. He was placed in a Government school, where he made rapid progress, and became a teacher. In 1835 he was converted to God, and joined the Methodist Society in Free-Town, where he became a schoolteacher, a prayer leader and local-preacher. He was sent to England in 1840, to be trained as a schoolmaster, and on his return in 1842, he originated a flourishing school at Newtown West, now Buxton.

At the Conference of 1848 he was recommended and accepted as a Minister on probation, and received an appointment to M'Carthy's Island, on the Gambia, where he laboured for five years earnestly and successfully. In 1854 he returned to Sierra Leone, and had charge, successively, of every Circuit in the Peninsula. For nearly two years he also had charge of the Native Training Institution at King Tom's Point.

He became a Supernumerary in 1875; but, to the time of his death, he continued to promote in many ways the interests of the Church of his choice. His preaching was earnest and practical; as a pastor, he was affectionate and indefatigable. He was also an ardent temperance advocate.

During his last brief illness, he gave repeated expression to his unabated confidence in Christ, and to his longing to enter his eternal home. He died on March 8th, 1891, in the forty-third year of his ministry, and about the seventy-second of his age. Several thousands of persons of all classes testified their esteem and regret by attending his funeral.

(10.) MILIAPPA DYRIAM; who was born in 1855, at Melnattam, in the Tanjore District, Madras. His parents were among the earliest fruits of our Mission in the days of the Rev. Alfred Bourne. He learned to read in his native village, and continued his studies in the High School at Manargudi for six or seven years. He was at first employed as a school-teacher, but afterwards appointed to Evangelistic work. After several years' service in this capacity he had two years' training in the Theological Institution in Trichinopoly, being the first Student who obtained the Thomas Cryer Theological Scholarship. At the completion of his term there he was received as a probationer. In 1888, he received an appointment to Peria Darâpuram, a large town, where he laboured faithfully to the end. He lived forty-five miles away from his Superintendent, and, in addition to his own preaching work, he had the supervision of three catechists, stationed from ten to twenty miles distant. In all his onerous duties he was zealous and faithful.

He was a man of sterling worth, much beloved and trusted by his brethren. His attachment to Methodism was sincere and hearty. He was a happy Christian, ready at all times to tell of the Lord's dealings with him. He was a courageous pioneer, and seemed admirably fitted for the work he had in hand in the Kenganâd. He was attacked by small-pox early in April 1891, and on the 13th passed to his reward; in the thirty-sixth year of his age, and the third of his ministry, deeply regretted by all his fellow-workers.

A. 1. Before any Preacher, having travelled four years, is recommended by his District Meeting for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful examination by the Chairman of that Meeting, respecting his acquaintance with Mr. Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament, in addition to the other examinations required by our existing Rules; and no Preacher shall be so recommended unless the result of his examination be satisfactory to the Meeting. (Minutes, Vol. IV., p. 122.)

2. Arrangements shall be made for conducting the Examination, in the Conference, of Candidates for Ordination at a time when the President of the Conference can attend, and when a large proportion of the Conference, including its official members, may be expected to be present.

EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL.

Q. XIV. What is the Report upon the EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL for the past year? And what are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of PREACHERS ON TRIAL for the ensuing year?

A. 1. The following is a summary of the Report upon the Examination of Preachers on Trial.

The Examination was held on April 15th and 16th. There have been a good many irregular cases this year, due chiefly to the influenza epidemic. There are ten Probationers who have not taken the full number of subjects. Five have been unable to take any part of the Examination, in consequence of illness.

At the June Examination fifty-seven papers were taken. Of these, seventeen were re-examinations in consequence of failure in Scripture subjects in April; the rest were examinations postponed for various reasons, but chiefly on account of illness. There were six cases of failure in Scripture subjects in the Fourth Year, in all of which a second examination was taken before the District Meeting, in accordance with the regulation of the Conference. In one case of failure in Hebrew, it was specially arranged that the June Examination should be in the alternative English subject. In another case of failure in Hebrew, the re-examination was excused on account of very peculiar circumstances.

The following is a comparison of the present system of marking with that which was formerly in use:—

Present Scale		Former Scale	Meaning.
1*	answers to	1+	Exceptionally excellent.
1	„ „	1	Excellent.
2	„ „	2+	Very good.
3	„ „	2	Good.
4	„ „	3+	Fair.
5	„ „	3	Moderate.
6	„ „	4+	Poor.
7	„ „	4	Very poor.

The general results of the examination of the Probationers of each year are as follows:—

First Year.—57 probationers were examined, who wrote 227 papers, the valuation marks of which were as follows:—i, 11; ii, 25; iii, 50; iv, 53; v, 37; vi, 26; vii, 21; Failure, 4.

Second Year.—63 probationers were examined, who wrote 249 papers, the valuation marks of which were as follows:—1*, 2; i, 21; ii, 39; iii, 50; iv, 51; v, 39; vi, 26; vii, 21.

Third Year.—34 probationers were examined, who wrote 164 papers, the valuation marks of which were as follows:—i, 12; ii, 22; iii, 45; iv, 40; v, 26; vi, 13; vii, 7.

Fourth Year.—29 probationers were examined, who wrote 141 papers, the valuation marks of which were as follows:—1*, 4; i, 7; ii, 21; iii, 33; iv, 35; v, 21; vi, 15; vii, 5.

The average marks obtained by the examinees as compared with those of 1890 were as follows:—

First Year.—1890: Papers valued 4, 24%; above 4, 36%. below 4, 40%.—1891: Papers valued 4, 23%; above 4, 38%; below 4, 39%.

Second Year.—1890: Papers valued 4, 25%; above 4, 37%; below 4, 37%.—1891: Papers valued 4, 20%; above 4, 45%; below 4, 35%.

Third Year.—1890: Papers valued 4, 14%; above 4, 48%; below 4, 38%.—1891: Papers valued 4, 24%; above 4, 48%; below 4, 28%.

Fourth Year.—1890: Papers valued 4, 18%; above 4, 56%; below 4, 25%.—1891: Papers valued 4, 25%; above 4, 47%; below 4, 29%.

A place in the Honours List is assigned to those who take the full number of subjects required, and in other respects fulfil the conditions of the Examination as laid down in the Minutes of Conference, and who obtain an average mark not exceeding 3 for the subjects taken in the Examination. In the First Class are placed those whose average mark does not exceed 1. In the Second Class those who have an average of between 1 and 2. In the Third Class those who have an average of between 2 and 3.

The names in each year stand in the order of merit; but, on account of the difference in subjects, no attempt is made to compare one year with another. The Honours List for this year is as follows:—

FIRST YEAR.—First Class: none.—Second Class: E. J. Oldmeadow.—Third Class: G. W. Kettleborough and A. Moorhouse, M.A. (bracketed equal); David Ashby and A. W. Cooke, M.A. (bracketed equal); R. W. Watson.

SECOND YEAR.—First Class: none.—Second Class: J. H. Maddock.—Third Class: D. L. Pawson, W. Sarginson, and J. Wright (c) (bracketed equal); John Howard, J. D. Jones, and T. G. Squire (bracketed equal); W. W. Corin, J. D. Rainforth, B.A., and H. Windross (bracketed equal); T. W. Fawthrop, W. P. Hutton, B.A., W. Wallace, and G. W. Wiles (bracketed equal).

THIRD YEAR.—First Class: none.—Second Class: R. M. Pope, M.A.—Third Class: J. J. Quiggin; W. H. Holmes, B.A., and R. J. Wardell (bracketed equal); C. W. Martin; A. E. Balch and J. C. Colwell (bracketed equal).—J. A. Rothery, who, owing to a misunderstanding was not examined in five subjects, obtained marks qualifying for Second Class Honours.

FOURTH YEAR.—First Class: none.—Second Class: J. A. Barnes, B.A.; J. A. Ingle, M.A.—Third Class: G. Jackson, B.A.; F. J. Harvey and W. G. Triggs (bracketed equal); J. H. Cartwright; F. J. Briggs and G. K. White (bracketed equal).

One Ex-Student, James Redfern, was examined, according to the usual regulations, in Salmon's Introduction, Greek Testament, and Hebrew. Because of the diversity of subjects, it is impossible to classify him with the other examinees. His marks would give a place in Third Class Honours.

2. (1) The Examination of Preachers on Trial shall be conducted by a Connexional Board of Examiners, to consist of one Examiner in each subject contained in the course of reading prescribed for the four years of probation.

(2) In addition to the Probationers' Examination Committee, three General Examination Secretaries shall be appointed.

(3) Arrangements shall be made at each Financial District Meeting for a Central Examination of Preachers on Trial in each District, or more than one if necessary; at which Central Examination or Examinations the Probationers in that District shall attend. In the event of any Preacher on Trial being unable to pay the necessary travelling expenses, those expenses shall be defrayed, together with other expenses of the Examination, from the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, and from the Theological Institution Fund, in such proportions as the Committees of those Funds may decide.

(4) At each Financial District Meeting a District Probationers' Examination Secretary shall be appointed, or more than one, so as to provide a Secretary to take charge of each Central Examination in the District; and each District Secretary shall be held responsible for the efficient conduct of the Central Examination. Full and clear instructions as to the course to be pursued are to be forwarded to the District Secretaries by the General Secretaries.

(5) The Examination shall be held in the Spring, on days to be fixed from year to year; and shall take place throughout the Connexion on the same days.

(6) The Examination-Papers, prepared under the direction of the Committee, shall be sent by the General Secretaries to each District Examination Secretary, whose duty it shall be to distribute them at the Central Examination, and by the earliest post transmit to the General Secretaries the Papers written by the several Probationers at those Examinations.

(7) The Probationers' Papers shall be forwarded by the General Secretaries to the Examiners for valuation, and each Examiner shall send to them the results of his valuation of the Papers shown by numbers, together with any remarks upon them which he may think desirable.

In the case of the North and South Wales Districts, such variations from the foregoing arrangements are permitted as the Examination Secretaries may find necessary.

(8) The General Secretaries shall compile from the returns of the Examiners a complete Report upon the examination of each Probationer, and forward it to the District Examination Secretary, to be presented by him to the May District Meeting, together with such remarks on the Examination of the Preachers on Trial in the District as he may think desirable. The numbers obtained by each Preacher on Trial in the several subjects of Examination shall be entered on the District Minutes. The Resolutions of the District Meetings on the Examination of Preachers on Trial shall be forwarded to the General Secretaries by the District Examination Secretaries.

(9) The Conference directs the General Examination Secretaries to send to each District Committee—in May—having one or more Candidates for Ordination, a Report showing the result of the examination of every such Candidate during each year of his probation.

(10) The General Secretaries shall prepare and present to the Conference a General Report upon the Examination of the Preachers on Trial.

7. The Conference requires every Probationer who is acquainted with Greek and Hebrew to take the Greek and Hebrew subjects which are specified in the list of subjects for his year. Every Probationer who has been a student in the Theological Institution shall be examined in these Greek and Hebrew subjects, unless the Tutors under whom he studied, having taken into consideration his attainments on leaving the Institution, are of opinion that these examinations cannot reasonably be required in his case.

8. The Conference requires every Probationer of the second, third and fourth years respectively to be examined in four subjects; but it expects such Probationers to be examined, as a rule, in five subjects. Probationers of the first year shall be examined in four subjects. In all cases in which the full number of subjects is not taken, special attention shall be called to the fact in the report presented to the District Meeting.

9. Every Probationer of the second, third and fourth years respectively shall be examined in the subjects marked iv., v., and vi., in the list of subjects for his year. Every Probationer of the first year shall be examined in the subjects marked iii., iv., and v., in the list of subjects for his year.

10. Whenever a Probationer obtains less than one-third of the full number of marks for a paper on any portion of Scripture, either in the original language or in English, he shall be re-examined in the same subject, and the results of both examinations shall be specially reported to the Conference. In the examinations on the Hebrew Bible and Greek Testament, questions on points of grammar shall form an essential part of every paper set.

11. In the case of Probationers of the fourth year, the second examination referred to in the last paragraph shall, if possible, take place early in May, in order that the District Meeting may be made acquainted with the result. In other cases, the second examination shall, as a rule, be held in the latter part of June.

12. Every Probationer shall, not later than the 16th of October, 1891, inform the Rev. Dr. Moulton what subjects he will present for Examination.

13. Every Probationer, whether appointed to a Circuit or on the List of Reserve, shall be examined in the subjects of his year.

14. If any Student be removed from the Theological Institution for Circuit-work later than Christmas-day in any year, he shall not be expected to take the subjects prescribed for the examination of Probationers; but provision shall be made for his being examined, not later than June, in five subjects arranged by his Tutors and the General Examination Secretaries, in accordance with the course of study which he pursued before leaving the Institution. In every instance three of the subjects presented for examination shall be Books (or portions of Books) of Scripture. The result of this Examination shall be reported to the Conference, and shall be included in the special report required in the case of all candidates for Ordination.

15. The days of Examination for the ensuing year shall be Wednesday and Thursday, April 6th and 7th, 1892.

16. Should any Probationer be prevented by illness, or otherwise, from attending the Annual Examination, the General Secretaries shall, in concert with the Chairman of the District in which he is stationed, make suitable provision for his examination. In every case, intimation should be sent to Dr. Moulton as early as possible.

17. The Conference sees no sufficient reason for the exemption of those brethren who have formerly been Ministers in other Churches from the usual course of reading and examination prescribed by the Conference for Preachers on Trial, and directs that they be required to observe such regulations.

18. The Examination Committee is instructed to prepare and send to each Probationer, early in October, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the Scriptural doctrine of the Church.

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

1. The respectful and hearty thanks of the Conference are due and are hereby presented to its late President, the REV. WILLIAM F. MOULTON, D.D., for the dignity, devotion and fraternal courtesy with which he has discharged the duties of his office, both during the Sessions of the last Conference, and throughout the year.

2. The hearty thanks of the Conference are presented to the REV. DAVID J. WALLER, D.D., for his most efficient and valuable services as Secretary of the Conference during the past year.

3. The respectful thanks of the Conference are presented to the Ex-President, the REV. WILLIAM F. MOULTON, D.D., for his very able, searching, tender and encouraging Charge delivered to the newly ordained Ministers at Halifax-place Chapel, Nottingham, on Monday, August 3rd; and he is requested to publish it.

4. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the REV. WALLACE M'MULLEN, D.D., for his efficient services as Representative to the Conference of the Methodist Church of Canada, in September 1890.

5. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the REV. FRANCIS W. GREEVES, the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions, and he is re-appointed.

N.B.—1. The Convener is instructed to divide the District Suggestions into two lists, according to their subjects: (1) For the Pastoral Session, and (2) for the Representative Session, of the Conference; and submit the lists to the President before they are entered in the Agenda.

2. The SECRETARY of the Conference shall furnish the Convener with a list of all matters referred for consideration to the several Departmental Committees; and the Convener shall obtain the several decisions of the said Committees thereupon, and present them to the following Conference.

THE REV. JOHN WALTON, M.A.—In granting the request of the Rev. John Walton, M.A., to retire from the Full Work of the Ministry, the Conference places on record its high esteem of his personal character, and its grateful appreciation of the distinguished service which he has rendered to Methodism during the forty-five years of his ministerial life. The Conference recalls with gratitude his successful missionary career in Ceylon, and his subsequent effective advocacy of the Cause of Foreign Missions. In important spheres at home he has also rendered faithful service by his fidelity to the doctrines and principles of Methodism, and his unwearied devotion in the Cause of Christ. His brethren also remember Mr. Walton's special service in South Africa at a time of peculiar difficulty, the important part he took in constituting the South African Conference, and the able manner in which he fulfilled the appointment as Delegate of the Yearly Conference, and also as President of the first South African Conference. Upon his return to England the highest honour of Methodism was conferred in his election as President of the British Conference. The Conference assures him of its affectionate regard and best wishes, and trusts that he will be able for many years to render the Connexion the benefit of his wide experience and matured wisdom both by his public advocacy of Missions and by preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

THE REV. DANIEL SANDERSON.—The Conference, in consenting to the retirement of the Rev. Daniel Sanderson, after a ministry of fifty years, places on record its high appreciation of his character and of the value of his long-continued services. Mr. Sanderson gave to the great missionary enterprise the first years of his ministerial life, and continued his useful toil in winning the heathen for Christ for more than a quarter of a century. In 1868 he was appointed to the Pastoral charge of the Students at the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution. In this important position the gracious influence of his spirit and of his blameless life was of inestimable value to successive generations of students. By his wisdom, kindness and fidelity, he helped to form the character of those who were placed under his charge—many of whom are now in distant lands; and he enjoyed, at the same time, the fullest confidence of the Missionary Committee, and also of the Theological Institution Committee. The Conference trusts that he may yet be spared for many years to exercise his ministry, and prays that he may richly enjoy the blessings of the Gospel which for so long a period he has faithfully preached.

Week of Special Prayer.—The Conference resolves to set apart a week to be observed throughout the Connexion, as a season of special and simultaneous prayer and waiting upon God, that He will graciously send a Pentecostal outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Senior Ministers.—The Conference resolves that any senior Minister in health and vigour who wishes to be relieved of the cares of the Superintendency, and is willing to take the second or third position in a Circuit, with the conditions of that position, may be so appointed.

List of Reserve.—The Conference directs that all applications for the services of Probationers on the List of Reserve shall be forwarded to the President of the Conference not later than July 1st in each year; and a Committee to classify the cases shall meet during the sessions of each Conference.

Appeals in Cases of Discipline.—The Conference resolves that no appeal shall be received after the completion of the year following the Conference immediately succeeding the act of discipline, except by special decision of the Conference.

SUPPLY FOR CHAIRMAN OF A DISTRICT.—In case the Chairman of a District be unable to attend any meeting of the District Committee, a Chairman for the occasion shall be elected by the meeting from among the Ministers then present.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR DECEASED MINISTERS.—The Conference resolves as follows:—

1. The consideration of the records of the deceased brethren shall be regarded and observed as a strictly religious service; and, whilst this solemn business is being transacted, no Committees of the Conference shall meet.

2. The obituaries of deceased Ministers received by the District Meetings shall be revised by a Special Committee, to be appointed at the preceding Conference.

3. The obituaries thus revised shall be printed for the use of the Conference, under the direction of the Special Committee; and the official reading of these records shall be discontinued.

4. The obituary notices of Ministers, who have died since the May District Meetings, shall be revised by the Special Committee; and, if possible, be printed and presented at the same time as those which have been submitted to the District Committees.

5. The Conference shall, as a rule, transact this solemn part of its business on the Tuesday morning of the third week of its Sessions.

6. The list of the names of deceased Ministers shall be read by the Secretary of the Conference.

7. The following Ministers shall be the Committee for the ensuing year:—Rev. T. BOWMAN STEPHENSON, D.D., LL.D., President of the Conference; Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, D.D., Secretary of the Conference; Rev. WILLIAM F. MOULTON, D.D., Ex-President; Rev. Benjamin Gregory, D.D., Editor; Rev. Charles H. Kelly, Book-Steward; Revs. W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., Walford Green, Dr. Greeves, William Hirst (A), William Nicholson, George R. Osborn, John S. Simon, William J. Tweddle, John Walton, M.A., and John Telford, B.A., Convener.

MINISTERS UNDER AFFILIATED CONFERENCES.—The Conference resolves:—

1. That British Ministers who have elected to remain in Full Connexion with the Yearly Conference whilst continuing to be employed under an Affiliated Conference, must be held to be absolutely subject to the Affiliated Conference in all matters connected with the work and within the limits of that Conference; but that the question of their continued connexion with the Yearly Conference can be determined only by the vote of the Yearly Conference.

2. That any British Minister who has elected to enter into Full Connexion with an Affiliated Conference, or who may hereafter so enter, must be regarded as having thereby resigned his connection with the Yearly Conference; and the fact of such resignation shall be entered on the journals of the Yearly Conference.

3. That Ministers who were not sent out from England, but were taken into the Ministry in the Districts now belonging to Affiliated Conferences, and also Native Ministers, were intended to be absolutely subject to the jurisdiction of their respective Affiliated Conferences. The Conference declares that they are so subject to the Affiliated Conferences, and that they have ceased to be in connexion with the Yearly Conference; and directs that complete lists of those Ministers shall be entered on the Journal of the Yearly Conference.

NATIVE MINISTERS IN OUR FOREIGN MISSIONS.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference declares that—except in the case of Ministers sent out from this country and duly authorized to return—the admission of Brethren abroad into Full Connexion with the Conference does not carry with it any right to a Circuit in Great Britain, or to attend the meetings of the British Conference.

3. The Conference remits the entire question of the relation of Native Ministers in our Foreign Missions to the Yearly Conference to the following Committee:—The Rev. T. Bowman Stephenson, D.D., LL.D., President of the Conference; David J. Waller, D.D., Secretary of the Conference; William F. Smith Spencer, William Stevinson, B.A., William J. Tweddle, John Walton, M.A., W. Ripley Winston, Theophilus Woolmer; and Marshall Hartley, Convener.

Transfers between the Foreign and Home Work.—1. The Conference directs that a Committee of fifteen Ministers be annually appointed, viz.: five each by the Home-Mission, the Foreign Missionary, and the Theological Institution Committees, respectively. This Committee shall sit prior to the Sessions of the Conference in each year, and report upon all cases of proposed transfer between the Foreign and the Home Work. 6. The Conference directs that the October Meetings of the Governing Bodies and of the General Committee be held in Manchester, that the January and July Meetings be held in London, and that the April Meetings be held in Bath.

7. The Conference, having received the report of the General Committee, resolves:—

(1) That the Ministerial Subscriptions (viz., Ministers, one guinea; Preachers on Trial, half-a-guinea) and Circuit Assessments be continued, and that the payment by Ministers in Circuit work, having children at the schools, of £2 for each child at school, shall be, as heretofore, in addition to the subscription of one guinea.

(2) That Ministers received into Full Connexion with the Conference, yet not provided with houses, shall, in the matter of the annual subscription, be treated as Preachers on Trial, subscribing half-a-guinea per annum to the Fund.

(3) That that part of the Common Fund which is for Education shall be made self-adjusting upon the lines already adopted in respect of Maintenance; the charge in this respect upon each Circuit calling out an additional Minister being £2 per annum during the period of probation, and £4 per annum afterwards; making a total assessment in such cases of £11 and £22 respectively.

(4) That, as it appears that the expenditure of the Education Section of the Fund will exceed its present income during the period 1888—1894 by about £10,000 in the gross, the Conference directs the continuance of the increase of half-a-guinea each in the subscriptions of Ministers and Preachers on Trial, which was first assessed in 1888. The total of these increased subscriptions in any District may be allotted among the Ministers of that District in other than equal proportions by the District Meeting when composed of Ministers only.

8. ADMISSION TO THE SCHOOLS.

(1) On the Foundation. The number of boys for whom provision is made is two hundred and fifty.

(2) On Payment. In addition to the 250 admitted on the Foundation, fifty boys are received annually on payment. In the case of boys who have neither received Education allowance nor been at the School, the charge is £25. Parents whose boys are thus received will be entitled, for that year, to the usual allowances from the Maintenance Fund, and twelve pounds for Education.

Extra Years. The Rule as to extra years shall be construed in harmony with Clause twenty-one of the Scheme of Management of the Kingswood School, and with Clause nineteen of the Scheme of Management of the Queenswood and Trinity Hall Schools. In every case where an extra year, at the end, is granted to any boy or girl, the sum of £30 shall be paid.

Parents whose children are granted an extra year are entitled to the six guineas from the Maintenance Fund, and, unless they have already received for six years, the twelve pounds for Education.

Special Resolution on Extra Years. In the case of boys who come very near to winning Scholarships, an extra year shall be granted on the payment of £25, if the parents desire it, subject to the recommendation of the Governor and Headmaster. This Regulation shall be made retrospective, so as to secure the return after Midsummer of boys specially reported to the Governing Body.

9. APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION.—Not later than the 1st of October, the name and age of every applicant for admission must be sent, in the case of boys, to the REV. WILLIAM PERKINS, 4, Wetherell Place, Clifton, Bristol; and, in the case of girls, to the REV. RALPH M. SPOOR, 198, Lancaster Road, Notting Hill, London, W. The age of admission to the Schools shall be, for boys not before ten, and for girls not before twelve years.

10. EXAMINATIONS FOR ENTRANCE.

I. BOYS.

Standard IV. Candidates ten years of age. Reading—A few lines of poetry to be read intelligently. Writing from Dictation—A short passage from an easy Reading-Book. Arithmetic—The First Four Rules, Simple and Compound (Money only). Grammar—The Parts of Speech. Parsing a simple sentence. Geography—Outlines of Geography of England and Wales. History—Elementary knowledge of the main facts of English History. Scripture—Main facts of Scripture History, as contained in Appendix to Catechism, Part I.

Standard V. Candidates eleven years of age. Reading—Intelligent reading of a more difficult passage. Dictation—Short passages from an easy author. Arithmetic—The First Four Rules, Simple and Compound (Money and Weights and Measures) and Practice. Grammar—Elementary work. Parsing simple sentences. Geography—Outlines of Geography of Great Britain and the Colonies. History—Outlines of History of England. Scripture—Main facts of Scripture History.

Standard VI. Candidates twelve years of age. Reading and Dictation—As above for Standard V., but more advanced. Arithmetic—As Standard V., with Elementary Vulgar Fractions. Grammar—Analysis and Parsing of simple sentences. Geography—Outlines of Geography of Europe (including British Isles). History—Outlines of History of England. Scripture—Main facts of Scripture History.

II. For Girls.

The Examination shall be according to the minimum standard appointed in the year 1877 (Minutes, 1877, p. 171), viz:—

'Reading—The candidate must be able to read, with intelligence, a few lines of poetry, selected by the Examiner. Writing (Small Hand)—Eight lines to be slowly dictated from a reading book. This will be also a test of spelling. Arithmetic—The Four Simple Rules, and the four Compound Rules (Money and Weights and Measures). Geography—Outlines of the Geography of Europe in general, particularly of England. English Grammar—To Parse simple sentences correctly and readily. History—To have a fair knowledge of Bible History, and of the History of England. The candidate must give evidence of skill in Plain Needlework.

The Conference further directs that the above standard be printed in the Minutes of this year, with the following addition, from the Scheme of Management (Minutes, 1886, p. 382, par. 20): 'The examination shall be graduated according to the age of the girl, or other circumstances, at the discretion of the Governing Body.'

11. Notice of Removal from School.—The Conference directs that, in order to avoid any unnecessary disturbance of arrangements made for the teaching and general management of the Schools, and in order to give the Governing Bodies sufficient time to make an equitable selection of candidates for any vacancies which may occur during the year, parents having children at the Schools shall be required to give three months' notice before the removal of such child or children. In the event of parents neglecting to give such notice, the officers of the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children are authorized to withhold three months' allowances which would otherwise be payable for each such child or children.

The Conference further directs that should a boy or girl, to whom an extra year has been granted, be withdrawn without the required three months' notice, the parent or guardian shall pay one-fourth of the sum charged for the extra year in lieu of such notice.

12. EDUCATIONAL ALLOWANCES FOR CHILDREN NOT AT THE SCHOOLS.—The regulation (Minutes, 1890, p. 230, par. 14) is revised as follows:—

Payments are made at the Conference for the past year; and in every case in which the Educational Allowance has been received by the parent, the claim upon the Education Section of the Fund shall be understood to have been met and satisfied for that year.

Parents may begin to claim for their children when they are nine, ten, eleven or twelve years of age, on the preceding Christmas-day; but the first claim for a child who is twelve years of age on or before any Christmas-day must be made at the following Conference at the latest; and having once begun to claim, they shall receive their payments annually. Claims deferred are deferred at the risk of the parents.

In the case of a child who is a candidate for admission to one of the Schools, who has passed the entrance examination, and has been elected to enter, but for whom there is not room on the next following re-opening, the regulation requiring the taking up of the Annual Allowance shall not apply for that year.

N.B.—The clause, 'Payments are made at the Conference for the past year,' in the first paragraph of this regulation, applies to those claimants who began to claim under the regulation which required that a child should be nine years old at the preceding Midsummer. It is modified in the case of claimants who begin to claim in 1891, and in the case of claimants in succeeding years, so as to read 'Payments are made at the Conference for the calendar year then current.'

13. The application and enforcement of the rule respecting the clothing of the sons of necessitous Supernumeraries or Widows at Kingswood School is left to the discretion of the General Committee. (Minutes, 1882, p. 240.)

14. CIRCUIT SCHEDULES.—Not later than the 1st of March, each Superintendent shall send to the REV. R. WALLIS BOYNS, Southfield Road, Cotham, Bristol, a particular account of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit; specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, together with the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received.

15. ALTERATION OF THE BEGINNING OF THE SCHOOL YEAR AT ALL THE SCHOOLS.—The School Year at all the Schools begins in January.

16. ALTERATION IN THE TERM OF A BOY'S RESIDENCE, WITHOUT PAYMENT, AT KINGSWOOD SCHOOL:—

The Conference directs that the ordinary term of a boy's residence at the school, without payment, shall be five years, but that it shall be extended to a sixth year, in the case of any boy, who, to the satisfaction of the Governing Body, shall, for this purpose, be recommended by the Governor and Head-Master, and that any boy so remaining for a sixth year, shall, at the end thereof, be eligible for any of the School scholarships; and the Conference further directs that in the case of any boy so remaining for a sixth year, for whom the full Educational Allowances have, under the arrangements at present in force, been received, the parent or guardian shall repay one year's Educational Allowance to the Treasurers of the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children, and this repayment shall be deemed to be due at the Conference immediately following the beginning of the sixth year.

17. THE STATE OF THE FUND.—1. The Conference receives with concern the Special Report of the Committee on the State and Prospects of the Fund. 2. The Conference directs that the Collection for the Education Section of the Fund be made in all our Chapels, and that it be made in the month of November, according to Rule. 3. The Conference fears that unless, by the date fixed for the next Revision of Assessment, viz, 1893, the income reaches again the amount of ten years ago, no course will then remain but the immediate diminution of the Education Allowance by no less an amount than Three pounds per child.

18. CLAIMS UPON CONNEXIONAL FUNDS OF MINISTERS WITHDRAWING FROM THE ENGLISH WESLEYAN CONNEXION TO JOIN OTHER METHODIST CHURCHES.—'In regard to the application made by the Rev. William Jeffries (see Minutes, 1890, pp. 232, 233), the Conference resolves that such an application is wholly groundless and cannot be entertained.

(1) Mr. Jeffries leaves the English Wesleyan Connexion and transfers himself to Australian Methodism entirely of his own will, and for the sake of certain advantages of climate for himself and for his family, and by so doing brings to an end his financial relations with English Methodism and its Funds.

(2) In particular, the allowances from the Children's Fund are part of the Connexional provision made by the Societies and Congregations of Methodism for the Ministers generally, in consideration of the preaching and pastoral services they render to the Connexion. To transfer payments from this Fund from Ministers belonging to the English Connexion and pay them to Ministers who have left it to serve a distinct and separate Methodist Church, such as that of Australia, or that of the Canadian Dominion (which are no less distinct and independent than the American Methodist Episcopal Church) would be a manifest mal-appropriation of Connexional contributions.

(3) And similarly, the allowances from the Auxiliary Fund are paid out of a provision made expressly and only for those who, having spent their strength in the work of the Ministry, during their years of health and vigour, have been allowed by the Conference to retire from the ordinary duties of the Itinerancy.

A Minister who leaves English Methodism that he may transfer his active Ministry to another Methodist Church can accordingly have no claim on the Auxiliary Fund.

19. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Officers of the Children's Fund (Education Section), the General Committee, the Governing Bodies, and to the Managing Committees, for the diligent and faithful discharge of the duties of their respective offices during the year; also to Mr. J. Hartley Blackburn, of Bradford, for his valuable services as Honorary Auditor of the Kingswood School Accounts.

20. All Collections, Subscriptions, and Circuit Assessments on behalf of the Education Section of the Fund are to be sent to the REV. WALFORD GREEN, Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, London, E.C.

21. All payments for children at the Schools, whether £25 for first year or £30 for extra year, are due in four equal instalments, one on each quarter day; and the money must be sent to the REV. WALFORD GREEN, Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, London, E.C.

N.B.—The bye-laws and regulations governing the administration of the Fund have been codified and published by direction of the Conference (1886), and can be obtained at the Book-Room, London.

HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND.

Q. XXVII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND, and other HOME-MISSION AFFAIRS?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, and of the Army and Navy Sub-Committee; and directs that the Returns from the Army and Navy and Reserve Forces be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix II.)

LEGISLATION OF 1878, ETC.

2. The Conference provisionally adopts the following resolutions:—

(1) The Conference rescinds the resolutions of 1878 and 1887 relating to the retention in the Districts of a proportion of the increases of income over the amounts raised in 1878 or 1886; but a sum representing the average of the surpluses for the three years last past in any District shall remain at the disposal of the District Committee of such District, provided that the income of the District be maintained.

(2) The Ordinary Grant shall no longer be at the sole disposal of the District Meetings; but inquiry shall be made, year by year, either by the District Meetings or their Sub-Committees, into the circumstances and needs of each Circuit receiving aid from the Grant; and a report shall be presented to the General Committee.

YEARLY COLLECTION.

3. The Conference, believing the time has come when some other means must be found for providing the money hitherto raised by means of the Yearly Collection in the Classes, provisionally approves of the plan submitted by the Home-Mission Committee.

The amount to be raised is not less than £6,800.

The following is the plan proposed:—

(1) A Circuit Assessment, on the lines of the Children's Fund Assessment, shall be made for those expenses of the Connexion which are not in any way chargeable to Circuits as a part of their expenditure, but which are, in the strictest sense of the word, Connexional. The amount shall be taken for the present to be £4,000.

While an Assessment at the average rate of £2 per married Minister, and £1 per single Minister, will probably be sufficient in normal circumstances, the Assessment for the present, and during the period of transition, shall be at the rate of £2 10*s.* per married Minister, and £1 5*s.* per single Minister.

For a while, in any Circuit where the September Quarterly Meeting shall so decide, the Collection in the Classes may still be made, the amount so raised being applied only in aid of the Circuit Assessment. In the event of this amount exceeding the amount of the Assessment, the overplus shall be credited to the Home-Mission Fund. At the end of three years the question in relation to these Circuits shall be reconsidered.

During the time which must elapse before this Scheme comes into operation, the Yearly Collection must still be made, and the Conference commends it to the generous care both of Ministers and Members.

The Home-Mission Committee, at an early Meeting, shall appoint a strong Sub-Committee to prepare in detail the Scheme of Assessments proposed, showing the incidence thereof on Districts and Circuits, and to consider any modifications or alternative proposals, so that a complete case may be presented to the District Meetings in May. The Home-Mission Committee shall have power to invite gentlemen having special knowledge who are not Members of that Committee to join the Sub-Committee.

(2) A Legacy Suspense Account shall be formed, and the average amount of the legacies for a period of ten years—estimated at about £1,000—shall be annually transferred therefrom to current account. The Conference shall rescind the resolutions relating to the investment of legacies.

(3) The Conference shall direct that a Home-Missionary Meeting be held in every Place in each Circuit.

In order to facilitate the action of Circuit authorities in this matter, and to secure the success of such Meetings, it is proposed that the General Committee shall provide suitable placards and handbills, together with Home-Mission information and literature.

Transfers of 1889.

4. The Conference refers to the Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-President, and Mr. William Tunstill, who shall act as arbitrators, the financial arrangements in connection with the Transfer of Candidates from the Foreign to the Home Work by the Conference of 1889. (Minutes, 1889, pp. 285, 286; Minutes, 1890, pp. 295, 296.)

SPECIAL FUND.

5. The Conference authorises the raising of a Special Fund of £20,000 during the next three years, for the revival and extension of Methodism in our Circuits.

PLEDGES TO PROVIDE FOR MARRIED MINISTERS.

6. The Home-Mission Committee having reported that twelve Circuits were under pledge to provide for married Ministers at the Conference of 1891, and that the following was the result; the Conference directed that the Report be printed in the Minutes:—

London (Brixton Hill) gave up the Minister at the end of three years.

WORN-OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS AUXILIARY FUND.

Q. XXIX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the affairs of the AUXILIARY FUND?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference deeply regrets the loss sustained by this department of Methodism in the death of MR. JOHN NAPIER, and records its high appreciation of his character and life-work, especially of the most valuable services which for many years he rendered to the Auxiliary Fund as one of the General Treasurers. Tenderly sympathetic, wise in counsel, and generous in contribution—by his example and appeals Mr. Napier interested and stimulated others in the work of providing for our aged Ministers and for the Widows of those who have served the Church.

The Conference also deplores the loss which the Auxiliary Fund has sustained by the death of the venerable DR. OSBORN; and records its grateful sense of the manifold service he rendered from time to time to this Fund.

3. The Conference, while regretting that the ordinary income has not met the expenditure, is thankful to find that the year has yielded much encouragement. Legacies have amounted to £9,604; Donations on Annuity to £1,106; and additional promises to the Special Effort have been received to the extent of £9,000, making in this account £17,000, of which £5,411 has been paid. Public Collections show an increase of £1,207 and Private Subscriptions an increase of £132. The total amount reported as received from the Society-classes is £8,014, which is £362 less than the previous year. The Conference rejoices to believe that there is a revived interest in the Fund, and directs that the most careful attention be given in every Circuit to augment the ordinary income.

4. The Conference, having regard to the growing liabilities of the Fund, again earnestly commends to the generous sympathy of the Connexion the Special Effort which is now being made to raise not less than £25,000.

5. The Conference directs that Collections in aid of the Fund be made in all our Chapels; that the claims of the Fund be specifically brought before the members during the visitation of the Classes in September; and that efforts be made to obtain new annual subscriptions.

6. The Conference resolves that the scale of allowances to Ministers' Widows be for this year fourteen pounds, in addition to the ten shillings per annum for each year that the husband travelled.

7. The hearty thanks of the Conference are presented to those friends who during the past year have generously responded to the appeal of the General Treasurer; to those who have made special donations; to the Executors who have paid sundry legacies; to Trustees of Chapels and Quarterly Meetings for contributions to the Fund; and to the District and Circuit Treasurers for their valuable services during the past year.

11. The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted:—

(1) The Conference resolves that, wherever it is practicable, two Collections shall be made annually in each Chapel throughout the Connexion on behalf of the Funds of the Theological Institution; and that these Collections shall be made, if possible, on some Sunday in December.

(2) The Conference directs the Superintendents of Circuits to remit all subscriptions and collections for the Theological Institution to the General Treasurers early in the year; and instructs the Chairmen of Districts to ascertain, by inquiry at the May District Meeting, whether such payments have been made.

(3) The Conference affirms the principle, which has from the beginning been recognised in the administration of the Institution, in regard to charges on account of Students, that such Students as have the means, or whose friends have the means, shall be expected to contribute, in whole or in part, according to their ability, towards the cost of their own maintenance and education; and it directs the General Committee to consider and adopt such methods as may be deemed best for carrying this rule into effect.

(4) The Conference resolves that a minimum charge for maintenance shall be made, which every Student shall be expected to defray; it being, however, distinctly understood that the General Committee shall be empowered to remit the charge wherever, and in so far as, it may be found on inquiry that any Student is unable to pay. And further, that all who are able, either themselves or by their parents or friends, to add to the payment for maintenance, payment on account of education, should be urged to do so.

(5) The Conference directs that information be given to the General Treasurers of the Institution Fund of the resignation of any Preacher on Trial, or of any Minister who has not been ten years in the Full Work of the Ministry, in order that a list may be kept of those who have not discharged their obligations in respect of their College training.

5. Day Schools.—The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted:—

(1) The Conference empowers the Education Committee to make Grants, on inspection, to new Schools to which the provisions of the Minute of the Education Department, dated June 21st, 1878, apply, and for the probationary period during which, under the said Minute, such Schools cannot receive Grants in aid from the Department.

(2) The Conference expresses its opinion that, in view of the working of existing arrangements for Public Elementary Education, it is highly desirable that the number of Wesleyan Day Schools should at least be maintained. The Conference therefore strongly recommends that before any steps are taken towards the closing or transfer of any Wesleyan Day School, the proposal to close or transfer it be communicated to the Education Committee, in order that they may have an opportunity of suggesting alternative proposals for the consideration of Local Managers.

(3) The Conference directs that in all ordinary cases of Day Schools conducted on Wesleyan Trust premises, no such Schools shall be discontinued so long as there is a reasonable prospect of their being carried on without serious embarrassment. The same general principle shall apply to Wesleyan Day Schools conducted in premises rented for the purpose under the management of a recognised Wesleyan School Committee.

When, however, the discontinuance of a Day School is proposed, before such proposal is carried into effect, the Superintendent shall consult the Trustees, the Managing Committee, and the Subscribers; and if in any case there is a considerable division of opinion, the case shall be submitted to the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit. In all cases, the general principle laid down by the Conference respecting the Transfer of Schools —viz., that the Superintendents of the Circuits, with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall consult the Education Committee—shall be adhered to.

(4) The Conference declares that it shall not be deemed to be within the power and option of a Superintendent to prevent the establishment or continuance of a Wesleyan Day School, so long as responsible parties pledge themselves to bear all the financial cost and risk.

(5) (i.) In view of the interpretation which is put upon Section XXIII. of the Elementary Education Act by the Lords of the Committee of Council, to the effect that any transfer of a School, settled upon our School Model Deed No. I., to a School Board, for any term whatever, for the purposes of such School Board, must be sanctioned not only by the signatures of the Trustees, but by the Conference, testified by the President in writing,—the Conference directs that in every case in which the transfer of such a School is proposed, the Superintendent, with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall first consult the Education Committee on the subject, and that if, for reasons given, that Committee recommends such a transfer, the Rules of the Conference in relation to the sale of Trust Property shall be applicable thereto;—the Education Committee considering all questions affecting School management, and the Chapel Committee questions affecting Trust Property.

(ii.) In respect to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. II., or on any other Deed in which the consent of the Conference is rendered necessary for the alienation of the property, the Conference recommends the Trustees to act upon the same principles as those laid down in the foregoing clause in relation to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. I.

(iii.) In all cases of transfer which may hereafter occur, the Conference recommends that provision be made in the instrument of transfer to secure the resumption of the premises by the Trustees, without their being required to reimburse any money laid out upon them by the School Board solely for its own purposes.

6. The Conference further directs as follows:—

(i.) All who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises for the establishment of new Schools, shall communicate with the Education Committee, for the purpose of receiving counsel as to their projected undertakings and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted.

(ii.) The Managers of every School shall require from the Teacher, at least once a year, a report as to the nature and extent of the Religious Instruction given in the School, in order that they may be satisfied that the truths of Scripture are regularly taught to the children.

(iii.) It is deemed desirable that the Managers shall arrange, in conjunction with the Teacher, for regular examinations of the School in Religious Knowledge; such examinations to be conducted, as to time and method, as circumstances may require.

(iv.) A General Report on the Religious Instruction given in the Day Schools, founded upon the Teachers' Reports from the several Schools, as well as upon the personal visitation of the Ministers, shall be submitted to the March Quarterly Meetings, when the Returns as to the Day and Sunday Schools of the Circuit are presented.

(v.) The October Examination of Pupil Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday of that month. The March Examination will continue to be held on the first Saturday of that month.

7. SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—The third Sunday in October in each year shall be observed as a day for Special Prayer on behalf of Sunday Schools and young people.

8. The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of Catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our own Catechisms in our Sunday Schools.

9. The Conference resolves that, while it may be well to provide a separate service for very young children, it is most undesirable that scholars of eight years of age and upwards should be kept from the services in the chapels.

10. DAY AND SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—The Statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

11. The Education Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendents to the District Education Secretary, not later than April 20th, in each year.

12. The District Sunday School Sub-Committees shall have charge also of the interests of the Day Schools in their respective Districts.

PUBLIC ELEMENTARY EDUCATION.

I. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Representative Committee, appointed by the Conference of 1890, in view of Prospective Parliamentary Legislation affecting Public Elementary Education, held on January 27th and 28th, 1891; and directs that the following Resolutions be printed in the Minutes, viz.:—

1. That the primary object of Methodist policy in the matter of Elementary Education should be the establishment of School Boards everywhere, acting in districts of sufficient area, and the placing of a Christian unsectarian school within reasonable distance of every family, especially in the rural districts.

2. That no National system of Education will meet the necessity of the country, which shall exclude from the Day Schools the Bible and religious instruction therefrom by the Teachers, suited to the capacities of children.

3. That all modifications of the National policy in respect to Elementary Education should be made in view of the ultimate establishment of a complete National system of Schools under adequate and representative public management.

4 That so long as Denominational Schools form part of the National system of Education, our Connexional Day Schools and Training Colleges should be maintained in full vigour and efficiency.

5. That the Committee is prepared to accept any reasonable proposals for Free Education; but insists that all Schools freed by the aid of public grants must be so far placed under public management, as—(1) To secure the efficiency of the Schools, and (2) To prevent their misuse for sectarian purposes.

6. That no scheme of Free or Assisted Education can be acceptable to Wesleyan-Methodists which will place the Schools of Protestant Nonconformists at a disadvantage in comparison with those of the Church of England or of the Roman Catholics.

7. That no measure will be satisfactory to Wesleyan-Methodists which provides for the payment from the Consolidated Fund of a sum in lieu of school fees, while it makes no provision for the due representation of the public on the Committees of Management.

8. That a measure merely for giving further assistance to different sorts of inspected Schools, provided and managed as at present and organized on existing lines, must be deficient alike in symmetry and elasticity, and altogether inadequate to meet the requirements of the nation in respect of public education of various grades and kinds in town and country.

9. That the experience of twenty years has shown that the Conscience Clause has, to a considerable extent, proved to be ineffectual and unreal as a protection for parents and children against religious intolerance and oppression; that, moreover, in not a few Day Schools of the Church of England, religious intolerance and bigotry of an exceedingly offensive character are systematically taught the scholars during the hours set apart for religious instruction by means of a special Catechism, such as it ought not to be possible to teach in connection with any public school of the Nation; and that the way of appeal to the Education Department against such grievances is difficult, tedious, and often altogether unavailable. This Committee, therefore, would strongly urge upon the Government that the Local Education Authority, which is responsible for enforcing educational compulsion on children and their parents, should have authority to take cognizance of any complaints which may be made by parents or guardians of offences against conscience or religious liberty in the conduct of any inspected School, and may make representations on the subject either to the Managers of the School or to the Education Department, or to both these authorities, as the case may require.

And further, that it shall be within the competency of the same local authority to take cognizance of the sanitary conditions of the Schools within their Districts which it may be their duty to require children to attend, and to make representations on this subject to the Managers of any School or to the Education Department, or to both these authorities.

10. The Committee having heard that certain Schools have been transferred to School Boards for their use only within specified hours of each School day, so limited as to enable clergymen and teachers, without the guard of a Conscience Clause, to give religious instruction by means of Catechisms and otherwise before the hour in which the premises are under the School Board regulations, regards this arrangement as an evasion of the spirit of clause xiv., sec. 2 of the Act of 1870, which declares that 'no religious catechism or religious formulary, which is distinctive of any particular denomination,' shall be taught in any school under a School Board; and resolves to recommend that the Act of 1870 be amended by the insertion of a provision to the effect that premises of transferred Schools shall be held to be in the occupation of the School Board from 6 A.M. to 5 P.M. on all School days.

II. The Conference also adopts the Report of the Committee held on June 24th, 1891, which re-affirms the above Resolutions. The Conference approves the findings of the Committee, and considers the Education Act 1891 defective and unsatisfactory, especially in the following particulars, viz.:—

1. Because it fails to provide for the immediate establishment of School Boards everywhere, acting in districts of sufficient area.

That, unless the School Board Districts are sufficiently large, the extension of School Boards, especially in rural districts, will neither serve the purpose of efficient education nor afford the necessary security for religious liberty.

2. Because it does not provide an unsectarian School, under the management of a School Board, within reasonable distance of every family.

3. Because it makes no further provision with regard to the Conscience Clause.

The Committee re-affirms its strong protest against the religious oppression carried on by means of the rural Schools, and the extreme sacerdotal teaching given therein to children of Nonconformist parents; and urges that some provision should be made in the Bill for remedying these crying grievances.

4. Because the Bill makes no provision for placing all Schools receiving the fee-grant under effective representative supervision: a principle which Wesleyan-Methodists are prepared to accept in regard to their own Schools.

5. Because by limiting the fee-grant to children only between the ages of five and fourteen, it discourages the education of those under five and above fourteen.

MIDDLE-CLASS EDUCATION.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee, and expresses its thankfulness for the success of the movement for Middle-Class Education.

2. The Conference receives with pleasure the favourable reports of the Schools at Jersey, Truro, Bury St. Edmunds, Woodhouse-Grove, Trowbridge, Penzance, Camborne, Congleton, Canterbury, and Folkestone.

3. The Rev. W. Henry Thompson and the Rev. George Marris are appointed Directors of the Cornwall Wesleyan-Methodist School Association, Limited. The Rev. W. Henry Thompson, the Rev. John A. B. Harry, the Rev. W. Gluyas Pascoe, and the Rev. William Brooks are appointed Directors of the Cornwall Wesleyan-Methodist Girls' School Association, Limited. The Rev. John Gould and Mr. Percy W. Pocock are appointed Directors of the East Anglian Wesleyan-Methodist School Association, Limited. The Rev. Cocks are appointed Directors of the Cheshire and North Staffordshire Wesleyan Middle-Class School Association, Limited. The Rev. Thomas Overton, and Mr. Peter

F. Wood are appointed Directors of the Kent Wesleyan-Methodist School Association, Limited.

4. In view of the increasing demand for good intermediate Education, the Conference deems it highly expedient that further efforts should be made to establish Methodist Middle-Class Schools in different parts of the country, in order that the Connexion may take its due share in this important work.

5. The Committee is empowered to make appropriations by way of grant or loan, or otherwise, on account of the remainder of the sum of Ten Thousand Pounds, which was allotted from the Thanksgiving Fund in aid of Methodist Middle-Class Schools.

6. The Education Committee shall have charge of the Middle-Class Education. A Special Sub-Committee shall be appointed in the interests of Middle-Class Schools, which shall report to and through that Committee to the Conference.

The Conference is specially thankful to be assured that the moral and religious results of the work of the Home are increasingly gratifying, inasmuch as very many of the former inmates are leading useful Christian lives.

3. The Conference expresses its special satisfaction that our Sunday Schools are in an increasing degree supporting this Christian enterprise, and that a larger number of our Congregations are, either on Christmas Day, at the Watchnight Service, or at some other opportunity, devoting collections to this purpose. TEMPERANCE.

Q. XXXVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Temperance?

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Temperance Committee, and directs that an Abstract be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix V.)

2. The Conference hears with great satisfaction of the continuous growth of Wesleyan-Methodist Bands of Hope, which now number 3,714 Bands, and 376,540 enrolled Members.

3. The Conference expresses special pleasure at the large increase in our Temperance Societies, and hopes that the improvement in this department will still continue.

4. The Conference again expresses its deep regret that no Bill has yet been passed extending to England the benefits arising from the Sunday Closing of Public-Houses, and urges our people to put forth strenuous efforts in order to secure this object.

5. The Conference recommends that, on the last Sunday in November in each year, special reference shall be made in all Wesleyan-Methodist places of worship, and in all our Sunday-Schools, to the appalling extent and dire results of Intemperance in Great Britain.

6. The Conference deeply deplores the wide-spread prevalence of betting and gambling which certain occurrences of the past year have brought into such painful prominence, and expresses its sorrow that such countenance is given to these vices in high places, and that the newspaper press of this country stimulates them by devoting so much space to the publication of sporting items.

The Conference, therefore, directs the Temperance Committee to continue its exertions for the suppression of these vices; and is of opinion that the most vigorous efforts to combat this evil should be made by the pulpit, the platform, the press and the Sunday School.

7. The Conference recommends that, in order to secure a more accurate enrolment of members, all our Bands of Hope shall issue quarterly tickets of membership, and that such tickets shall be given, not only to the ordinary members of the Band of Hope, but also to all the scholars in our Sunday Schools, who are willing to enrol themselves in the Sunday-School Teachers' Pledge Book; and that such persons shall be reckoned as members of our Bands of Hope, whether they are able to attend the Band of Hope Meetings or not.

8. The Conference commits the question of the Opium Traffic to the Temperance Committee, and directs it to associate with itself in its deliberations upon this subject certain Missionaries and others who are able to give special information in relation to it.

5. Mr. W. Oliver Quibell is appointed Convener of the Scrutineers of votes for the election of Lay Representatives by the Conference.

Deceased Lay Representatives.—The Conference has had this year to record with deep regret the decease of an exceptionally large number of honoured Laymen. No fewer than six beloved brethren, who were members of the Representative Session, and who have been greatly esteemed for their high Christian character, their distinguished liberality, or their length of service, have died during the year. John Napier, the Lay Treasurer of the Auxiliary Fund, a man exceedingly beloved and honoured, always tender and sympathetic in counsel, and who served the Cause of God by a rare personal influence; JOHN BEAUCHAMP, the Treasurer of the Leys School, an earnest supporter of the Cause of Missions, and whose substance, voice and pen were placed at the disposal of Methodism; JAMES S. SUTCLIFFE, whose devotion of service was first given to the promotion of the Work of God in Rossendale, yet who cared not only for every local object, but also for the Connexional interests: JOHN WESLEY LEWIS, who brought to the platform and pulpit gifts of eloquence, and who throughout the Circuits of the District in which he resided consecrated to the Cause of Christ rich natural endowments and a large-hearted liberality; SAMUEL OSBORN, who by his high principle, sterling integrity and generous sympathy served the Cause of righteousness in every walk of life; and WILLIAM PEARCE, whose name will always be associated with East London Methodism.

These have all been summoned into the presence of the Master Whom they so truly loved and served so well. There are other beloved and honoured brethren who have been called away, who were not this year the elected members of the Conference, who might be named—including WILLIAM PRICE, the father of Cardiff Methodism, whose loss is deeply felt. The Conference bows to the will of God, Who has taken away not only those who were ripe in years and grace, but also those who were in the midst of their days, with the promise of years of valuable service; feeling assured that God will not fail to raise up a succession of faithful men to carry on His work.

The Conference also takes this opportunity of assuring the bereaved members of the several families of its affectionate sympathy, and its earnest prayer that the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ may abound unto 'all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness;' 'giving thanks unto the Father, Who hath made' them 'meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light.'

NOMINATION COMMITTEE.—1. The Nomination Committee shall consist of:—(a) The eighteen Lay Representatives elected by the Conference in the three preceding years: viz., Messrs. 6. The Conference directs that all Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall be printed in the Conference Agenda, as far as possible; the names of new members being printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment by a four-fifths majority distinguished by an asterisk; care being taken to give the Christian name and postal address of each Layman.

REPRESENTATION OF SUNDAY-SCHOOLS IN CIRCUIT QUARTERLY MEETINGS.—The Conference resolves :—

1. In each Circuit in which a Wesleyan-Methodist Sunday School Union exists upon the principles adopted by the Conference, or shall hereafter be formed, the Committee of such Union shall annually elect two of their number, being members of Society, who shall thereby become members of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting, during the year for which they are elected.

2. In Circuit Unions containing above two thousand scholars an additional Representative shall be chosen.

TITLE OF THE CONNEXION.—Having regard to the terms used in our Trust Deeds and other Legal Documents, it is not possible for the Conference to alter the title of the Connexion as it appears on the front page of the Minutes of Conference. The Conference declares, however, that the title hitherto used is not, and never has been, inconsistent with the assertion for 'the people called Methodists' of a true and proper position as a Church, with all the authorities, privileges and responsibilities belonging to the New Testament Church; and in this view of our principles and of the facts of the case, the Conference, so far from discouraging, distinctly approves of the general and popular use of the term; 'The Wesleyan-Methodist Church.'

BETTING AND GAMBLING.—1. In view of the rapid increase of betting and gambling among all classes, and the consequent dire evils to the nation, the Conference records its emphatic protest against the continued publication in the daily press of betting news, and the selections of Special Turf Correspondents for gambling purposes. While acknowledging with great satisfaction the high tone of some of the newspapers of the country in respect to recent gambling scandals, the Conference urges the editors of these papers to further discountenance the terrible vice they condemn by excluding from their columns these records of the betting market, which are a direct and powerful incentive to gambling. The Conference is further of opinion that nothing will fully meet the urgency of the case but legislation which will make the publication of a betting list illegal in any newspaper.

2. The Conference expresses its strong disapproval of raising money for any Methodist purpose by any means in which the element of gambling is involved.

CENTRAL CHURCH-PREMISES IN LONDON.—In the opinion of the Conference it would be greatly to the advantage of the general interests of the Methodist Church, as well as of the various Connexional Departments, that, at as early a date as possible, Central Church-Premises should be erected in London.

ENLARGEMENT OF DISTRICT COMMITTEES.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee on Lay Representation.

2. The Conference resolves:—

(i) In addition to the Circuit Stewards, who represent especially the financial interests of the Circuit, each Circuit shall send to the District Committee either one or two gentlemen to be elected by the Quarterly Meeting as suitable on general grounds to take part in the counsels of the District Meeting.

(ii) The plan of enlargement shall be based upon the number of Ministers in Circuit work stationed in each Circuit.

(iii) Circuits employing one or two Ministers shall elect one Representative to the District Meeting; Circuits with three or more Ministers shall elect two Representatives.

(iv) The election of District Representatives to the Conference shall be conducted on the same principle as heretofore.

(v) Circuit Stewards, who are also members of District Sub-Committees, shall be not at liberty to decline to attend the District Meeting as Stewards, and then claim the right to sit and vote as Members of such Sub-Committees.

SUGGESTIONS TO CONFERENCE FROM DISTRICT MEETINGS.—The Conference directs that a copy of any suggestion from a District Meeting to the Conference, which relates to any Connexional Department, shall be sent, immediately after the District Meeting, to the Secretary of the Department concerned.

3. The Conference re-appoints the Committee, with instructions to complete the work. (See Minutes 1890, p. 304.)

4. The Rev. Allen Rees is appointed an additional Secretary to the Centenary Fund.

MERCANTILE MARINE.—The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, and refers it to a Committee which shall consist of the members of the Seamen's Mission Committee together with an equal number to be appointed by the Committee of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, with instructions to report next year.

The Rev. Peter Thompson is the Convener.

BRISTOL AND BATH DISTRICTS.—The following are appointed a Committee to consider and report upon the union of the Bristol and Bath Districts:—The Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, D.D., Secretary of the Conference; Seth Dixon (B), George Fletcher, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., Henry J. Pope, Dr. Rigg; Messrs. John Barnsley, Percy W. Bunting, M.A., J. Vanner Early, George Lidgett, B.A., George W. Munt, R. Pearson Price; together with three ministers and three laymen from each of the two Districts concerned, who shall be elected by the September District Meetings.

„ Dr. Jenkins,	„ Samuel D. Waddy, Q.C., M.P. ;

and the Secretaries, Revs. John Bond, Thomas E. Westerdale, and Mr. William Craze.

THE LEADERS' MEETING.

The Conference received certain Suggestions from District Meetings, and Memorials from Circuits, on the subject of the enlargement of the Leaders' Meeting, by the admission thereto of Sunday-School Superintendents, Local-Preachers, Chapel Stewards, and others. In regard to these, after full consideration and report by Committees, both in the Pastoral and Representative Sessions, the Conference adopted the following Minute :—

> The Suggestions and Memorials open a question of exceedingly great importance, affecting the fundamental principles of Methodism, in respect of its spiritual character and aspects.
> The proposals contained in these Suggestions and Memorials appear to tend directly toward the transformation of the Leaders' Meeting from that which it has been from the beginning into a miscellaneous gathering, which, for each Society, would answer to the character of a General Purposes Committee. It was laid down by the Conference in 1889 that 'the Leaders' Meeting represents and embodies in a peculiar way pastoral care, because the Leaders may be described as Sub-Pastors, and are links between the members and the Ministers.' The ideal character of the Leaders' Meeting was described as being that of 'the spiritual centre of the Society.' It was said that 'its purpose is to enable the Ministers, with the help of the Leaders, to guard and promote the spiritual well-being of the Societies.' The Leaders' Meeting, also, as is recognised in the same cardinal utterance of the Conference, is the 'Court of Discipline' for the Society. And the relation of this spiritual and disciplinary assembly of the local Society or Church to all the spiritual life of the Church is further pointed out in the same Minute with great distinctness and fulness. (Minutes, 1889, Appendix XI.)

The Conference regards the question of increasing the efficiency and importance of the Leaders' Meeting as one which, at the present time, demands the most serious attention of the Ministers in their Circuits, as a practical question of administration.

But the Conference cannot adopt any such change as is proposed in the constitution of the Leaders' Meeting; but it strongly insists upon the necessity of so working the Leaders' Meeting as to make it in reality what it is intended to be,—the Pastoral Council of the Society. In order to do this, the Conference urges the necessity of appointing new Leaders, and especially young Leaders of both sexes, and also of holding the Leaders' Meeting as often as possible for the purpose of close and systematic Pastoral oversight.

For the purpose of representing, when necessary, the general interests of the Society in regard to any special purpose or object that needs to be dealt with, combined meetings of the Leaders' Meeting with the Trustees, the Sunday-School Committee, or any other local body connected with the Society, might be held occasionally.

But to incorporate with the Leaders' Meeting the Local-Preachers, Sunday-School Superintendents, Chapel Stewards, or other persons suggested by some of the Memorials would, in the judgment of the Conference, be to transform the Leaders' Meeting into a miscellaneous gathering, to which the proper functions of the Leaders' Meeting, whether as a Pastoral Council or as the Court of Discipline, could no longer belong.

TERM OF MINISTERIAL APPOINTMENT TO A CIRCUIT.

1. In view of the great and numerous advantages which would sometimes arise from an extension of the term of Ministerial appointment to a Circuit, and also of the fact that eighteen Districts have already adopted memorials in favour of that change, the Conference appoints a special Committee: first, to consider the desirability of securing, by Act of Parliament, liberty of action for the Conference; and second, to suggest an equitable and effective way of submitting this proposal to the judgment of our people. The Committee shall report its conclusions to both Sessions of the next Conference.

2. The following is the Committee:—The Rev. T. Bowman Stephenson, D.D., LL.D., President of the Conference; David J. Waller, D.D., Secretary of the Conference; William F. Moulton, D.D., Ex-President; Thomas Allen, Dr. Bowden, R. Wallis Boyns, Joseph Bush, J. Ernest Clapham, Thomas Cross, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., J. Samuel Jones, Henry J. Pope, Dr. Rigg, Enoch Salt, John J. Sargent, John S. Simon, Dr. Young; Messrs. W. Shepherd Allen, M.A., Joseph Beckett, Christopher Bone, John Cooper, Charles B. Davidson, W. Howell Davies, J. Vanner Early, William Hunt, Peter Jones, Robert W. Perks, W. Oliver Quibell, John R. Redman, George J. Smith; together with Revs. J. Woods Ballard, Oliver

M'Cutcheon, Dr. M'Mullen, and Messrs. George Chambers, Robert Clarke, and William Greenhill, being the members appointed by the Irish Conference to act in conjunction with the British Conference in this matter.

The Rev. Henry J. Pope is the Convener.

REPRESENTATIVES TO CONFERENCE.

The Conference resolves that in the event of any Minister or Layman elected to attend the Conference in its Representative Session being unable to fulfil the appointment, he shall intimate the fact to the Chairman of the District not less than fourteen days before the opening of the Conference, and his place shall then be taken by the person who received the highest number of votes next to those elected.

MEMORIALS TO CONFERENCE.

The Conference resolves to simplify the mode in which June Circuit Quarterly Meetings may memorialize the Conference, by providing that in future the Chairman of any such Meeting shall forthwith sign the Memorial which has been adopted by a vote of the majority; but shall, at the same time, add a foot-note stating the number of persons present, and the number voting for and against the Memorial, respectively.

Consent' Bill, but hopes that erelong the way may be clear for a further extension of the age from twelve to fourteen.

3. The Committee is directed especially to watch the administration of the Cantonment Acts in connection with our military centres in India.

4. The Conference rejoices in the general sympathy expressed by the District Meetings in the work of the Social Purity Committee, and directs the Committee carefully to watch all movements calculated to foster immorality, and to assist, so far as it may deem prudent, every movement the object of which is to promote purity of thought and conduct, both in Church and national life. At the same time, remembering the close association of intemperance and impurity, it directs the Secretary of the Temperance Committee to seek, so far as may be advisable, the establishment of White Cross Associations in connection with Bands of Hope.

The Conference also desires to express its hearty approval of the efforts of the Rev. Dr. Moulton to secure the co-operation of the heads of our private and public Schools in this good work.

5. The Conference declares its adhesion to the principle that the responsible representatives of the nation ought to be men of unstained character, and earnestly protests against the intrusion into public life of men who have been proved in open Court to be guilty of flagrant immorality.

6. The Conference authorizes the Social Purity Committee to appoint Representatives of the Conference at any General Council of Christian Churches which may be held during the year in the interests of social purity.

SECTION V.

STANDING ORDERS.

PART I.

Regulations Concerning Supplies and Students.

Minutes of Conference, 1812, 1857, 1876, 1879, 1885, 1887, 1888, 1889.

1. Any Minister needing a Supply is directed to communicate with the Chairman of the District before applying to the President; and the Chairman is also directed to satisfy himself, by personal inquiry, that an efficient local Supply cannot be obtained.

2. Any Minister on whose behalf a Supply has been appointed shall retain the Supply for one month after he has given notice to the President that his services will no longer be required,—unless the President has employment for him sooner. And such Minister when he gives notice to the President that, after a given date, the services of the Supply will be no longer required, shall, at the same time, notify the fact to the Chairman of the District.

3. The Retiring President shall furnish to the Conference, on the second day of its Session, a list of all Ministers who have had Supplies during any part of the preceding year, with the date in each case on which the Supply was sent, and withdrawn. And on receiving this list, the Conference shall appoint a Committee to inquire whether these Ministers are physically competent to take a Circuit.

4. The Retiring President shall furnish to the Committee of Transfers a Report, as to health and fitness for our work, of those Probationers who had been, during the year, on his List of Reserve; the Committee to report to the Conference.

5. Except in special cases, the President's List of Reserve shall consist of men who have been trained in the Theological Institution.

6. Every Student who has completed his term of three years in the Theological Institution, and is duly certified by the Discipline Committee, shall be regarded as commencing his Probation at the Conference next ensuing.

If he receives an appointment at the Conference, or is called out by the President as a Supply before Christmas, he shall be entitled, after Ordination, to the usual allowances of an Ordained Minister.

But if not so appointed or called out, or if he shall be specially recommended to return to the Institution for a fourth year's course of study, he shall, in the year immediately following his Ordination, be entitled only to the allowances of an unmarried Minister. This resolution does not carry any disabilities with regard to other Funds than the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund.

Those Candidates for the Ministry who have taken a Degree in any one of the Universities of the United Kingdom, shall not, of necessity, spend the full term of three years in the Theological Institution; but, on the recommendation of the Staff of the Branch, the term of their residence may be shortened. And, in such case, their Probation shall also, on the above conditions, commence at the Conference next ensuing.

7. Every Preacher sent by the President as a Supply shall be paid at the rate of Thirty Guineas a year, for the time he is in the Circuit; this allowance being in addition to Board and Lodging.

In regard to Travelling Expenses, a Preacher sent to a Circuit as a Supply is dealt with on the same principle as one who is appointed by the Conference to his first Circuit. Once arrived in a Circuit as a Supply, he receives his travelling expenses from that Circuit to another when removed by the President during the year, or by the Conference at the end of the year.

8. In respect of payment, the year of a trained man on the President's List of Reserve appointed in connection with, or immediately after, the Conference, shall reckon from the first day of September to the last day of August.

9. Students who have not completed their term at the Institution, but are called out to meet special emergencies, shall, when their services are no longer required by the President, return to the Institution and complete their term.

10. Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and were not called out during their third year by the President, and have not received appointments at the Conference, shall, if no other course be open to them, return to the Institution, and there await the call of the President.

11. Students who have completed their term at the Institution, but were called out during the previous year by the President, yet have not received appointments at the Conference, are under the care and at the cost of the Home-Mission Committee.

12. Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and have been sent by the President as Supplies, shall, when their services are no longer required, be placed by the President under the direction of the Home-Mission Committee, which shall be responsible for their maintenance; the Committee shall, however, be entitled to a week's notice from the President before any such Student receives another appointment.

13. The employment of Students as Supplies, otherwise than by the President, during their vacation, shall continue as heretofore to be matter of private arrangement, in regard to which neither the President nor the Home-Mission Committee shall have responsibility; except in those special cases in which the Home-Mission Committee may grant Supplies, for short periods, to Chairmen of Districts.

PART II.

1. District Meetings, 1892.—The Annual Meetings of the several District Committees shall be held between the 15th and 22nd of May, with the exception of those of the North Wales, South Wales, Lincoln, Isle of Man, Edinburgh and Aberdeen, and Zetland Districts.

2. Isle of Man District.—It shall be a part of the business of the Financial District Meeting of the Isle of Man District to call the attention of Superintendents, and other Ministers who may be responsible, to the Regulations as to the duty of making certain Quarterly Returns to the Registrar-General of the Island, according to the provisions of the 'Dissenters' Marriage Act Amendment Act, 1885,' of the Isle of Man.

3. Names and Addresses of Circuit Stewards.—The Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman of the District with the names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting; and, immediately after the March Quarterly Meeting with the name and address of any Gentleman elected to attend the May District Meeting in the place of any Circuit Steward declaring his inability to attend such District Meeting.

4. Admission of Members.—Rule of 1797. It is not intended that the names of all those who are on trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely, that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on trial, such objection may be stated by him; and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to such person at the Quarterly Visitation.

5. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit Town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation.

Trial of Trustees.—If the accused person is a Trustee, then there shall also be associated with the Leaders' Meeting, as above constituted, the Trustees of the Chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected; or, if there is no such Chapel, then the Trustees of the Chapel in connection with the principal Society in the Circuit Town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated, unless he is himself a Member of the Society in the same Circuit.

6. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—All the Ministers and Preachers on Trial appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders' Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed.

7. Probationers and the Lord's Supper.—The Conference resolves that, in compliance with a former injunction on this subject, the Superintendents be required to make the necessary arrangements, in their Circuit-Plans, for securing to their junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of this Holy Sacrament.

8. Resolutions on Pastoral Work.—The Conference directs that the 'Resolutions,' as far as the words 'counted for a forest,' be read in the stead of the 'Liverpool Minutes' at each Annual District Meeting, and at the Ministers' Meeting of each Circuit in September. And the Chairmen of Districts are directed to make inquiry concerning the due observance of this regulation. (Minutes, 1885, pp. 356-366.)

The Conference further resolves that a copy of the 'Resolutions on Pastoral Work' be presented, under the direction of the Chairman of each District, to every Preacher on Trial on his first appointment to a Circuit. (Minutes, 1885, p. 183.)

9. Reading of the Pastoral Address.—The Superintendents are directed to appoint special Society Meetings, to be held at the principal Chapels in their Circuits, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations.

10. Recognition of New Members.—The public and formal Recognition of New Members of Society is in accordance with early Methodist usage. A public welcome given by the Society tends to encourage the New Members, whilst the formal recognition will deepen their sense of responsibility.

Such recognition might be associated with the administration of the Lord's Supper; or it might be found expedient to recognise New Members at a Society-meeting after the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes; or, in villages, a Recognition Service might take the place of a week-evening service.

The Conference, therefore, directs that, from time to time, meetings for the Recognition of New Members be held, as far as practicable, in every Circuit, subject to the discretion of the Superintendent as to the frequency and exact nature of such meetings.

11. Annual Return of Members.—The number of Members in the Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported at the District Meetings, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference. These Returns of Members in the Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May District Meetings, to the Rev. John W. Greeves, Wesleyan Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, London, E.C.

12. Sunday-School Official Meetings.—The Superintendent Minister of the Circuit shall preside at the Annual Meeting (of the Committee and Subscribers); and also at all Meetings of the Committee, and at all Meetings of the Teachers. If at any one of the said Meetings the Superintendent Minister be not present, one of the other Ministers of the Circuit shall preside. If either at an Annual Meeting, or at a Meeting of the Committee, no Minister is present, the Meeting shall appoint one of the Officers of the Institution to act as Chairman. If at any Teachers' Meeting no Minister is present, one of the Superintendents of the School shall preside.

13. Sunday-School Statistics.—With a view to securing more correct returns from Sunday-Schools, it is an instruction to the Secretary or Secretaries of each School that, wherever practicable, the Schedule of Returns be submitted to the Local Committee before such Returns are presented to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

14. Catechetical Instruction in Sunday-Schools.—The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday-Schools by means of catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our Catechisms.

15. Examination of Pupil-Teachers.—The Conference directs that the Annual Examination of Pupil-Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday in October and on the first Saturday in March; that the questions shall be prepared by the General Committee; that the Examination shall be held, either in the several Circuits by the Superintendent Ministers or their Colleagues, or at suitable places for Central District Examinations, as may be determined by the September District Meetings, and agreed to by the respective School Committees; and that the written answers shall be forwarded to the General Secretary, and shall be valued by a Central Board of Examiners to be elected by the General Committee.

The Conference further recommends that, in connection with Central Examinations, Meetings of Teachers and Pupil-Teachers be held under the direction of the Chairman of the District and the District Educational Secretary.

16. Quarterly Fast-Days.—The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by Rule, is to be observed throughout the Connexion, for the following year, are, Fridays, September 18th, and December 18th, 1891; March 18th, and June 17th, 1892.

17. The Ballot in Quarterly Meetings, etc.—The Conference declares that the practice of voting by Ballot in the administration of Methodism in our Circuits, is contrary to long-established usage, and that its adoption would in various ways be injurious to the interests of our Societies. (Minutes, 1884, p. 191.)

18. Discipline of Methodism.—The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular inquiries at their Annual Meetings in reference to the several points of Discipline specified in the first Section of the Answer to Question XXVIII. in the Minutes of 1825.

19. Interchanges of Ministers.—The expenses of interchanges between Ministers residing in various Circuits, appointed by the Conference, shall in no case fall upon the Ministers themselves, but shall be provided by the Circuits concerned, under the direction of the District Meeting. (Minutes, 1878, p. 252.)

20. Political Meetings in Wesleyan-Methodist Trust Premises.—Having regard to the fact that a desire has been expressed in some places to use our Trust Property for the purpose of Political Meetings, the Conference declares that such uses are not contemplated by the provisions of any of our Trust Deeds; and it reminds Superintendents and Trustees that our Trust Properties can only be lawfully used for the purposes provided for in the Trust Deeds.

The Conference further expresses the conviction that any such use of the Premises as that suggested would be detrimental to the best interests of our Societies by endangering their peace and unity.

21. Candidates for Admission on Trial.—(1) Those Preachers who are recommended for Admission on Trial shall, at or before the time of the Annual District Meeting, preach in the presence of, at least, three of the Ministers of the District Committee, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidates respectively are proposed; and a special report of the Sermons shall be made in the District Meeting, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates.

(2) Arrangements shall be made by the May District Meetings for the hearing of each Candidate by two Ministers of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the District Committee; and such Ministers shall immediately forward their Report to the Rev. Peter Thompson, 242, Cable Street, London, E.

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript. (Minutes, 1889, p. 193.)

22. System of Marking in Examinations.—The Conference resolves:—(1) that in future, in valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 be adopted: number 1 being the highest value and 7 the lowest; (2) that the seven grades from 1 to 7 shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very poor. Also, that the marks 1, 2, 3, denote three grades of an Honours' Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; 'average' quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair).

23. Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts.—1. Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English, and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the general work. 2. Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution.

24. Probation of University Graduates.—Candidates for the Ministry, who have obtained a Degree in any University of the United Kingdom, shall, on passing a satisfactory Examination in Theology, have the special consideration of the Conference in regard to the term of their Probation. (Minutes, 1886, p. 203.)

25. Preachers on Trial and Mr. Wesley's Works.—Those Preachers on Trial who do not already possess Mr. Wesley's Works, are required to procure them during the period of their Probation; and shall be allowed to pay for them to our Book-Steward by such instalments as may best suit their convenience. (Minutes, 1882, p. 224.)

26. Preachers on Trial and the District Meeting.—Whenever it shall be found to be practicable, Preachers on Trial shall preach during the District Meetings.

27. Candidates for Ordination.—The Conference directs that Candidates for Ordination shall, at or before the May District Meeting, preach before three Ministers of the District, who shall report, in writing, to the Meeting.

28. Army and Navy Work.—(1) The Chairmen and Superintendents of our Foreign Mission Districts where there are Garrison and Naval Ports, are instructed to make such arrangements with the Naval and Military authorities as may be necessary for the benefit of Wesleyan Soldiers and Seamen, in concert with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee.

(2) Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes.—The Conference directs that, in addition to the Connexional sanction already required by our Rules before any property can be acquired for Methodist purposes, any Ministers or other persons connected with our Societies contemplating the erection or acquisition of a Soldiers' or Sailors' Home shall communicate with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee; and no binding arrangements shall be entered into until the written consent of the Home-Mission Committee and of the Foreign Missionary Committee respectively shall have been received.

(3) All Ministers working for the benefit of Soldiers and Sailors in Stations where Wesleyan Homes already exist, or shall be established, shall include in their quarterly reports an account of the work done in the Homes; and at the Annual District Meetings in May the financial condition of such Homes shall be reported, as in the case of other Trust properties.

(4) The following information shall be presented from each of our Military and Naval Stations to the District Committees at their Annual Meeting in May; together with a Report of the work done for the benefit of our Soldiers and Sailors:

(i.) The number of declared Wesleyans in the Army and Royal Navy, including the Coastguard, taken for the 31st of December in each year.

(ii.) The number of Members of the Society in the Army and Royal Navy, including the wives and children of Soldiers and Seamen.

(iii.) The average attendance at Divine Service during the year.

(iv.) The amount of capitation and other official payments for the year.

In the case of Home Stations, these Reports and Returns shall be submitted to the District Home-Mission Sub-Committee, who shall present them, with any needful remarks thereupon, to the District Committee.

(5) Ministers who are appointed to Army and Navy Work are not to be considered as Ministers of the Circuit where they may be stationed, so as to be claimed for Circuit work, unless special arrangements be made in any case with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. After their proper work has been efficiently done, they may give such help to the Circuit as they may be enabled to do, but only on arrangement in writing between the Superintendent of the Circuit and the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. Their personal conduct is to be under the cognizance of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the District Meeting, with the before-mentioned conditions.

(6) Wherever capitation payments are received on behalf of our Wesleyan Soldiers and Seamen, the pastoral duties which are entailed thereby shall be strictly fulfilled, and every facility and encouragement given to the men, their wives and families, to become attached to the services of the chapels in which by these payments they are now seat-holders.

29. Home-Missionary Ministers.—The Conference directs that a special inquiry shall be made at the May District Meetings, whether the Regulations for the employment of Home-Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home-Missionary Ministers are appointed; and that a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference.

30. Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations.—In the case of Circuits which are not in a position to ask for the appointment of a Home-Missionary Minister, and to give the pledge required, but which feel the necessity of adopting some plan of Home-Missionary operations, the subjoined allocation is allowed:—One-third of the sums received to be paid to the Funds of the Foreign Missionary Society, it being expressly understood that in every case the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas Offerings, on the average of several preceding years; one-third to the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund; one-third to the Circuit, to be expended in support of local movements of a directly Home-Missionary character, under the direction of the Superintendent, and of a Committee to be appointed at the December Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1863, Vol. XV., p. 528; and 1877, Vol. XX., p. 398.)

31. Circulars to Lay Members of District Committees.—The Chairmen of Districts shall send a Circular to the Lay Members of the District Committee, requesting their attendance on the Wednesday, and, if necessary, on the Thursday, in the week of the Annual District Meeting; specifying the business that will be brought forward, and particularly mentioning any subject that may have been specially remitted by the Conference to the consideration of such Meeting.

A similar Circular shall be prepared and sent with reference to the Financial District Meeting.

32. Election of Representative to the Stationing Committee.—The Minister who shall be the Representative of any District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen by the united votes of the Ministers and Laymen who are members of the District Committee.

33. Election of Ministers to attend the Conference in its Representative Session.—1. The election shall be made by ballot after nomination from among the whole number of Ministers in any District who desire to attend the Conference. 2. The Ministers so elected shall have permission to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session. 3. The Ministers necessary to complete the number permitted to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session shall then be elected. 4. In the event of any Minister elected to attend the Conference in its Representative Session offering to 'provide for himself,' his election shall not thereby be rendered void. (Minutes, 1886, p. 199.)

34. Division of Circuits.—Before a District Committee consents to the division of any Circuit, inquiry must be made whether due attention has been paid to satisfactory arrangements for the Trust-Estates affected by the proposed division, especially in reference to any debts existing thereon.

For Regulations as to Division of Circuits, see Minutes, 1886, pp. 270-273.

35. Boundaries of Circuits.—Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the boundaries of Circuits, the Conference directs that, in future, the boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall be fully stated in the Minutes of the District Meeting to which they belong, and that the Secretary of the District shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and that, in such cases, copies of the Ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned, be coloured, so as to show the boundaries, and deposited in the Safes provided for the custody of the Trust-Deeds of the Circuits.

The Conference further directs that these arrangements be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits.

36. Minor District Meetings.—In all cases in which the holding of a Minor District Meeting is rendered necessary, except under the Regulation of 1840, such Meeting shall be held in the District in which the accused party resides; the accused and the accuser selecting respectively two Ministers from the said District, who, with the Chairman thereof, shall constitute the Minor District Meeting.

Should either party refuse or decline to choose two Ministers, to act as members of the Meeting, the Chairman is empowered and directed to nominate them, so that the number required by Rule may be made up. (Minutes, 1840, Vol. IX., p. 94.)

37. District Minutes.—The Chairmen of Districts are required to procure two complete copies of the Minutes of the several Annual and other Meetings of the District Committees, transcribed according to the order of time in which such Meetings shall have been held, and duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary.

One of these copies shall be inserted in the District Records; the other shall be sent to the REV. MARSHALL HARTLEY, Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, E.C., not later than June 20th, and delivered by him to the President on the first day of the Conference, to be preserved under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion.

The copies of the latter class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

The District Secretary is required to furnish the Chairman with such extracts from the District Minutes as he will need at the Conference.

88. Custody of Connexional Documents.—In addition to the Journals and Daily Records of the Conference, and the Minutes of the several District Committees, the following Documents shall also be preserved:—The printed Agenda of the Conference; the Minutes of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions from year to year, with the Documents laid before that Committee, and the Resolutions of the Conference thereon; the Reports of any special Committees or Commissions appointed by the Conference; any legal opinion obtained from time to time by the direction of the Conference; and a Record of all Legacies and Funds left to the Connexion, of the place where the Trust Deeds are deposited, with the names of the Trustees, and the provisions (if any) for the renewal of the Trust; and when the Legacies have been finally disposed of, the Minute Books of the Trustees, showing the arrangements made; with any other Documents the safe custody of which the Conference may hereafter direct. (Minutes, 1882, pp. 287-8.)

39. Schedules from Departments.—As it is obviously desirable that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several Departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Session, should be furnished with as much statistical information as possible on the matters of business severally confided to their care,—the Conference authorises them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up.

40. Designations and Nominations for Appointment to Departmental Offices.—Twelve months before the end of any term of Departmental Office, the Committee in charge of the Department shall submit to the Representative Session of the Conference the names of three Ministers in nomination for that office; of whom the Officer for the time being may, or may not, be one. The Pastoral Session of the Conference shall designate one of these three for appointment. A similar course shall be pursued in cases of emergency arising before the Conference, which involve immediate appointment. In case of an emergency arising after the close of the Representative Session, the Pastoral Session shall have the right to appoint without a previous nomination. (Minutes, 1886, p. 204; 1890, p. 423.)

41. Elections to Departmental Offices.—In any new appointment to a Departmental Office, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second ballot shall be taken on the first two—or, if necessary, the first three—names on the list which have the largest number of votes. (Minutes, 1888, p. 188.)

42. Election of Chairmen of Districts.—In the appointment of Chairmen, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast, and according to the Standing Order relating to Elections to Departmental Offices. (Minutes, 1886, pp. 205, 295.)

43. Committee on Appeals, and other Cases.—At each Conference, the President shall nominate, not later than the second day, a Committee of twenty-one members of the Conference, to whom shall be referred, without discussion, all cases requiring further enquiry touching the character of Ministers or Preachers on Trial, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Committees thereupon; or of any notice of charge or appeal relating thereto; or for any reason which the Conference may deem sufficient.

Any complainant or appellant, or any person under inquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case; and the President shall then appoint some other member of the Conference to act instead of the member so objected to.

Special Cases to be decided upon by the Conference may be referred to the whole Committee; but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a Convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee. (Minutes, 1873, Vol. XIX., p. 202.)

44. Ministerial Members of Connexional Committees. — No Minister, who is not an Officer of a Departmental Committee, shall remain upon that Committee as a Member more than six consecutive years, unless he shall have been nominated for a further appointment thereon by the vote of four-fifths of the Members of the Committee present. (Minutes, 1882, p. 383.)

45. Lay Members of Connexional Committees.—A certain number of Lay Gentlemen, being at least one-sixth of the number of Lay Members of each Departmental Committee, shall annually retire from each Committee by rotation; the same persons being ineligible for immediate re-appointment, except in special cases, and after nomination for such re-appointment by the vote of four-fifths of the Members of the Committee present. (Minutes, 1882, p. 383.)

46. Preparations for the Stationing Committee.—The Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than the 27th day of June in each year, upon a Schedule to be provided by him, complete lists of

(1) The invitations accepted by Ministers in his District;

(2) The arrangements provisionally made for the appointment of Ministers; and

(3) All Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made.

Also, a list of all Ministers to be transferred from the Foreign to the Home Stations shall, at the same time, be furnished by the Missionary Secretaries to the Secretary of the Conference.

From these lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, a Preliminary Draft of Stations embodying all arrangements thus provisionally made; and also a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made; and a copy of these shall be furnished to each Member of the Stationing Committee, in London, on the Monday before the meeting of that Committee.

47. Regulations concerning the Stationing Committee.

(1) The Stationing Committee shall, from year to year, hold its first Session in London.

(2) The appointments made shall not, as heretofore, be printed day by day.

(3) The Stations shall be printed in the Conference Town.

(4) The First Draft of Stations shall be an absolutely confidential document until the Representatives' Copies are ready for the post.

Should any Minister be officially reported as under discipline and suspended until the Conference, his name shall not appear on the First Draft of Stations.

(5) All Students who are leaving the Institution, and are eligible for appointment shall be entitled to a copy of the First and Final Draft of Stations.

(6) Each Representative shall send to the Secretary of the 'Conference Arrangements Committee' two sets of Addressed Wrappers, for the First and Final Draft, for the Ministers and Circuit Stewards in his District, and for Six other Laymen—

Members of the District Committee; the cost of which shall be refunded by the 'Conference Arrangements Committee.'

48. Extra Sitting of the Stationing Committee.—After the second reading of the Stations, the Committee shall, when it is deemed expedient, retire for the further consideration of the Stations.

49. The Ex-President and the Stationing Committee.—The retiring President shall be, ex-officio, a Member of the Stationing Committee during the sittings of Conference.

50. Supplies in relation to Circuit Appointments.—A Probationer sent by the President, before Christmas, as a Supply, is not thereby disqualified for appointment for a third year to the Circuit where he served as a Supply. (Minutes, 1887, pp. 193-4.)

51. Numbering of Circuits and Stations.—1. Except those in which no Minister's House is provided, all Stations appearing in the Minutes shall be numbered. 2. The Minister appointed to any Station without a number is the Superintendent, and is therefore entitled to preside in the Quarterly Meetings and in the Trustees' Meetings; but he shall, as heretofore, act under the direction of the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1886, p. 204.)

52. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may, from year to year, assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, complete and print, not later than the 15th day of June in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels during the Session of the Conference; and shall also, on or before the above date, send to every person whom they have appointed to preach in those chapels, a copy of the Conference Plan.

Every Minister so appointed is responsible to the Conference for the fulfilment of his appointment.

53. Two Conference Sessions Daily.—With a view to facilitating the despatch of the Conference business, there shall be two Sessions daily.

54. Open Session of Conference.—An Open Session for the reception of Representatives from other Conferences shall be held on the evening of the first day of the Representative Session.

55. Rotation of the Conference.—The Conference rescinds the Rule of 1873 (Minutes, Vol. XIX., pp. 196-7), which directs that the Conference shall hold its Sessions in London more frequently than in any other city or town. (Minutes, 1887, p. 193.)

56. Question VII.—In response to the inquiry in the Conference: 'Is there any objection to any Minister, or Preacher on Trial?' the names of the Districts only shall be called, and the Chairman of each District shall then give the required information. The right to challenge any name, or bring a charge against any Minister, shall not be affected by this regulation.

57. Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Churches—The Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Conferences and Churches shall apply in all particulars to married men who are accepted in the ordinary way as Candidates for the Ministry; and the payments required therein shall be made, and the privileges described therein shall begin to be enjoyed, in both cases, at the time of their admission into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Minutes, 1882, p. 289.)

58. Junior Ministers becoming Supernumeraries for One Year.—Ministers who have travelled not more than twenty-one years, and have lost their health, may be allowed to retire for one year. In addition to the Allowances payable from the Annuitant Society and the Connexional Funds, such Ministers may, if in necessitous circumstances, receive for that year a sum not exceeding £80; of which one-half shall be provided by the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, the other half being paid by the Auxiliary Fund. (Minutes, 1878, pp. 233, 4.)

Where a Minister, who becomes a Supernumerary for one year, is not a member of the Annuitant Society, the Conference directs that the Extra Grant from the Auxiliary Fund shall be less by the amount which would have been due to him from the Annuitant Society. (Minutes, 1887, p. 261.)

Each case shall be examined by a Mixed Committee of Seven Members, who shall be appointed by the Conference, namely: the Ex-President, three Ministers, and three Laymen.

Should the Conference deem it indispensable, the Grant may be allowed for a second year. (Minutes, 1878, p. 234.)

59. Temporary Supernumeraryship in Relation to the Legal Conference.—In the case of a member of the Legal Conference who has been a Supernumerary for one or more years, and who afterwards returns to the Work, he shall, notwithstanding, remain a member of the Legal Conference two years after becoming a Supernumerary permanently. (Minutes, 1890, p. 212.)

60. Ministers without Pastoral Charge.—(1) Any Minister wishing to maintain his ministerial status whilst holding no definite appointment to a Circuit or a Department, and without becoming a Supernumerary, shall apply for permission through the District Meeting to the Conference, which shall decide the case after a full examination of it by a Special Committee.

(2) Any such Minister shall continue to be in every way subject to our discipline, including the usual inquiries as to character and doctrine.

(3) No such Minister shall receive any payment from the Auxiliary Fund during, or on account of, the years in which he shall occupy the position herein described; and he shall pay the yearly assessments to the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children, on the same scale as Ministers appointed to Departments; and he shall then continue to receive the benefit of those Funds in the ordinary course.

(4) The name of every such Minister shall stand upon the Minutes in connection with some Circuit, and following his name shall be these words: 'Resides in this Circuit without Pastoral charge.' Nevertheless, he shall not, as a Minister, be a member of the Quarterly Meeting, or of any Leaders' Meeting in the Circuit. (Minutes, 1888, p. 215).

(5) In the case of a Member of the Legal Conference having been entered on the Minutes as without Pastoral charge, in conformity with the Resolutions of the Conference of 1888, the Conference resolves that, at the expiration of four years from the commencement of such an arrangement, he shall cease to be a member of the Legal Conference.

The effect of this Resolution shall not be retrospective. (Minutes, 1890, p. 212.)

61. Supernumeraries or other Ministers Resident Abroad.—(1) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall have such permission annually renewed.

(2) If any Minister remain abroad for more than one year he shall be required either to make arrangements with the officers of our Connexional Funds, with a view to retiring from the English Work, or to furnish the Conference annually with a satisfactory report from some other Methodist Conference, in recognized relation with this Conference.

(3) A list of all such Ministers shall be annually printed in the Minutes of Conference at the end of the Stations.

62. Obituaries of Ministers of Affiliated Conferences.—On the decease of any Minister of an Affiliated Conference, who has a right of return to this country, an obituary shall be inserted in the Minutes of the Yearly Conference. (Minutes, 1890, p. 211.)

63. Weekly Meetings of Ministers.—How may the union of Brethren who labour together in the same Circuit be more effectually promoted? We advise them to meet together once a week, or as often as it is practicable, in order to converse freely with each other respecting the affairs of their Circuits. (Minutes, 1806, Vol. II., p. 348.)

64. Monthly Meetings of Ministers in Large Towns.—The Preachers of different Circuits, when resident in the same Town, are advised to meet at least once in every month, for the purposes of mutual conference and prayer; in order to promote brotherly love, and to afford frequent and regular opportunities for friendly consultation on subjects of common concern in their respective Circuits. (Minutes, 1827, Vol. VI., p. 281.)

65. Appointment of Ministers to Circuits in the same Town.—The Conference rescinds the following Rule of 1830:—

'Where there are, in the same City or Town, two or more Circuits, no Preacher shall be so stationed in them as to remain in such Town or City for a period exceeding six years in succession.' (Minutes, 1890, p. 305.)

66. Re-appointment of Ministers to Circuits.—The term during which a Minister must be absent from a Circuit in England or Wales, before he can be re-appointed, shall be three years. (Minutes, 1889, p. 304.) The Conference adopts this Resolution, provided that the invitation of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting is substantially unanimous. (Minutes, 1890, p. 207.)

In relation to Scotland, a similar resolution was adopted in 1866. (Minutes, 1866, Vol. XVI., p. 589.)

67. Connexional Committees.—The Conference directs that all Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall, as far as possible, be printed in the Agenda for the Conference; the names of new members being printed in Italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment, by a four-fifths majority, being distinguished by an asterisk; care being taken to give the Christian name and address of each Layman. (Minutes, 1890, p. 292.)

68. New Members of Connexional Committees.—The Secretaries of Departments shall inform all new Members, Laymen and Ministers, of their appointment upon Connexional Committees. (Minutes, 1890, p. 292.)

69. London Mission.—The Number of Members at each Place in the Mission, with the amounts received as Ordinary Income, shall be printed, year by year, in the Agenda of the Conference. (Minutes, 1890, p. 262.)

70. Methodist Councils in Large Towns.—The Conference commends the consideration of this subject to the attention of Circuit Quarterly Meetings and Monthly Ministers' Meetings. (Minutes, 1890, p. 243.)

71. Grants towards Removal Expenses.—If any Minister be appointed by the Conference to a Circuit, after an Invitation sent by that Circuit to the Minister, every expense incurred by his Removal, beyond what the Circuit he is leaving may provide, shall be borne by his new Circuit. (Minutes, 1878, pp. 221-2.)

72. Auxiliary Fund.—Whilst anxious to secure separate and accurate returns of the amounts raised in the Classes, the Conference urges upon the Circuits the necessity of the average of Sixpence per Member being made up in each Circuit; and sanctions this being done in such a way as may be approved in the respective Circuits—provided that the Public Collections, usually made in July, be separately returned. (Minutes, 1890, pp. 265-6.)

73. Weekly Offertory System.—(1) The Conference recommends that in every Chapel in which the Offertory System has been introduced, as well as in all other Chapels, the Connexional Collections be made on Sundays set apart for the purpose, be duly announced beforehand, the objects and need of the Fund concerned distinctly stated, and an appeal made; and the whole sum so gathered strictly devoted to the stated purpose.

(2) The Conference recommends that where the aggregate results of the Weekly Offertory System show an increase of Circuit income (derived from the same sources) over that of years antecedent to the introduction of the System, the Connexional Funds, whether they have suffered or not, shall equitably share in such increased income; and that this object shall be secured by Offertories specially appropriated for this purpose, or otherwise.

(3) The Conference expresses its strong objection to the practice of allotting to the Connexional Funds any average sum; i.e., a proportion of the yearly receipts from the Offertory, calculated upon the average collections for a given Fund during a number of years preceding the introduction of the Offertory—in lieu of making Collections for each Fund according to rule. Such a practice is unfair to the several Funds, which are thus precluded from sharing in the general life and progress of the Circuit, and is further liable to the fatal objection that it shuts out all opportunity of bringing the various Funds and their claims before our Congregations.

(4) The Conference is of opinion that the Offertory System should not be adopted in any Chapel without the consent of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1889, pp. 286-7).

74. Financial Statement at June Quarterly Meeting.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting affords a most valuable opportunity for bringing the Connexional principle before the leading officials of our Circuit; and the Conference recommends that at each June Quarterly Meeting this should be done, and a Report made of the Circuit Contributions to each Connexional Fund during the year. (Minutes, 1889, p. 288.)

For list of Connexional Funds, see pp. 369-372.

75. Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings.—(1) Should a majority of the June Quarterly Meeting, in any Circuit, be of opinion that it is desirable to address to the Conference a Memorial on any Connexional subject, and agree to do so,—that Meeting itself, subject to the Regulations which follow, shall have authority to adopt and transmit to the Conference such a Memorial. And at such Meeting any Member thereof may propose, for consideration, the propriety of addressing a Memorial to the Conference.

(2) Not less than ten days previously to the June Quarterly Meeting, a copy in writing shall be given to the Superintendent, of the particular Motion or Resolution which any Member of the Quarterly Meeting intends to propose, as the basis of a Memorial to the Conference; and no proposal, of which such Notice has not been given, shall be brought forward that year.

But should the Quarterly Meeting adopt the substance or principle of a Resolution so brought forward, it may amend, as well as simply adopt or reject it.

(3) A Memorial, founded on such Motion or Resolution, if approved by a majority of the persons present, shall be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting; and he shall add a footnote, stating the number of persons present, and also the number voting for and against the Memorial.

(4) The Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits to forward to the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions, the Rev. Francis W. Greeves, 1, Oakleigh Villas, Mannamead, Plymouth, all Memorials from Quarterly Meetings ten days before the opening of Conference.

Nevertheless, the Conference will, as heretofore, receive Memorials up to and including the second day of its Session.

(5) All Memorials thus received by the Conference shall be referred to a Committee of its Members; who shall carefully examine, consider, and classify the whole, and present their Report thereon to the Conference.

(6) With regard to the Subjects of such Memorials, the Conference cannot entertain any proposals which are of a manifestly revolutionary character, or subversive of that system of Doctrine or Discipline which has been confided to it as a sacred deposit by Mr. Wesley; and which, as the Conference believes, has also been committed to its keeping by the Providence and Grace of God.

(7) Neither can the Conference sanction such Memorials as involve a direct interference on the part of one Circuit with the local affairs or proceedings of any other Circuit. (Minutes, 1852, pp. 111, 112.)

No Memorial can be received from the Quarterly Meeting of a Circuit, except in Manuscript. (Minutes, 1874, p. 454.)

The consideration and determination of all Questions raised by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject-matter thereof respectively. (Minutes, 1877, p. 424.)

CHURCH-MEMBERSHIP AND THE CLASS-MEETING.

The following is an abstract of the Recommendations of the Committee on Church-Membership, which were adopted by the Conference in 1889. (Minutes, 1889, pp. 408-413.)

Pastoral Responsibility.

No system can be more effective than the men who work it. If our knowledge of the flock of Christ is to be thorough, our returns of membership trustworthy, or our influence upon the Members powerful for good, there must be patient, minute and diligent attention to the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes. If a Minister speaks lightly of the Class-Meeting, or treats lightly the Quarterly Visitation; if he hurries through the Visitation, and, to save time, unduly crowds the Classes together; if, as there is reason to fear is sometimes done, he sends the Tickets to the Leader instead of meeting the Class himself, both our Leaders and Members will think lightly of the Class-Meeting, and treat it lightly too. Time and energy devoted to larger and more popular religious gatherings will not compensate for any neglect, even in villages, of conscientious care in the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes. In order to the improvement of the Class-Meeting, it is necessary that, amongst all our Ministers, the sense of Pastoral duty and responsibility be strengthened and deepened.

Withholding Tickets.

Exclusion from membership in the Class-Meeting involves, for the time being, excommunication from the visible Church; and this is the most serious and painful exercise of ecclesiastical discipline, to be undertaken only when necessity demands it, and under a sense of solemn responsibility.

In regard to the occasions which warrant the withholding of a Society-ticket, standards vary; and hence have arisen confusion and difficulty, and some injury to the Work of God. In the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes, Ministers should bear in mind these four points:

1. There is no Rule which requires a Minister to withhold a Ticket solely on the ground of irregular attendance at Class.

2. There is a Rule which requires that no Member shall be left without a Ticket until he has been visited by a Minister.

3. It is the duty of the Minister to see to it that the name of no person is removed from the Class-Book who has not been carefully visited, patiently borne with, faithfully exhorted, and earnestly entreated; or, for any other than grave moral and spiritual reasons, or decided and persistent disaffection.

4. Even in such cases, every person so excluded from the fellowship of the Church must have the opportunity, if he claims it, of having his case judicially decided at a Leaders' Meeting, according to the provisions of our Discipline.

Ministers forming Classes.

In many places, persons who would, in the first instance, shrink from joining any other Class, would willingly join one of which a Minister is the Leader. By means of such a Class, conducted with tact and judgment, many might be drawn within our closer fellowship, to their great profit, and to the advantage of Wesleyan-Methodism.

The Leaders' Meeting.

There is, just now, nothing more important than that the Leaders' Meeting should be restored to its former place of spiritual influence and religious power. It should be borne in mind that the Leaders' Meeting is not a mere instrument for collecting the contributions in the Classes, and administering relief to the poor. The supreme purpose of the Meeting is to enable the Ministers, with the help of the Leaders, to guard the purity and promote the spiritual well-being of the Societies.

The Leaders' Meeting should, therefore, be held regularly; and, in connection with the larger Societies, at least once a month. It is the duty of the Minister to examine the Class-Books, and to take note of any Members who, by reason of sickness, poverty or any other cause, need prompt and special visitation. Occasionally, the whole time of a Meeting might, with advantage, be given up to prayer and testimony, combined with brotherly conversation in reference to the special work of the Class-Leader.

In a word, the Leaders' Meeting should be made the spiritual centre of the Society, even as it is the Supreme Court. If this were done, not only would existing Leaders become more efficient, but a succession of competent Leaders would more easily be maintained.

New Leaders and New Classes.

In every large Society new Leaders should be appointed with reasonable frequency. Wherever there are feeble Classes, with a declining attendance, it is important to appoint new Leaders to create new Classes. In many a Circuit, increase comes from Classes newly-formed. If we have men and women of grace and gifts, vigour and enterprise, let us not pass them by because they are young. As a rule, our best Class-Leaders are they who were young when they entered upon the office; and many who, in middle life, refuse to become Leaders, would probably have accepted the appointment at an earlier age.

Counsels to Class-Leaders.

Whether they be young or old, our Leaders should be better instructed in the work they have undertaken. Many need to be told not only what to do, but what to leave undone. Let them not insist that every one shall, from the first, speak every week in the Class-Meeting. Some are young, others are timid; and many are more likely to begin to speak if they may choose the time. In dealing with men and women who are 'swift to hear, slow to speak,' we need much tact, skill and patience.

Leaders should be advised to hold a Prayer Meeting, say, once a month. It would also be well to read at the Class-Meeting a few verses of Holy Scripture, bearing upon some aspect of Christian duty or privilege, experience or practice. Leaders may be encouraged to introduce, occasionally, a Bible Reading, which should be used for the purpose of evoking conversation on Christian experience. But strict care must be taken that the Class-Meeting shall not become merely a Bible-Class. Let it never be forgotten that the proper business of the Class-Meeting is spiritual fellowship.

Leaders should be urged to mark the Class-Book at every Meeting; calling over each name on the Book, whether present or absent. A short and easy method of reducing the number of absentees is to call over the names week by week, and inquire the cause of absence. As a rule, our Leaders would do well to receive weekly the Contributions of the Members. When arrears of Contributions have been allowed to accumulate, our poor Members have serious discouragement placed in the way of their attendance at Class.

Above all, the Leader should be carefully instructed that he is not at liberty, of his own will, to drop one single name from his Class-Book. The name of every person to whom a Ticket or Note on Trial is given one quarter must be entered in the Book for the next quarter. Names are removed only after consultation between the Minister and the Leader.

In the Visitation of the Classes, the Minister should compare carefully the list of names which he finds in the Book with the list of the previous quarter. 'The number of the names' may correspond, whilst yet the names are not the same; one 'received from another Circuit' taking the place of one quietly dropped. The Minister is responsible for seeing to it that, neither through inadvertence, nor from any other cause, does any name disappear, between Quarterly Visitations, from the Class-Book.

Roll of Membership.

In order to lessen the present alarming loss of Members, especially through 'ceasing to meet,' it is necessary that, in every Society, there should be kept a Roll of Membership, showing the name and address of every fully accredited Member. The Roll should be corrected at least once a year, after the March Visitation of the Classes; and in the smaller Societies it might be revised quarterly. While the Superintendent is responsible for seeing that the Roll is duly kept, the actual revision from time to time might be done by a Colleague.

SECTION VI.

SPECIAL AND ANNUAL ADDRESSES.

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF THE

CONFERENCE TO THE METHODIST SOCIETIES.

DEAR BRETHREN,—

We greet you in the Name of the Lord. To each of you we say: 'The Lord bless thee, and keep thee: The Lord make His face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.'

During the year we have joined in celebrating the Centenary of the death of John Wesley. Once more we have thanked God for the gift of His servant. The recent celebration has shown that our grateful appreciation of Wesley's character and work is now shared by an innumerable company who do not belong to the Methodist Church. We have noted with pleasure the advance of the most influential newspapers towards a more accurate knowledge of Wesley's history, and a more perfect sympathy with his aims. The discriminating eulogies which have been written encourage us to hope that the time will come when the chief strength of English journalism will be directed against the evils which Wesley combated, and when it will be enlisted on the side of Christ against the indifference and the irreligion of the world.

We have listened with thankfulness to the words of the Representatives of other Churches. We are aware that for some time past many members of the Established Church have paid special attention to the writings of Wesley, and that their study of his character has led them to regard him with profound respect. We have been glad to find that some of those who so highly esteem him are also willing to do justice to his followers. We accept with pleasure the graceful words which have been uttered by those broad-minded Churchmen who have recognised our distinct ecclesiastical position, and have shown that they understand the motives which impel us in our work.

We reciprocate the greetings of the Nonconformists of England. We do not forget that the grandfathers and the great-grandfather of the Wesleys were amongst the Confessors of 1662. As Methodists, we are not unmindful of the preparatory influence of the Puritan Reformation, and of the work which was done by godly Dissenters when the lamp was going out in the Temple of the Lord. A voice that has counselled us before has counselled us again to be true to our best traditions. In answer to that appeal, we are sure that we may pledge our Societies to a perpetual testimony concerning the Atoning Sacrifice of Christ, and the assurance of personal acceptance with God which arises from the direct witness of the Holy Spirit.

We have listened with peculiar satisfaction to the Representative of the Churches of Scotland. We remember the zeal of Scottish Christians for liberty, for spiritual religion, for the 'crown-rights' of the King of kings. We cannot forget the illustration of the supremacy of conscience which was furnished by the men who quitted their churches and manses in 1843. That act evoked our sympathy at the time, and continues to excite our admiration. The memory of that deed of self-sacrifice constantly appeals to those who have themselves succeeded to a heritage won by suffering. The greetings of the Presbyterians encourage us to continue to bear our part in the evangelization and the Christian culture of the people of Scotland.

The Society of Friends also paid its welcome tribute to the memory of John Wesley. The Moravian Church was fitly represented on the Centenary platform. It is impossible to repay the debt which we owe to that Church. By the example and teaching of the 'United Brethren,' John Wesley was led into the light of conscious salvation. But, also, we owe much of our organization to the suggestions which were furnished by the Moravian Assemblies. Especially we would acknowledge the inspiration which we have received from the self-denial, the patience, the courage, the enthusiasm for God and man which have been exhibited in connection with the work of the Moravian missionaries.

The Centenary celebrations have also given an opportunity for the assembling of the members of the different sections of the Methodist Church. Separated from each other, and from us, by conscientious convictions concerning the principles of Church government, it has been shown that, in loyalty to Christ, and to the doctrines of His Gospel, the Methodist Churches are one. We feel the importance of maintaining and displaying that unity, and we have welcomed the opportunity of demonstrating it before the Church and the world.

The determination, 'with one consent,' to do honour to the memory of our Founder has proved the essential unity of the Churches of England. A Christ-like man, wherever he may be found, continues to command admiration and love. This fact indicates that, at the centre of religious consciousness and conviction, Christians are in agreement as to the qualities which distinguish the brethren of the Lord. We pray that the time may soon come when all the followers of Christ will be sufficiently 'pure in heart' to 'see God,' and to recognize the work of him who is sent by God.

We look back upon the last one hundred years of our history with 'solemn gladness.' We ought to be glad. When Wesley died, the continued existence of the work he had commenced was not placed beyond reasonable dispute. Gradually the nation was becoming more reconciled to the teaching of evangelical doctrine, but many would have rejoiced to witness the extinction of Methodism. Only those who have carefully studied the incidents of that transition period are aware of the perils which then threatened us. When the crisis was passed, formidable difficulties sprang up, and seemed to make the work of Methodism well-nigh impossible. But, step by step, we have advanced. Yet our hearts have sometimes been troubled; but our timidity has been rebuked and banished by the manifestation of the goodness and the mercy of God. And now having attained to the position of a well-established Church, we 'dwell in the City' which the Lord has built for us. It is a pleasant habitation. Its walls are Salvation; its gates are Praise.

We would commend to you the study of Methodist history.

If secular history is the handwriting of the Eternal on the frail tablets of Time, religious history is His 'very Voice' speaking in facts which are words. We shall not be worthy of a great future if we do not remember our great past. We ought to be familiar with the leading events which have marked our progress. We should search the records of the last one hundred and fifty years. In no period of ecclesiastical history has there been a clearer revelation of the character of God, or of the methods which He now employs to effect the salvation of men. The selection, training, conversion, call, and ministry of John Wesley show that in heaven there is One Who thinks upon us. The gradual, unpremeditated development of the system of Methodism manifests the Providence that directs the affairs of men. The rebuking of our enemies, the removal of our difficulties, attest the power of an Almighty Friend. Our present condition, 'a city set on a hill,' which 'cannot be hid,' illustrates the lovingkindness of a God Whose 'gentleness' has made us 'great.' Shall we pay no heed to the Voice of Him Who called our Church out of the intellectual, moral and religious confusion of the last century; Who made it the light-bearer to this nation; Who has continually revealed Himself through us to the world?

During recent years we have seen a Church roused into an intensely earnest and aggressive religious life by the conviction that, historically, it is directly connected with the Church of the Apostolic Age. Whatever we may think of the correctness of the theory, there can be no doubt of its value as a creator of enthusiasm. A higher enthusiasm should fire us as Methodists. We have not to travel through the gloom of the Dark Ages to discover the Apostolic Church with which we are allied. We are united, without a break, to the men and women who, in the last century, 'gladly received' the 'word of salvation,' and 'continued steadfastly in the Apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.' Nor are we separated from the Church of the New Testament. Our direct descent from the early Methodist Societies links us with the Church founded on the Day of Pentecost. A similarity of spiritual experience is a surer mark of succession than a continuity that is merely historical. It has been admitted, by others, that the Societies formed by John Wesley resembled the Christian companies called out of the crowds that were 'pricked in their heart' by the preaching of the Apostles.

That resemblance, that family-likeness, is our warrant for claiming kinship with the first Christian Church. We are not 'strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God.' We are 'built upon the foundation of the Apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief Corner-stone.'

In order that you may experience the kindling of the enthusiasm which arises from the study of the history of your own Church, we would counsel you to become familiar with the books in which the record of that history is contained. We would especially suggest that, in this Centenary year, the life, the character and the work of John Wesley should be closely studied. The Book-Room has recently published a very attractive illustrated edition of Wesley's Journals; and we would advise you to acquire and read that intensely interesting work. In the Journals the eighteenth century lives again. We see its landscapes, its quiet villages, its growing towns, its crowds, its groups of picturesque persons, its notable individuals. Above all, we watch the progress of the Gospel, and its effect upon the nation. We follow, with reverence, the development of a Divine idea. Our hearts, too, are stirred by the recital of the sufferings of our fathers, and of the heroism of the men and women who subdued cruel mobs by irresistible kindness and goodness. The perusal of the Journals will show you that you are 'compassed about' with a great 'cloud of witnesses;' and, as you gaze upon that cloud, you will long to 'lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset' you, and to 'run with patience the race that is set before' you, 'looking unto Jesus.'

We are thankful for the direct and the indirect influence of our Church. It has told profoundly upon English society. Though it has never posed as a social reformer, yet it has gone down to the lowest strata of the community: it has penetrated the obscurest villages; it has rescued men from sin; it has created a sense of self-respect; it has trained intelligence and conscience; it has led to the formation of habits of industry and sobriety; it has furnished opportunities for the exercise of skill and thrift in circumstances favourable to success. As a consequence, it has changed the social rank of myriads of Englishmen. Who can estimate the effect of the teaching of boys and girls in our Sunday and Day Schools, long before the conscience of the nation awoke to the duty of educating its children? Who can gauge the influence of Methodist example in the matters of temperance and Sabbath-keeping in those melancholy days when drunkenness was nearly universal, and the Sabbath was almost completely secularized? True social progress is only possible in an Age of Faith; and John Wesley inaugurated such an Age in England. Again we say, that we are thankful for the social influence of Methodism.

It must not diminish. Great problems confront us. It is better that they should be solved by the friends than by the antagonists of Christ. Let us use our position, and exercise our rights, as individual citizens. Let us protest against evil; against impurity, in speech as well as in act; against gambling; against cruelty to little children; against aggressive war; against trade oppression, by master or by man; against the blasphemies that stain English conversation. We ought to champion every just cause. Let us befriend temperance; let us help those who are trying to relieve the physical necessities of the poor; let us support the men and women who are rescuing the 'waifs and strays' from our streets, and who are gathering orphan children into Christian 'Homes;' let us, in all wise ways, strengthen the hands of those who, in municipal, county and parliamentary assemblies, are contending for the 'righteousness that exalteth a nation.'

In our Social Work we are treading in the footsteps of John Wesley. But we shall fail to follow him if we allow anything to divert us from that Spiritual mission which is our charge and our glory. It is necessary to remind you that the chief reason for the existence of Methodism is to be found in its work for the conversion of the ungodly, and the Christian training of those who are won from the world and sin. We must not lower our aim. It is possible for us to be decoyed from our task by things which are excellent in themselves. It is right, for instance, that we should attend to the perfecting of our Church organization. We do not intend to neglect this. The alteration in the Order of our Sessions is one of the latest proofs that we are prepared to avail ourselves of methods that enable us to administer the affairs of our Connexion of Churches with greater efficiency. But life is of more importance than organization. Fulness of spiritual life must be our chief concern. It is well to make a perfect Constitution; but we shall pay too high a price for it if we obtain it by sacrificing the supreme work of building up the living Church of Christ.

In this Centenary Year it is appropriate that we should listen, once more, to the voice of John Wesley counselling us upon this urgent matter. In 1783, he was asked, by one of his preachers, what must be done to keep Methodism alive when he was dead? He immediately answered: 'The Methodists must take heed to their doctrine, their experience, their practice, and their discipline. If they attend to their doctrines only, they will make the people Antinomians; if to the experimental part of religion only, they will make them Enthusiasts; if to the practical part only, they will make them Pharisees; and if they do not attend to their discipline, they will be like persons who bestow much pains in cultivating their garden, and put no fence round it to save it from the wild boar of the forest.'

It is not without cause that we urge you to take heed to your doctrines. This is a day when St. John's words should be pondered. He affirms: 'Whosoever goeth onward and abideth not in the teaching of Christ, hath not God: he that abideth in the teaching, the same hath both the Father and the Son' (2 John 9). John Wesley compelled himself to become 'A man of one Book.' He derived his teaching immediately from the Word of God, and pre-eminently from the Words of Christ, and His Apostles. After arriving at an independent judgment, if he had any doubt, he consulted those who were experienced in the things of God; and then 'the writings whereby, being dead, they yet speak.' But the 'living Oracles' were the source of the life-giving doctrines which Wesley taught. All else served only to explain and confirm. Our doctrines have been wisely and diligently guarded; and they remain with us to this day. Our strength, as Christian teachers, arises from the fact that we have entrenched ourselves within the lines of the Word of God. We counsel you to become acquainted with the doctrines of the Church to which you belong, and with the Scriptures on which they are based. Having arrived at an intelligent understanding of our creed, we entreat you to 'abide in the teaching of Christ.' One of the greatest dangers of the present day arises from the habit of intellectual transgression. Urged by mental inquisitiveness, men 'go onward' beyond the boundaries of Christ's teaching. They seek to penetrate the dim regions of unrevealed Truth; they try to conquer the unknown by the aid of human analogies; and when they fail, then they 'faintly trust the larger hope.' It is perilous to step over the limits of the teaching of Christ. The circle of Truth which He has illuminated is vast; but there are some who only seem anxious to haunt its circumference. They desert the centre where He stands, 'in Whom there is no darkness at all.' They are tempted into the evening twilight which begins where our Lord's teaching ends; and then, their further trespass takes them into a 'darkness' which may be 'felt.' Let us abide in the teaching of Christ, chastening our intellectual curiosity by remembering that when the Master spoke of the 'rest' that comes through learning of Him, He told the disciples of a 'yoke' and a 'burden' which must be borne by the 'meek and lowly in heart.'

We would also emphasize Wesley's counsel respecting experience. That is the root of Methodism. The experience of a sense of sin led to the formation of our first Societies, and the experience of salvation from sin has been the theme of our special testimony. Every Methodist is supposed to possess a living and growing experience of the spiritual life. Without such experience it will be impossible for us to maintain our Church system, or our position amongst the Churches of England. By ingenious contrivances we may adapt our Class-meetings to the taste of those who are without the consciousness of salvation; but will they then be worth preserving? This subject touches us closely. We cannot afford to treat it lightly. We must have conversions, not only in our Mission Halls, but in our homes, our Sunday-schools, our Chapels. Throughout every one of our Circuits, wherever our people assemble, we must ask that God will pour out 'the spirit of grace and of supplications.' Then sinners will 'look upon' Him 'Whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for Him;' and 'in that day there shall be a Fountain opened . . . for sin and for uncleanness.' But more than conversion is required. During this Centenary year we would commend to you a special study of John Wesley's teaching on the doctrine of Christian Perfection. Speak about it in your Classes, your Band Meetings, your Lovefeasts; and seek to realize the blessing of the perfect love of God and man. Let us make this year memorable by holy living. Let us pray for the power of the Holy Ghost to come upon us, and to abide with us everywhere. This is our greatest need. We lament that the past year has not yielded a larger net increase in the number of our members. This fact should send us back to first principles, and to the study of the secret of our first triumphs. We shall then see that our continued existence as a spiritual Church, raised up to rescue this nation from worldliness and formalism, and to 'spread scriptural holiness throughout the land,' depends upon the perpetual presence of the Holy Ghost in all our assemblies, in all our work. He is the Creator and the Sustainer of Christian experience, 'the Lord and Giver of life.' Without Him our increased intelligence, our abundant wealth, our advanced social position, will only make our failure more conspicuous and disastrous.

Your belief and experience should find consistent expression in your practice. You have been convinced of 'sin, of righteousness and of judgment.' It is imperative that you should show that the conviction is not transient, but permanent. Having seen what sin is, avoid it always; having looked upon that righteousness which found its highest manifestation in the 'going away' of Jesus Christ, aim to conform your principles and conduct to that sublime standard; having been convinced that 'the Prince of this world is judged,' cultivate unworldliness, and anticipate eagerly the triumphs of Christ. Our practice should be a revelation of the character of the God Whom we serve. By our holiness we should explain and display the holiness of God. The world will never perceive the purity of God until the light of that purity is absorbed and reflected by the Church. We commend you to 'Him Who is able to guard you from stumbling, and to set you before the presence of His glory without blemish in exceeding joy.'

We believe that our discipline has the approval of the Head of the Church. Its end is to secure the purity and safety of the Christian people who are the members of our Church. We appeal to the Leaders of the Classes, to the Local-preachers, and to all who have any disciplinary responsibility, to assist us in maintaining this 'hedge' which has been put round 'the garden of the Lord.'

In this Centenary year it seems fitting that there should be a gathering of the Representatives of the Methodist Churches throughout the world. The Œcumenical Conference, which will shortly assemble in the United States of America, should evoke your gratitude, and receive the benefit of your prayers. We may well say: 'What hath God wrought!' in a much wider sense than Wesley intended when he used the words: 'the world' has been his 'parish.' In October, those who have adopted his creed will meet to rejoice in success, to study methods of work, and to seek for that 'baptism of fire' without which the world cannot be won for Christ. The Representatives of millions of Methodists should be rich in the spiritual wealth that results from earnest prayer. We commend the Conference to your intercessions.

We have celebrated the death of John Wesley in circumstances which have reminded us that we, too, are mortal. The shadows have gathered again and again upon our homes. We sympathize with those who have suffered bereavement. Quiet, almost unobserved workers, have passed to their 'open reward.' Many who have been the strength of our Circuits have yielded to the touch of the Angel of Death. Some, whom we have valued as counsellors in the Representative Session of our Conference, have ceased 'at once to work and live.' In our prayers we have not forgotten your darkened homes. Our own ranks have been repeatedly broken. Especially, we have been called to mourn the loss of Dr. Osborn, who seemed to link us with the generation that gathered around Wesley's grave. During our Sessions we have been troubled by the sad news that has come to us from China. Our little band of missionary workers there has been sorely tried. A young evangelist, who left England to proclaim 'good tidings of great joy,' has been ruthlessly murdered. Fanaticism has claimed a victim, and made a martyr. We are sure that, when you have the most perfect communion at the Throne of Grace, we may ask you to remember our devoted missionary workers, our true-hearted native Christians, and the land they seek to love and to save.

But, notwithstanding these clouds, how abundant is the light of God's mercy that shines upon us! We ask you to join us in thanking Him for the lovingkindness He has shown us in our past history, and is manifesting now. Let us learn a lesson from the death-chamber of John Wesley. With the exception of the final 'Farewell!' Wesley's last words, again and again repeated, were: 'I'll praise—I'll praise!' That gives the key-note of the music which we must carry in our hearts to the tasks, the trials and the triumphs of the future. We do not fear that future. It would be possible to indicate dangers which threaten us, and difficulties that crowd our path. But it is better to meet them singing than sighing. Like the army of Jehoshaphat, we should march to the battle-field with this song upon our lips: 'Give thanks unto the Lord; . . . for His mercy endureth for ever!' Let us advance in the spirit of our fathers, strengthened by the assurance that made them invincible: 'The best of all is God is with us!'

OF THE
IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1891,
TO THE
BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1891.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

We hail with lively pleasure the opportunity afforded us at our annual gathering of addressing to you our fraternal greetings, and the assurance of our unabated affection.

We are in no small degree sustained and stimulated in the prosecution of our work by remembering that you appreciate our many difficulties, and accord to us your loving sympathy. We most gratefully receive the kindly words you from time to time address to us, and gladly welcome your honoured messengers.

To the Rev. William Fiddian Moulton, D.D., our distinguished and beloved President, we gave a most hearty welcome. His companions, the Ex-President, Rev. Charles H. Kelly, whom we have long since learned to love and esteem, and the Rev. Marshall Randles, D.D., have done us good service, and we feel grateful to them for their deep interest in our affairs. The Conference greatly regretted that the Rev. Dr. Waller and the Rev. Frederic W. Macdonald, whom you had appointed to visit us, were unable to be present.

It is our pleasure to report again this year an increase in our membership. You will understand that the steady flow of our people to other lands makes it difficult for us to tabulate such results as are possible to others working in more favoured fields.

You will have learned with delight from the recent Census returns that, as a denomination, we have increased thirteen per cent. during the past decade, notwithstanding the fact that all the other religious bodies have decreased, and the general population has diminished by nine per cent. One of the most gratifying features in connection with these returns is, that the increase has not been confined to Ulster, where one might naturally have expected it, but proofs of our progress come as well from the South and West, where the population is sparse and the work more difficult. We are profoundly thankful for these indications of the Divine blessing on our work, which have given us fresh impulse and strength for what, we trust, will prove still more effective service. You will readily believe, therefore, that while we are still surrounded by such conditions as have now become familiar to you through our Annual Addresses, we are not in the least discouraged, but, on the contrary, full of the gladness of hope, and more confident than ever in the power of the old truth to win our fellow-countrymen for Jesus Christ.

Our efforts to reach the masses in the rapidly increasing City of Belfast have been crowned with rich blessing; and in several of our regular Circuits hundreds have been converted to God.

Our Colportage agency, though still in its infancy, has accomplished much, and will yet result in richer blessing when its fitness and efficiency become more widely known.

Our Educational Institutions still receive a large share of our care and attention. The Belfast College continues to prosper. We regret, however, that Wesley College, Dublin, for years so sadly hampered by its large building debt, has occasioned us much anxiety. We trust, however, that a plan may shortly be devised for putting this valuable institution on such a basis as shall make progress possible. The M'Arthur Hall, the munificent gift of the late Sir William M'Arthur, will be opened by September 1st next. This latest addition to our educational establishments will prove to be an inestimable advantage to the daughters of our people, and especially so to the daughters of our ministers.

We are thankful that all our Connexional Funds have been well sustained; and we are hoping that the income of our Home-Mission Fund may be so far increased as to warrant us taking advantage of the many openings which are now being presented to us for aggressive effort. Had we the means we could now employ a goodly band of Colporteurs and Lay Evangelists with the hope of most blessed results.

We have heard with the deepest interest of your efforts to win souls in the populous centres of your land, as well as of your incessant care to sustain and extend Methodism in the villages of Great Britain. May all such labours be crowned with abundant success!

During the year our Ministerial ranks, like your own, have been thinned by death, six of our beloved brethren having been called to their reward. Among these was one well known and greatly beloved in your Conference, and who for many years held the most prominent positions amongst us—Joseph William M'Kay, D.D. He served the Church long and well, and his record is on high.

While these brethren have been removed from us God is raising up others to take their places. We have received into Full Connexion with the Conference eight young men of great promise, and eleven Candidates for the Ministry were received on probation.

We send you, as our Representatives, three highly esteemed brethren—Rev. John Woods Ballard, whom we nominate as the Irish member of the Delegation, Rev. Thomas Moran (A), and Rev. James Harpur, who will convey to you further our sincere regards, and be able to inform you fully respecting our affairs.

Permit us, dear Fathers and Brethren, in conclusion, to assure you once more that we rejoice in the great and holy work which God has committed to your care; and our fervent prayer is, that the blessing of the Triune God may descend still more richly upon all your agencies and ministrations in the years to come.

Signed on behalf, and by Order of the Conference,

JAMES DONNELLY, Secretary.

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1891,

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1891.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

We have received your Address with very great pleasure, and most heartily reciprocate the expressions of goodwill contained in it. We have gladly welcomed in our midst the honoured brethren whom you have appointed to represent you, and we have listened with deep interest to the account given by the Rev. John Woods Ballard, in the open Session of our Conference, of the State of the Work of God in Ireland. We gratefully note your appreciative reference to the services rendered, during their visit to your Conference, by the Rev. William F. Moulton, D.D., and the brethren who accompanied him; and we have appointed the Rev. Dr. Moulton, Ex-President, the Rev. John Bond, and the Rev. Thomas Allen to accompany our President to your next Conference.

We rejoice with you that notwithstanding the peculiar difficulties connected with the work in Ireland, you are able to report an increase in your membership; and we cordially share in your feeling of profound thankfulness that the increase has been secured in the midst of a diminishing population.

We are glad that you are encouraged to persevere in your efforts to reach the masses in the city of Belfast; and while we are deeply convinced that the Gospel of our Saviour Christ is capable of renewing all who come under its power, we readily admit with you that the social condition of many in your midst demands a special adaptation of means.

We observe with satisfaction that while you are carrying on this special work, and reaching exceptional cases, you are labouring with distinguished success on regular Circuit lines. You will rejoice to hear that, while with us the large Missions carried on in London, Manchester, Birmingham and elsewhere, continue abundantly to justify their establishment, there is a growing desire faithfully to work ordinary Circuit agencies.

With reference to your Educational Institutions, they are exceptionally important, and we trust that success may attend the scheme for the reduction of the building debt on Wesley College, Dublin, and that it may share the prosperity long enjoyed by the Belfast College. We hope that your bright anticipations in regard to the M'Arthur Hall may be fully realized.

We are glad to hear that your Connexional Funds are in a satisfactory condition, and trust you may have such an increase in your Home-Missionary income as to warrant your undertaking the aggressive work to which you refer. We have at this Conference adopted new regulations with regard to Home-Mission Finance, which, if approved by the various District Meetings in this country, will result in a fund being placed at the disposal of our Home-Missionary Committee, to be used for the special purpose of consolidating and extending Methodism in Circuits which are now in a painfully enfeebled condition.

With you, we mourn the removal by death during the year of many, both Ministers and Laymen, whom the Church of God can ill spare. Chief amongst the Ministers must be named the venerable George Osborn, D.D., who for more than half-a-century has been one of the most distinguished of the leaders of Methodism.

The celebration during the year of the Centenary of the death of our revered Founder, has evoked from many other Churches generous acknowledgments of the great Mission he fulfilled, and has quickened the interest of many of our people in the work now being done by those who bear his name.

As a Church, we keep closely to the task of 'spreading scriptural holiness through the land,' and therefore we are not blind to the social evils that exist around us. The terrible spread of gambling amongst the various classes of the community has aroused our anxious concern; and the setting apart of a Minister for the special work of promoting the interests of our Temperance organization, marks our resolve to cope, as far as as possible, with the evils created by the drinking customs of the country.

In the election this year of Dr. Stephenson as our President, recognition has been given to the invaluable work he has accomplished in establishing and carrying on the 'Children's Home,' and we rejoice in the vigour with which its interests are promoted.

We join our prayers with yours that, during this coming year, the Work of the Lord may prosper in your hands, and we commend you to Him Who has called us into His service, and Who alone can qualify us for its duties and responsibilities.

Signed on behalf, and by Order of the Conference,

DAVID J. WALLER, Secretary.

ADDRESS

CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE AND SWITZERLAND, 1891,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1891.

HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

The answer of the British Conference to our last year's Address gave us great joy. The cordiality of its tone, the appropriateness of the counsels which you gave us, and the instructive details which it contained as to your own difficulties, caused the reading of it to be listened to with deep interest, both by the ministers and the lay representatives. For the great Church of which we are at present but a feeble offshoot we cherish a filial respect and love; and it is our joy to know that we continue to possess your confidence and your affection.

We deeply regretted the absence from our midst of a Representative of British Methodism. We have so often had to claim his intelligent sympathy in the difficulties and trials of the last few years, that we should have been truly glad for him this year to have shared our joys, and welcomed with us the dawn of brighter days.

Our Conference met, for the first time, at Bourdeaux (in a picturesque valley among the Alps of Dauphiny), where for half-a-century we have had an important Cause. The members of our Church in this locality are peasant farmers, who have been sorely tried for several years by a succession of bad harvests. But 'their deep poverty' has 'abounded unto the riches of their liberality.' Their zeal for the Work of God, has shown itself not only in the hospitality with which they have received us, but also by their eager attendance at the public services. Night after night our large chapel was filled with people, many of whom had come on foot from places at two hours' distance, at a very busy season of the year, after a long day of hard toil in the fields,—toil which would be resumed at daybreak on the morrow.

It was fitting that in this Society, one of our oldest and most faithful, we should celebrate the double Centenary of the death of our illustrious Founder, and of the beginning of Methodism in France. Before a numerous congregation, the Rev. Dr. Lelièvre, charged to preach the official sermon, depicted for us the admirable character of John Wesley. And the Conference decided that special meetings should be held in all our Circuits to render thanks to God for the benefits which have resulted to French Protestantism from the arrival, in 1791, of the first Wesleyan Missionary, William Mahy.

But the best means of worthily celebrating this double anniversary is, in our judgment, that we should, after having blessed God for the good, direct and indirect, which our fathers have accomplished in France, start anew, and shake off the languor from which French Methodism has suffered too long. We have good reasons for hoping that we have reached, this year, a decisive turning-point, and that better days are beginning. We have had revivals in some of our churches. The number of our members, after having decreased for several years, has resumed an upward march. Our churches, which for several years had only given us an occasional recruit for our Ministry, have furnished this year four candidates, who appear to possess suitable qualifications, and who have been admitted to our Students' Home. Our new evangelistic enterprises, especially that of Cherbourg, give us much encouragement. Our young African Mission is vigorously carried on by our valiant missionary, the Rev. Thomas Hocart, assisted by a schoolmaster. An agent of another Society recently rendered to our Mission the unsolicited testimony that it is the best fitted out and the best managed Mission which exists among the Mussulmans of North Africa.

We are endeavouring to unite to an ardent love for France (of which we thank you for having spoken in such noble and generous language) an unshaken faith in the Gospel as the power of God for the salvation of all who believe, and a loyal fidelity to the doctrines and institutions of Methodism. These three qualities, we firmly believe, will enable us to fill a place and to accomplish a work in the future still more than in the past, in this country watered with the blood of so many martyrs, and towards which God has, we feel convinced, purposes of mercy and love. But we need your help as much as ever, and must continue to utter in your ears the cry of the Macedonian: 'Come over and help us!'

Our delegate, the Rev. Onésime Prunier, B.A., B.D., will bear to you our salutations and set forth our needs. We commit our Cause with confidence to the hands of our esteemed brother, who is a French Methodist of the second generation, and whom we have placed this year at the head of our Students' Home.

Our Conference has chosen, to fill the office of President this year, the Rev. Matthieu Audibert, a brother honoured for his faithful services, and as an able and judicious administrator. We respectfully ask you to ratify our choice.

May the God of our fathers be with you in the oversight of the great interests which are entrusted to your charge, and may the Nottingham Conference be specially blessed from on high.

Signed by Order, and on behalf of the Conference, MATTHIEU LELIÈVRE, Secretary.

OF THE
BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1891,
TO THE
ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE AND SWITZERLAND, 1891.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

Your beloved Representative—the Rev. Onésime Prunier, B.A., B.D.—presented to us your fraternal Address and salutation, and in an Open Session of our Conference ably set forth the facts and claims of your Work. It afforded us much pleasure to see in his person a French Methodist of the second generation. We hasten to reassure you that we deeply prize the affection you declare, and warmly reciprocate your respect and love. The many difficulties which are specially incident to your work are evident to us, and have our sympathetic interest. We know of your struggle in the midst of depressing circumstances, and we thankfully remember your steady perseverance in holding forth the light of the simple truth, as it is in Jesus, in the midst of slavish superstition and rationalistic speculation. We therefore mark with gratitude to God the hopefulness which characterizes your Address.

It has been your work to effect great good indirectly by your influence upon the ancient Huguenot Protestant Church of France; but we are glad to have the good tidings of definite increase in your membership during the past year. We rejoice also that Frenchmen are giving themselves to the ministry of the French Methodist Church, and that your people are loyal, and manifest their desire to uphold your work by self-sacrificing gifts.

We observe with much satisfaction your aggressive movements, both in Evangelistic work in your own land and in Missionary enterprise in North Africa. Our own history has taught us that to cherish this spirit is a sure way of holding the ground we have won.

Together with yourselves, we have during the past year celebrated the Centenary of our illustrious Founder's death. You will rejoice to hear that our Services on that occasion were remarkably powerful, and afforded fresh proof of the presence of God with us. A wonderful wave of loyalty to the Church of our fathers passed over our Connexion and aroused glad hopes of bright days to come, and now our thoughts go on with yours to the century before us. We prize the past. Its history is an inspiration; and yet we desire and are endeavouring to adapt our modes of work to the changing conditions of society to-day. There is evidence of this in many particulars.

For the first time your Address is this year presented to the Representative Session of our Conference, where pastors and laymen are united, and the Address we thus send you comes for the first time from the Representative Session.

We rejoice that, amid all the changes accomplished or contemplated in Methodism, a spirit of perfect harmony and brotherly love prevails in our counsels; and we humbly recognize that our supreme necessity is the continuous baptism 'with the Holy Ghost, and with fire.'

In your ardent love for France and your unshaken faith in the Gospel as the 'power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth,' we see the promise of your continued advance. To the utmost of our power it is a joy to us to further your work: first, for the sake of France, for whose people we ardently desire all the blessings of the Gospel; and also because we know that to win France for the King of kings would be to add a precious gem to the Redeemer's crown, and bring for ourselves and the whole world unspeakable blessing.

We have our work; you have yours, perhaps harder than ours; for we remember that it is frequently wrought away from the sympathetic influence of numbers, and in a part of our Master's vineyard where the soil is hard to till and often apparently sterile. As you enter upon the second century of your history we lovingly greet you, beloved brethren.

May God speed you, increasing your numbers and extending your good influence among your fellow-countrymen.

Encourage yourselves in the Lord; the battle is His. We regard the success which you report as a seal of the Divine approval of your work.

We heartily confirm your selection of the Rev. Matthieu Audibert as your President for the ensuing year.

Signed on behalf, and by Order of the Conference,

DAVID J. WALLER, Secretary.

THE ADDRESS
OF THE
SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE OF 1891,
TO THE
BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1891.

HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Your reply to our Address of 1890 was received by us with sincere thankfulness, as manifesting your continued interest in our work, and your sympathy with us on account of the difficulties which beset our various enterprises. The difficulties of our work are formidable; but, by the help of God, we are fully determined, if possible, to overcome them.

We have ordained to the Full Work of the Ministry four brethren who have honourably completed their years of probation. Three of these, one European and two Natives, are the direct fruit of our labours in these lands. The clearness of the testimony of all as to their conversion and call to the Ministry afforded us unfeigned joy, and we have the fullest confidence in their devotion to and fitness for this work. One European and four Native Candidates for the Ministry have been received by us and placed on trial. They have shown themselves possessed of the requisite qualifications for our work, and we entertain great hopes of their future usefulness. We regret, however, that at present, owing mainly to financial pressure, we are unable to afford them that opportunity for special training which would undoubtedly better fit them for their work.

We mourn with you on account of the removal by death from the Church on earth, of the Rev. Alexander M'Aulay. During the time he was in our midst, visiting our churches, we rejoiced in the holy influences of his life and character upon our members. His public utterances on family religion left a marked impression upon many, and the interest he aroused in the subject is still bearing rich fruit. His ministrations were characterized by great spiritual power, and both preachers and people gained fresh inspiration from his example and labours 'We glorify God in him!'

Your appointment of the Rev. Peter Hargreaves to be President of our Conference has afforded us great satisfaction. His courteous and dignified bearing in the Chair, and the impartiality with which he has conducted the business of the Conference, have fully justified our nomination.

The past year has been full of encouragement to us; and as we look back upon its events, we feel that we have abundant cause for gratitude to Almighty God. Gracious outpourings of the Holy Spirit have been vouchsafed to not a few of our Circuits, and you will be pleased to learn that the increase in our membership this year, both in the European and Native Churches, exceeds that of any previous year of our history. The returns from the various districts are: Members, 30,990; on Trial for Membership, 10,815; in Junior Society-Classes, 5,416; showing an increase for the year of 3,711 on the total of those joined with us in fellowship and returned under these three heads.

God has also blessed us richly in other ways. Through the measures adopted by your Missionary Committee in the reduction of the yearly grant to our Connexion, we began the year in great anxiety. Debts had been incurred in the maintenance of our work which it seemed almost impossible for us to deal with; but by the good hand of our God upon us for good, these have been met, and we begin this year relieved of the oppressive burdens which rested upon us last year. The numerous calls for help from communities desiring the ministrations of our Church, and the opportunities for extension which constantly present themselves, cannot be ignored. Yet we are unable to deal with them, owing to our lack of means, and of suitable ministerial supplies. Could we multiply our resources fourfold, we could not even then overtake the work that is daily pressing upon us.

The establishment of an Institution for the training of Colonial Candidates for our Ministry is occupying our attention, and we gratefully recognise your promise of such help as we may need meanwhile.

We are thankful to have to record that, though several of our European brethren have been laid aside during the year by severe personal affliction, no deaths have taken place amongst them; but from our native ranks we have to mourn the loss by death of one brother, Moses September, who was received into the Ministry in 1882, and who has faithfully served our Church in several important Circuits, and witnessed a good confession before the world.

We are informed that your Missionary Committee has decided upon the establishment of a new Mission in Mashonaland, and it has given us great joy. The way for the introduction of Christianity into that country has been opened in a marvellous manner; and whilst other Churches are preparing to avail themselves of the opportunities of this opening, we are confident that your Society will not be slow in seeking to bring light into these dark regions. We wish you God-speed in your enterprise.

We have nominated the Rev. James Scott as President for the Conference of 1892. He is well known to you, as to us, as a judicious administrator of Methodist discipline, and a faithful preacher of the Word of God. He has filled the office of Secretary of our Conference for some years, and the distinguished ability with which he has conducted the business of the Conference, shows that he is eminently qualified for the position to which we have designated him.

Our Sessions have been marked by much harmony. The public services have been eminently blessed, and we believe that the meeting of the Conference this year will be greatly beneficial to our general Church work.

We assure you of our loyal and loving interest in everything that affects the prosperity of our common Methodism, and we hope the coming year may be marked by a great advance of the work of our Church in every part of the world.

Signed on behalf, and by Order of the Conference,

JAMES SCOTT, Secretary.

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1891,

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE WESLEYAN-METHODIST CHURCH OF SOUTH AFRICA, 1891.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,

We have received your fraternal Address with affection and gratitude. While we desire to cultivate the spirit of brotherly union with all who follow and obey the Lord Jesus, we feel that in a special sense we are one with you in the bonds of Christian fellowship and service.

We endeavour to make ourselves familiar with the peculiarities which mark your difficulties and your successes, so that we may be able the more fully to enter into the joy of your triumphs, and the more intelligently to present our thanks and prayers to God on your behalf.

It is with especial pleasure we note that the increase in your Church-membership has been greater during the past year than in any previous year of your history; and the evident hopefulness with which you are preparing for the labours of the future, gives us unqualified delight.

We rejoice to find that you are facing the important question of the establishment of an Institution for the training of your Colonial Candidates for the Ministry; believing, as we do, that men who have been brought up and trained in your own country will be able to render valuable and permanent service in connection with your Church. It is cheering to us to observe that three out of the four Brethren whom you have this year ordained to the Full Work of the Ministry are themselves the fruit of your own successful labours in former days.

We are pleased to inform you that permission has been given for five of our trained ministers to volunteer for service in connection with your Conference, and we are sure that when they reach your shores they will receive a most hearty welcome.

We would willingly render you further aid in your great enterprises if it were within our power. We are glad, however, to know that you are vigorously addressing yourselves to the development of your own resources, to provide not only for the prosperity of your Colonial Churches, but also for brave and wisely directed Christian aggression in the regions which are yet without the Gospel of the Son of God.

We cordially congratulate you on the large increase in the amount of your Colonial and Native Missionary contributions; and although it may not be easy at once to make much further advance in this direction, we trust you will always continue to maintain the great Missionary traditions which have long been the chief glory of our Church.

We have watched with anxious solicitude the financial crisis through which South Africa has recently been passing, and we earnestly hope that with returning commercial prosperity there may be opened before you larger opportunities for the prosecution of all branches of your holy toil.

The name of the Rev. James Scott, whom you have nominated for the high and responsible position of your President for the coming year, is one with which students of South African Methodist affairs are well acquainted. Your choice has our entire approval, and we shall not cease to pray that the year of his tenure of the highest office to which your suffrages can raise him, may be a year of unprecedented prosperity.

We have had before us many matters of high importance during the sessions of this Conference. We regret that our returns have shown so small a net increase in our membership as the result of a year's labour; and we are resolved, by the grace of God, to set ourselves with greater earnestness and a more true enthusiasm to our great work of spreading Scriptural holiness through the land.

Believing, as we do, that it is the function of the Church to be, in some sense, 'the conscience of the State;' believing, moreover, in the applicability of Christian principles to the management of national affairs, and in the binding obligation of the sublime morality of the Sermon on the Mount on Christian States as truly as on Christian men; it has seemed to us that, while continuing most loyally to exclude all merely party political questions from our discussions, the time is opportune to make it known that, in the great questions which, though they may be closely related to the current politics of the day, are first of all questions of national morality, or of international morality, there is only one party in our Church. We are resolved to protest most strongly, on all fitting occasions, against the admission of men of notoriously immoral character to positions of municipal or parliamentary influence in this nation.

Hindered as we are, in many branches of our service, by the drinking customs which are so prevalent among the various classes of the people of this country, we have observed with great satisfaction the part which your Representatives have taken in connection with the work of the Commission on the Licensing Laws appointed by the Government of the Cape Colony. We trust your endeavours to prevent the introduction of intoxicating drinks among the native peoples of South Africa may be completely successful.

We have delivered ourselves uncompromisingly on the sin of gambling, which, in the present day, is working incalculable mischief in our land. We hope you may be heartily in accord with us in this matter. In such a country as South Africa, where so many are fascinated by the glitter of gold, and impelled by greed of gain to courses which are often more than questionable, in their haste to become rich, we are persuaded that not only will all the games which we usually include in our view when we speak of gambling, but also all so-called business transactions, and all speculations which are essentially of the nature of gambling, meet with your outspoken condemnation.

We are more than ever determined to uphold the authority of the Word of God as the final authority before which we must bow. We are convinced that the living Word must be at once the test and rule of service, the inspiration and the theme of those who call themselves by the sacred Name of Christ. It is painfully evident to us that Sacerdotalism is exercising a most baneful influence in many quarters to-day, and we feel it to be imperative, that we should propagate, as we may have opportunity, the true Scriptural view of the Church. Time is on the side of truth, and the day will surely come when only truth can be received as truth. It is only in the truth that the elements of stability and permanence are found.

We are deeply touched by your reference to the death of the Rev. Alexander M'Aulay, a minister most highly esteemed by all, who 'fell asleep' during the year while visiting your Connexion for evangelistic purposes. His high character and great services are a precious memory to us, as we believe they are to you.

During the past twelve months, death has been making unusual inroads among the trusted leaders of our Church. In the sorrow of our severe bereavement we are silent: 'It is the Lord, let Him do what seemeth Him good.' We can only lift up our hearts to 'the Lord of the harvest that He will send forth labourers into His harvest.' The harvest is His, and we are sure that He orders all the operations of His people, arranging the time and manner of the life and service, and no less certainly the time and manner of the death of every faithful servant, so as most directly to bring on the accomplishment of His purposes. We comfort ourselves, and we would have you partake with us in the consolation, by looking forward to the day which is certainly coming, when that which is sown in dishonour and weakness shall be raised in glory and power.

And now, Brethren, 'we commend you to God and to the Word of His grace.' For South Africa and for England our prayer is: 'Let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish Thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish Thou it.'

Signed on behalf, and by Order of the Conference,

DAVID J. WALLER, Secretary.

THE ADDRESS

OF THE

GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE WESLEYAN-METHODIST CHURCH OF THE WEST INDIES OF 1891,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1891.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren,—

From the place where six years ago we assembled in the first General Conference of our West Indian Methodist Church, we now have again the pleasant duty of addressing you.

We have to thank you for the kindly and sympathetic reply sent in answer to our communication of three years ago. We assure you of our heedfulness to the loving counsels you gave us in relation to the religious training of the young; the need of devout worship and of careful, clear gospel teaching to secure abiding results against merely sensational methods. We duly regard your words of caution with respect to debt, even for Mission-work.

These counsels we estimate highly, not only for the love you bear us, but for the knowledge we have that you speak to us from the record of a large and varied experience, and that our own experience so far dictates to us the same things.

We give praise to God for manifold blessings showered upon us since we last addressed you. Difficulties we have had, and still have, but we believe we have been helped to look at them with Christian courage, and from our trials we trust we come from time to time enriched by experiences that make us better fitted to serve our generation by the will of God.

We recognise the good hand of our God that has been on our beloved President, the Rev. George Sargeant, during these six years of our Conference life, in the preservation of his health and his mental vigour. We rejoice in his many excellent gifts, and are grateful for the ready and efficient ways wherein he has used them in the service of the Conference. We take this occasion to express very earnestly the hope that the strong desire of the Conference may be realized in his continued Presidency for the term for which he stands elected and appointed. We are persuaded that there will be great advantage to our West Indian Connexion from his remaining in that position.

The review of the Work of God as committed to us six years ago yields abundant reason for devout thanksgiving to the Great Head of the Church. The gathered facts of that review so impress us as to suggest our mention of some of them in detail. We think that they justify the wisdom and foresight of the Fathers and Brethren of the Yearly Conference in committing to us the trust and responsibility contained in our Conference organization. While these facts indicate that your sympathy and fostering care hitherto have not been wasted, they also give promise that your continued patience with, and help to, us may become abundantly fruitful in our new conditions of labour. As we review our returns the conviction grows upon us that no corresponding period during the last fifty years of our Church work in the West Indies can show anything so marked in growth, development, or consolidation. Our return of members, 47,743, is an increase of 4,453, with 2,576 on trial; while the junior members number 8,256, being an increase of 5,380. The Sabbath scholars are 30,810, an advance of 6,489. The day scholars, 28,916, an increase of 6,976.

Our Chapels are 279, and show an increase of 22; and in the same period the staff of Ministers and Preachers on trial, after supplying losses by deaths, resignations and returns to England, has risen from 90 to 101. Among the various obligations of a growing Church is that of providing buildings for the purposes of worship and education, and in this department the efforts of our Churches may appear phenomenal, especially when it is remembered that our members are not wealthy. During the period under review there has been raised and expended on chapels, schools and Ministers' houses under the West Indian Conference £60,260.

The work of Higher Education, as carried on at York Castle for boys, and at Barbican for girls in Jamaica, still maintains honourable prestige, and has been supplemented by the Coke College and the Girls' High School at Antigua, and another Girls' High School in British Guiana; giving a total of 216 pupils under Higher Education, of whom 129 are boys and 87 girls, as against 62 boys and 35 girls six years ago.

Looking at all our circumstances, our trials and difficulties, —those common to us with older Conferences, and those peculiar to us from the conditions of our life,—we are greatly encouraged to continue in our work, ever praying, 'God be merciful unto us, and bless us, and cause His face to shine upon us;' with the confidence strong in us that 'God shall bless us, and all the ends of the earth shall fear Him.'

Our Mission enterprises in Panama and St. Lucia are proofs of our conviction that, as a Methodist Church in these Western Isles, it is our duty to extend the Kingdom of Christ. To this work we are resolved to devote our best energies. Our Panama Mission has been a great blessing spiritually to thousands of our Jamaica people and others—West Indians, Europeans, and Americans—who are scattered over the Isthmus; and when the Panama Canal enterprise collapsed, that Mission proved a mercy to very many. The fruit of our labour has been very marked, while our work has given to that purely Roman Catholic State an acquaintance with Protestant worship and teaching which it never had before. In St. Lucia similar results have followed, with clear indications of a permanent hold on the country. More recently we have commenced work in the Danish Island of St. Thomas. Taking all due care to avoid debt, we hold ourselves ready to make every sacrifice to answer clear and well-defined calls that may reach us from surrounding communities.

The time of our assembling coincides with the Centenary celebration of the death of our venerated founder, John Wesley; and we assure our Fathers and Brethren of our lively sympathy with the objects of the celebration. We so appreciate the invitation to contribute one of the memorial columns to be erected in City-road chapel, that, notwithstanding the variety of claims that are pressing on us and the limited resources at our command, we readily contribute the amount needed to secure this youngest daughter of the Mother Church a name and a place among her older sisters in John Wesley's Chapel. The West Indies are largely indebted to John Wesley. No event in the last hundred years has been charged with greater significance and blessing than the planting of Methodism in these islands.

We have agreed to recommend as our President for the next term of three years the Rev. George Sykes, who has been during the last six years Vice-President of the Eastern Annual Conference, and whose long and honourable service in Mission work is even better known to you than to ourselves. We respectfully ask the Yearly Conference to accede to our request.

The Rev. George Sargeant, who visits England, and whom we hope to welcome back after needed change and rest, bears this Address. He will represent us, and be able to tell you more fully of our affairs, and of our desire to maintain faithfully the doctrines of a pure gospel, and the principles of our beloved Methodism. The Rev. Oswald Welch, who returns to England after faithful and valued services in the Western Annual Conference, is associated with him.

In conclusion, we commend you to the God of all grace, and pray that His rich blessing may rest upon your Annual Assembly, and upon the Churches to which you minister.

Believe us, beloved Fathers and Brethren, Yours,

Signed on behalf, and by Order of the Conference,

GEORGE SARGEANT, President.
ARCHIBALD TAYLOR, Secretary.

IV.—CONNEXIONAL SUNDAY-SCHOOL UNION.

2 AND 3, LUDGATE-CIRCUS BUILDINGS, LONDON, E.C.

THE Committee of the Sunday-School Union, acting under the direction of the Education Committee, has extended its premises at the Depôt, Ludgate-Circus Buildings, by renting the basement and shop adjoining; and, by structural alterations, has thereby greatly facilitated the carrying on of the trade department of the work.

The business in the trade department has been fully maintained during the year, and the subscriptions and donations have increased.

The Committee, after careful consideration, has decided to make more liberal arrangements in regard to the Library Grants. After January 1st, 1892, any School which has kept up its annual subscription may apply for a Library Grant, on the usual terms, every third year. While the new arrangement cannot be made retrospective, yet those Schools which have been previously connected with the Union and whose subscriptions have been paid, will be entitled to Triennial Grants after 1892. As heretofore, any school joining the Union will be entitled to a Grant on payment of its first subscription.

The numbers in our Schools have grown: Band of Hope Membership has developed; there is a large increase of Scholars above fifteen years of age; and a gratifying advance in our Junior-Class membership is reported. The decrease in the average attendance of Scholars, both morning and afternoon, has been caused, to a considerable extent, by the severe and prolonged winter, and by malarial fever in many parts of the country. This has abnormally and seriously affected the attendance in most Districts. After, however, making all allowance for this cause of decrease, the Committee cannot but feel regret that, upon an increased number of Scholars on the Books, there should be any decrease at all in average attendance.

With much cause for thankfulness, there is need of deeper earnestness and of more wisely directed effort in all departments of our Sunday-School work.

The Connexional Secretary has visited a large number of Schools, and attended many Teachers' and Sunday School Conventions in Country Circuits, as well as in some of the most important Districts in the Connexion. These gatherings have given evidence of high spiritual tone and of much earnest work in our Schools.

APPENDIX IV.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT

THE CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

THE year has been marked by more than usual anxiety and effort, but also by unusual success. An unusually wide and earnest appeal has been made to the intelligence and sympathy of the Christian public. This, however, could not be done without increased expense. The cost of our advertising during the year has been £481 3*s.* 5*d.* in excess of that of the year previous.

In dealing with the difficult question of advertising, the Committee has been, and is wishful to err, if at all, on the side of carefulness and modesty in expenditure, rather than on the side of extravagance.

With great thankfulness and satisfaction, the Committee reports this year a substantial increase of income. The subscriptions and donations are £1,174 9*s.* 1*d.* in excess of those of the previous year. Other sources of income (collections, etc.) show an increase of £828 2*s.* 2*d.* Amongst the most encouraging items are the increase of £289 in the amounts contributed by Sunday Schools, and of £262 in the amount received from Collections made in chapels, especially at Christmas and the New Year. The yield from both these sources, the Committee believes, may be expected to increase steadily. The gross increase from all ordinary sources is £2,121 7*s.* 1*d.*

On the other hand, the payment for interest is £195 4*s.* 11*d.* beyond that of the previous year: a fact accounted for partly by the high rate of interest which ruled during a considerable part of the year. And, as mentioned above, an increased amount has been spent on advertising, printing, and circulating information respecting our work. Nevertheless, the net result is highly gratifying, and full of encouragement. From the Statement of Assets and Liabilities, it will be seen that the uncovered liability last year was £2,792 14*s.* 11*d.*, and this year is £2,292 15*s.* 5*d.*

The expenditure has, however, considerably increased. This has arisen principally from the best possible cause—viz., an increase in the amount of work done. A larger number of orphan and outcast children have been within our fold than at any former time. On March 31st, we had actually in our care 847 children, forty-six being at sea en route for Canada; 1,003 children have been benefited during the year. Our work in sheltering and helping girls has been more extensive than ever.

The receipt of a gift of £500 from Mrs. Moscrop, for the erection of a new laundry at Edgworth, and of a legacy of £500 to the same Branch by Mr. Greenhalgh, which will enable the Committee to carry out some much-needed improvements to the property, deserve special mention. A legacy of £1,000, for the erection of an additional House at the Princess Alice Branch, and a gift of £400 for a Cottage Hospital at the same Branch, call for grateful recognition.

The work itself is fruitful of good, and this in an increasing degree. The Committee is convinced that the regeneration of the national life is to be accomplished through the children of the nation, and that the most hopeful method of uplifting the submerged mass, is the uplifting of lost children, and the rescue of children who are on their way to ruin.

APPENDIX V.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

We report this year 3,714 Bands of Hope, with a membership of 376,540, an increase of 145 Bands and 5,859 members. The number of Bands connected with Sunday Schools is 3,378, with 350,175 members, an increase of 6,825. The number of Temperance Societies is 772, with 51,545 members, an increase of 120 Societies and 8,064 members.

We note with great joy the large increase in the number of our adult Temperance Societies and their membership. The ground for encouragement is all the greater considering that this is now the sixth year of continuous increase. In 1885 there were only 308 Temperance Societies; now there are 772, or considerably more than double the number. In 1885 the membership of those Societies was 24,450; now it is 51,545.

Notwithstanding the advance of the past few years, the number of our adult Temperance Societies is still very small, when we take into account the number of the adherents of our Church. The Committee is well aware that, with our complicated organization and the large number of our public meetings, it is often difficult to find a niche for the Temperance Society; but it respectfully reminds the Conference that the importance of the work is such that it claims a front place in our consideration.

We refer to a very important Resolution upon Temperance work in the Sunday School, which is to be found in the body of the Minutes in the section bearing upon Temperance, and the Committee has great hopes with respect to the results of the working of this Resolution.

During the year the Committee has been engaged, in conjunction with the Central Association for Stopping the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors on the Lord's Day, in endeavouring to secure a measure of Sunday Closing for England. To aid in this work a great Wesleyan-Methodist Petition was presented to Parliament, containing, according to the report of the scrutineers of the House of Commons, 300,871 signatures. This result, though large, is not satisfactory to the Committee, and it would strongly urge upon our people to put forth the most earnest efforts in order to bring about a cessation of the national desecration of the Lord's Day by the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The Committee still endeavours to prosecute its crusade against all forms of gambling, and an important resolution upon this subject will be found in these Minutes, p. 321.

Temperance Sunday was, we believe, better observed in 1890 than ever before. But we are sure that, if our preachers would only pay more attention to this subject, this important institution would produce greater results than we have yet seen.

The Committee still continues its association with the United Committee for the Prevention of the Demoralization of the Native Races by the Liquor Traffic, and believes that some progress is being made in the direction of creating a stronger International sentiment concerning the devastating effects of alcohol.

The Committee desires to record its great satisfaction at the passing of Sir Joseph Pease's Resolution in the House of Commons in relation to the Opium Traffic in India and Burma, and urges upon our people strenuous efforts to bring about the suppression of this iniquitous traffic.

Loans for Erections.

1. The Committee allows, if desired by Trustees, a debt in each case equal in proportion to the debt now allowed.

2. Trustees are required to pay off their debt within ten years, to commence at opening.

3. Trustees may be assisted by two Grants, the first to be paid on condition that half the debt be paid off in the first five years; and the second on condition that the second half be paid in the second five years. These Grants may amount, as to the first half, to 25 per cent. of the debt paid off, and as to the second, to 20 per cent., and may be paid to complete the amount necessary to extinguish the half of the debt dealt with.

The Aggregate Profit on the year's working amounts to £650 5*s.* 9*d.*, to which if there be added a small balance on last year of £6 17*s.* 9*d.* there will be a balance of £657 3*s.* 6*d.* to be distributed by the Committee at its meeting in October.

The above Tables will show how great is the advantage of the Common-Cash system to the Funds of Methodism. All Funds that have to borrow obtain their overdrafts on the lowest possible terms, viz., the actual Bank Rate of the day, and they borrow largley from each other rather than from the Bank. Funds having credit balances obtain Deposit rate of interest, in addition to which they receive, according to the credit balances they have kept, their full proportion of Profits.

APPENDIX IX.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE COMMEMORATION OF THE CENTENARY OF THE DEATH OF JOHN WESLEY.

In accordance with the instructions of the last Conference the Committee met as soon as practicable, and decided upon the character of the central Commemorative Services; the scope of the work to be done on the premises at City Road; and the necessary appeal for funds. That appeal was happily successful; and in recording this fact the Committee desire especially to recognise the liberal and very general response of the Methodist Ministers when the appeal was first put forth.

The work on the City-road premises is being carried on, but is not yet completed. The financial statement must therefore be postponed until the meeting of the next Conference, when it is expected that the entire work will be complete, and a duly audited balance-sheet presented.

The arrangements for the Central Services were made upon a scale of great efficiency and completeness, and were attended by vast crowds of people—an unequalled interest having been created throughout the country, not only in Methodist circles, but throughout all Religious communities, and amongst the great body of the people in this and other lands.

The Committee recognises with great pleasure the fact that in the Central Services all the Methodist Communities in this country were represented in the persons of their Presidents, whose Addresses were not only highly able and interesting, but full of the most Christian and brotherly sentiment.

The Committee further records the courtesy and catholicity of eminent Representatives of all the Evangelical Communities who took part in the services; some of whom, by their utterances upon the occasion, made contributions of the greatest importance and of permanent value to the history of Religious life in this country.

It is gratifying also to be able to place on record, that the press of the country, almost without exception, discussed, with sympathy and intelligence, Wesley's place, as one of the greatest of Englishmen, in the development of the Religious and National life of the people.

The Committee feels deeply thankful to have been permitted to arrange a series of Services which will always constitute a notable mark in the history of Methodism, which have recalled the attention of our own people, and especially of our young people, to the early and inspiring history of our Church, and which cannot fail to be a powerful stimulus to the energetic prosecution of the work still committed to us, if we do but recognise this event as a call to duty rather than an occasion of complacency.

The Committee has further to report with great satisfaction that, throughout the country, Services celebrating the Centenary were held in almost all the great centres, as well as in many smaller towns, in which occurred the happiest manifestations of Christian sympathy and brotherliness.

Finally, the Committee reports that it expects to arrange for the re-opening of Wesley's Chapel, City-road, on Friday, September 4th.

AN ALPHABETICAL LIST OF THE WESLEYAN-METHODIST MINISTERS AND PREACHERS ON TRIAL IN GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, AND ON THE COLONIAL AND FOREIGN STATIONS UNDER THE BRITISH CONFERENCE.

For List of Preachers on Trial not appointed to Circuits, see 'President's List of Reserve,' pp. 10, 11.

1. The figures in the first column mark simply the year in which each Minister entered on his work; those which immediately follow the name of the Circuits, denote the number of the Circuit on the Stations, the Mission Stations being distinguished by a number in brackets; and the numbers which stand at the right of the third column denote the year of annual appointment.

2. This List has been compiled for the purpose of convenient reference; no pains have been spared to ensure accuracy, but it is not to be considered official.

PREACHING AND HEALING.

A TRACT upon this subject, addressed to ministers of all denominations, may be had post free, upon application to the address given below.

Mr. B. COPSON GARRATT'S system of treatment is well known among Wesleyan friends, and scarcely needs an introduction; but there are so many needing its help that it is advisable to remind sufferers that Mr. GARRATT is always willing to give a candid opinion upon any case submitted to him. If there is a prospect of benefit, details of the course to be pursued are freely given, but false hopes are never knowingly encouraged. None need hesitate to write for information and advice, as so doing entails no fee, nor obligation of any kind. Numbers of ministers and connexional office-bearers have reason to be thankful that they ever adopted Mr. GARRATT'S treatment, and the following brief extracts from some of their letters should encourage sufferers of all classes to inquire at least what can be done for them :—

Rev. CHARLES GARRETT (sometime President of the Wesleyan Conference), 4, Blackburne Terrace, Liverpool.

"Your treatment has been of great benefit to me. I have also watched its effect on others, and the results have been most satisfactory. To all my friends who are ailing I say: 'Consult Mr. GARRATT.' Most of them have followed my advice with very gratifying results. The work in which you are engaged has my heartiest sympathy and co-operation."

Rev. A. JOHNSON, 26, Wilfred Place, Ashby-de-la-Zouch.

"I have been very much helped by your Appliances. Medical men called my affliction 'a hurt at the heart,' caused by hastily springing from a hedge to reach a railway station. Such was the irritability of that organ, and the consequent debility, that I had to retire from full work. I have been able to leave off the Appliances, and am now in my 80th year, not impaired in seeing, hearing, step, or sleep."

SEPTEMBER 19TH, 1890.—"I am happy to say my health is still permitted to me in good degree, for which I am thankful. My age last April was 83! I may repeat what I wrote in '86, for I still maintain that your remedy is good. I am able to do a fair amount of pulpit work; I enjoy the blessed service, and, if need be, I should glory in repeating my toil of years past."

Mr. JAMES SINCLAIR, Woodville, Putney.

"Some years ago, when I placed myself under your treatment, I was a victim of Insomnia of the worst form, and, with shattered nerves, was fast becoming unfit for business and the enjoyments of social and family life.

"Within three weeks of commencing to wear your Vest, and attending to your instructions as to friction, etc., I was virtually a new man; my sleep returned, and my nerves seemed as if anew braced up, and life became a pleasure.

"I am thankful to say, by God's blessing on the means you prescribed, I have never looked back. I have had occasionally a return of the symptoms, but a few days' use of the Vest and Gloves is quite sufficient to restore me."

Full information and gratuitous advice in any case post free on application to B. COPSON GARRATT, 16, Finsbury Square, London, E.C.

This Book has been prepared by a Sub-committee, the convener of which was the Rev. Dr. Stephenson. The Musical Editorship has been entrusted to Mr. Alfred Rhodes, A.R.A.M., to whose skill and interest the Committee are much indebted. It is right to say, however, that Mr. Rhodes is not responsible for the selection of the tunes.

It is obvious that in a book intended for use in great popular gatherings, many compositions must be included which do not meet the demands of severe musical taste. Their utility for the purposes contemplated in the publication is the justification of their presence.

The unusual metrical form of very many of the hymns has called for many new tunes. In supplying them the Committee are happy to have been able to secure the assistance of several able composers.

A FEW SELECTED TESTIMONIALS FROM PRESS OPINIONS.

The Rev. C. H. SPURGEON writes: 'It strikes me there is nothing in literature to excel them in their own line.'

GEORGE WILLIAMS Esq., President of the Y.M.C.A., says: 'The choicest fruit thus judiciously gathered from the trees of knowledge, and presented in so cheap a form, cannot fail to be the means of doing much, very much good.'

The Rev. NEWMAN HALL says: 'I am charmed with GREAT THOUGHTS. . . . The work is very valuable as a book of reference and illustration. In its penny form it is the best substitute I know for the pernicious literature of the day. I recommend it to my friends everywhere.'

The Mission of The Children's Home is to rescue children who, through t or extreme poverty of their parents, are in danger of falling into criminal ways. once an Orphanage and a Refuge.

The Home receives children of any age, or any sect, without election. It the Family system; is a Religious and Industrial Institution; is a Train Christian Workers; and is dependent on Voluntary Contributions.

Within the last twenty-two years about 3,000 children have received th Institution. Nearly 850 are now in residence. About £16 will maintain a chil a year.

Nearly 2,200 children have now passed through the Home, and there is for thankfulness to God for the present well-being and for the prospects in life of this great number.

In connection with this work the Gordon Hall Mission is carried on i London; an agency for the Protection of Girls is at work, a refuge being day; a Servants' Free Registry is open, and Lodgings are provid young women during the interval between situations; also a Mission Children of East London is very successfully carried on. The entire work i more liberal support. The smallest contributions will be thankfully received.

The need of such a work is painfully obvious. Our cities and towns children exposed to every evil influence, shut out from all good, living a life savages, and as they grow up they naturally take their places in the ranks of criminal. Yet they may be saved. Hundreds of cases prove that these little mere infants—are susceptible of every elevating influence, and need only the home to develop all that is good in their characters, and fit them for reputabl
